

WITH BACK TO WALL CANNON FIGHTS House in All-Night Revolt Against Autocrat TO AVERT HIS POLITICAL WATERLOO

Cannon and Regulars Only Stave Off Ultimate Defeat
by a Long Filibuster.

FIGHT TO OUST CANNON FROM RULES COMMITTEE

And to Put the Selection of Committee in Hands of the House—On Many Votes Democrats and Insurgents Showed That They Held Whip Hand—Cannon Delays Downfall by Refusing to Rule.

Washington, March 17.—At 2 a. m. the house by a vote of 134 to 141 defeated for the third time a motion to recess until 11:55 a. m. The stubborn filibuster of the republican "regulars" was resumed against consideration of the resolution of Representative Norris, of Nebraska, providing for the reorganization of the committee on rules, eliminating the speaker.

The moment the vote was announced, and the obstinate test of endurance began again, the democrats renewed their cries of "Rule!" "Rule!" Mr. Smith, republican, of Iowa, and a member of the committee on rules, took up the dreary debate. This was soon after 2 a. m. with no end in sight.

Cannon Men Break Quorum.
After the last defeat of the Cannon forces the point of no quorum was made.

The roll call showed only 154 present—less than a quorum—and Mr. Underwood, democrat, of Alabama, moved that the sergeant-at-arms find and arrest the absentees and bring them before the bar of the house. The motion was carried, and the search was begun.

It was generally understood at 2:30 a. m. that the "regulars" had broken the quorum deliberately, and were gone for the night. At that hour the prospect was that nothing further could be done before morning.

A new committee on rules, with the speaker ineligible for membership in it—the issue was as real as that.

Why the Insurgents Rebelled.

Over a matter comparatively trivial in itself the insurgents found their opportunity to get a test of strength with the "organization." It occurred over an attempt by Representative "Crumpacker" of Indiana, to secure consideration for a resolution amending the census act. Practically no member of the house opposed the resolution, but it was contended that the method used in bringing it up transgressed the rules of the house.

Speaker Cannon yesterday ruled against that view and was defeated. The question came up again today, and the regulars believed they had mustered sufficient strength on the democratic side to reverse yesterday's action. The vote developed that they had been mistaken, or deceived, and the Cannon forces were beaten again.

The second vote occurred late in the afternoon. The effect was startling. The "taste of blood" seemed to infuriate those who had long fretted under the restraint of organization rule. Insurgent republicans and democrats swarmed to common battling ground and through the leadership of Representative Norris, of Nebraska, made a concerted movement against the republican rules.

Gate of Battle Thrown.
Reposing in Mr. Norris' desk had been the resolution prepared at the beginning of the present session providing for the appointment of a new committee on rules, to consist of fifteen members, and to which the speaker would be ineligible. The Nebraska had the resolution handy against the possibility of a time coming that would make it useful. He seized the opportunity and flung the gate of open battle into the arena.

The previous disastrous results made

Continued on Page Two.

ALL GEORGIA DELEGATION

LINED UP AGAINST CANNON

Washington, March 17.—(Special.)—Every member of the Georgia delegation will vote for the Norris resolution. Several of them would vote not to withdraw from the speaker the power enjoyed by every presiding officer to name the committees which consider legislation, but will vote for the steering or rules committee of the house to be selected by the house.

Weston Ahead of Schedule.

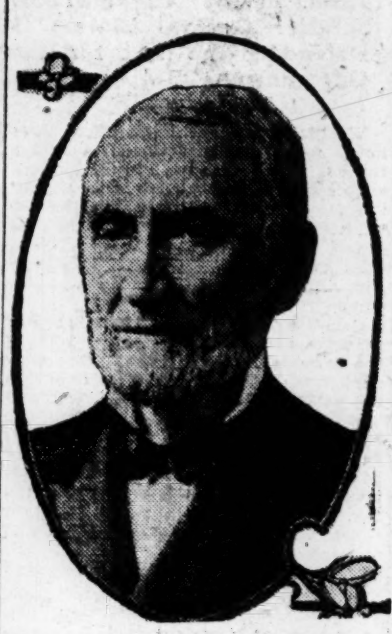

Newton, Kan., March 17.—Nine days ahead of his schedule, Edward P. Weston, who is walking from Los Angeles to New York, arrived tonight at 9 o'clock. He walked 44 miles today.

DEFEAT OF SPEAKER CANNON

CONCEDED BY RIGHT-HAND MAN

Washington, March 17.—(Special.)—At 1 o'clock this morning Representative Mann, of Illinois, right-hand man of Speaker Cannon, conceded the ultimate victory of the democrats. He said:

"You are seeking to establish a precedent that will rise up to curse you if

SPEAKER CANNON.

TEXT OF THE RESOLUTION

TAKING POWER FROM CANNON

Washington, March 17.—Following is the text of the Norris resolution:

"Resolved, That the rules of the house be amended as follows:

"The committee on rules shall consist of fifteen members, nine of whom shall be members of the majority party and six of whom shall be members of the minority party, to be selected as follows:

"The states of the union shall be divided by a committee of three selected by the house for that purpose, into nine groups, each group containing as near as may be an equal number of members belonging to the majority party. The states of the union shall likewise be divided into six groups, each group containing as near as may be an equal number of members belonging to the minority party.

"At 10:30 o'clock on the day following the adoption of the report of said committee, each of said groups shall meet and select one of its members a member of the committee on rules. The place of meeting for each of said groups shall be designated by the said committee of three in its report. Each of said groups shall report to the house the name of the member selected for membership on the committee on rules.

"The committee on rules shall select its own chairman; the speaker shall not be eligible to membership on said committee. All rules or parts thereof inconsistent with the foregoing resolution are hereby repealed."

LORDS ARE NOT LIKELY

TO CLEAN THEIR HOUSE

Rosebery's Reform Resolution Referred to Committee.

London, March 17.—The house of lords tonight referred Lord Rosebery's resolution looking to the reform of the chamber to a committee, which will consider them next week.

The tenor of the debate today shows that there is more than a practical sympathy in the house with the reform idea, and those supporting Rosebery advanced such divergent views on the manner in which the reform should be carried out that if reform is achieved from within it will certainly prove a long and troublesome house as much a hereditary chamber as before.

Lord Lansdowne, in a speech today, gave a modified support to Lord Rosebery's scheme, but spoke strongly against the retention of the hereditary principle.

In the meantime Premier Asquith's resolutions on the veto question are promised for next week.

The house of commons today passed the second reading of the bill under which the Indian government seeks power to raise $25,000,000 for railway and irrigation development for commercial, not strategical purposes.

Kills Child and Mother-in-Law.

Asheville, N. C., March 17.—A special from Marion to The Citizen States that Charles Morris, living 6 miles south of that city, today shot and instantly killed his 2-year-old child and mother-in-law, Mrs. Bird, and seriously wounded his wife. He then fired a bullet into his own head, from the effects of which he died an hour later.

Weston Ahead of Schedule.

Newton, Kan., March 17.—Nine days ahead of his schedule, Edward P. Weston, who is walking from Los Angeles to New York, arrived tonight at 9 o'clock. He walked 44 miles today.

DEFEAT OF SPEAKER CANNON

CONCEDED BY RIGHT-HAND MAN

Washington, March 17.—(Special.)—At 1 o'clock this morning Representative Mann, of Illinois, right-hand man of Speaker Cannon, conceded the ultimate victory of the democrats. He said:

"You are seeking to establish a precedent that will rise up to curse you if

ARKANSAS MOB STORMS JAIL

Declares It Will Lynch
Two Negroes.

Two Hundred Armed Citizens
Take Charge of Jail-Breakers and Threaten Vengeance Upon Every Negro in Town of Marion.

West Marion, Ark., March 17.—Threatening vengeance upon every negro in Marion, Ark., 5 miles east of here, a mob of 200 armed citizens has locked in jail two alleged negro jail-breakers, whom they have declared they will lynch at daylight. Other negroes in the town were attacked by the mob tonight. Wire communication with Marion is cut off.

The lynching was staged tonight solely for the purpose of securing a full confession from the men who were brought here from Memphis, Tenn., early tonight, according to the declaration of the mob leaders. The jail delivery took place Monday night, twelve prisoners escaping, and it is believed that a number of negroes living in Marion aided in the escape.

Dragged Through Streets.

On the arrival of the negroes, Charles Richardson and Bob Austin, an ex-convict, the two deputy sheriffs in charge were quickly overpowered. Sheriff Lewis pleaded with the mob to spare the negroes, but they were dragged through the principal streets of the town.

Shortly before midnight the mob locked its prisoners in the Marion jail, leaving a heavy guard in charge. A number of negroes found on the streets were badly beaten and threatened.

DEFICIT OF $1,395,850

FOR THE SUGAR TRUST

Shortage Is Caused by Heavy

Fines Paid the Government.

New York, March 17.—The American Sugar Refining Company finished the fiscal year ended December 31, 1909, with a deficit for the year of $1,395,850 on account of suits in which the company was involved, according to its annual report made public here today.

The company settled its dispute with the government over import duties alleged to have been withheld wrongfully by means of fraudulent weighing of sugar at the docks by the payment of $2,319,456.

The $2,000,000 paid in settlement of the suit by the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining Company brought the total penalties for the year to $1,135,486.

The net profits for the year were $10,823,869.

Dividends paid were $6,299,951 and $1,784,282 was deducted for depreciation of plants and equipment and reserve for contingencies, leaving a balance of $2,739,636.

ONE MAN IN A DUEL

AGAINST FOUR MEN

Young Daughter of One Combattant Saw Father

Killed.

Lancaster, Ky., March 17.—In a desperate pistol duel near Bourne, Garrard county, between Luther Ray, on one side and Creed Turner and three sons on the other this afternoon, the elder Turner was killed and Ray was killed, and Ray was mortally wounded, being shot in a half dozen places.

The young daughter of Turner sat in a buggy by her father throughout the fight, but escaped injury.

HE FELL TO DEATH

IN FRONT OF WIFE

Woman Didn't Swoon as She Saw His Mangled

Body.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 17.—As Mrs. Roy Umholt walked on the sidewalk in front of the National hotel for her husband to come downstairs, he dived from a fourth floor window and struck head first on the flagging in front of her last night.

The woman did not swoon, but stood stock still, staring at the crumpled bleeding body. Men hurried to raise Umholt, but he was dead. His wife said he had been morose and often threatened suicide.

S. D. Title New Assistant.

Macon, Ga., March 17.—(Special.)—S. D. Title, a newspaper man of Montgomery, Ala., formerly assistant postmaster at Lockhart, Ala., was convicted in the United States court here today of embezzlement, and was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary at Atlanta. He was accused of misappropriating about $400.

Sentenced to Atlanta Pen.

Montgomery, Ala., March 17.—Harry L. Davis, formerly assistant postmaster at Lockhart, Ala., was convicted in the United States court here today of embezzlement, and was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary at Atlanta. He was accused of misappropriating about $400.

Women Voted Against Sisters.

New York, March 17.—"Equal pay for equal work," the cause of women teachers in the public schools, has been defeated in the board of education by a vote of 23 to 16. Of the four women members of the board, three voted against their sisters.

HALF OF ENTIRE NATION MAY BE TIED UP BY THREATENED STRIKE OF WESTERN FIREMEN

CHICAGO FREIGHT YARDS

ILLINOIS CENTRAL DEPOT IN CHICAGO

MARVIN HUGHITT

LOUIS W. HILL

E. R. RIPLEY

The complete tying up of every railroad in the west was predicted at Chicago as the result of the strike vote of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, the membership of which is estimated between 35,000 and 23,000. Forty-nine railroads, with a total length of about 120,000 miles, are affected by the differences between the roads and their men. The total mileage of the country is 224,000. Among the big roads whose men voted to go out are the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe, E. P. Ripley, president; the Chicago and Northwestern, the president of which is Marvin Hughitt, and the Great Northern, headed by Louis W. Hill, son of James J. Hill. Others on the long list are the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, the Chicago and Alton, the Illinois Central, the Northern Pacific, the Southern Pacific, the Union Pacific, the Missouri, Kansas and Texas, and the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific. At the head of the disaffected workers is W. S. Carter, president of the Brotherhood, who is assisted by most of the country's organizers of railroad men. The points in dispute are increase in wages, the right of the union in questions of representation when a fireman has been promoted to an engineering or to another position over which another union claims jurisdiction and questions of seniority, or the promotion of new men over old-time employees.

DEBT FORCES WEDDING RING

FROM FINGER OF SICK WIFE

In the iron clutch of the law, W. S. Whitehead, a recent graduate of the Atlanta Medical college, was forced to tear from the finger of his sick wife the ring he had given her on their wedding day, so that he might satisfy his creditors.

Today the young husband is hemmed in on all sides by the petty meanness of dire poverty, and without any comfort or solace, he sits in his room, reflecting on the short story of his married life, one of extremes—both of joy and sorrow—and capped by the pitiful happening of Thursday.

Love Finds a Way.

Whitehead came from a small town in South Carolina to study medicine in Atlanta. While here he formed the acquaintance of a beautiful young Atlanta girl. She liked his frank ways and he soon found that he loved her.

In the first realization of love, young Whitehead's hopes mounted to the skies. Nothing seemed dark in the world. In the flush of his optimism he urged her to marry him at once, though he had no plans for a livelihood, and she consented.

It was then that the young man bought his marriage ring from Durham Bros. for the sum of $175. He had no earthly idea how he was going to make all the payments—but rested on the well-worn and often deceitful adage that "Love will find a way."

A happy couple then returned to Camden, the young man's home. Here he opened his medical office.

Worries, Debts, Sickness.

Whether Fate had a special grudge against him or whether he was not sufficiently zealous in the pursuit of his occupation, he did not prosper and his gay, good nature soon gave way to worry and then misery. His debts increased from day to day. His wife grew sick, but he had no money to buy the necessary medicines.

Finally she was forced to return to Atlanta and her parents carried her to the Davis & Fisher Sanitarium on Crew street.

The Durham Brothers then told him that he would either have to return the ring or go to jail, and he, broken-hearted, went to his sick wife to tell her.

"My dear—you know I love you," she replied in a faint voice.

"Yes, you know that I would rather kill myself than cause you any pain."

"Yes."

Wedding Ring or Jail.

But at this juncture the man's voice broke, and he fell down on his knees and buried his face in the bedcover.

"Oh, God, they told me I had to give them back our wedding ring or go to jail. My God!"

The young wife's eyes grew sick with the dread comprehension. Her face turned even paler than it was before. She closed her eyes as if to shut out the thought.

Then slowly she smiled—a smile—a tortured smile, but still a smile, and extended her hand upon which the stone gleamed with a star's brightness as if to mock them both.

With averted face he pulled the ring from her finger, and with bowed head walked from the room.

LOT BOUGHT, PLANS MADE

FOR EPISCOPAL SCHOOL

By a real estate deal, just concluded Bishop C. K. Nelson, of the Episcopal diocese of Atlanta, has come into possession of a lot on the left-hand side of Peachtree street, just beyond Peachtree Circle for the reported sum of $18,000. The lot, bought from Marion Jackson, has a Peachtree frontage of 123 feet and runs back about 650.

On this site, some time during the summer, the erection of a school building for girls, which will cost in the neighborhood of $60,000, will begin. It will be known as Nelson hall. Plans have been drawn for the structure by Miss Henrietta Dozier, and have been accepted by the board of trustees, of which Bishop Nelson is chairman.

The architecture of the proposed building will be in the collegiate style. In addition to the class rooms and study halls, there will be a dormitory for teachers in the public schools, one hundred day pupils.

About $15,000 of the amount paid for the lot was raised by subscription. The school will be under the direction of a board of thirteen trustees, with Bishop Nelson as chairman. The members of the board are Thomas W. Eggleston, Frank Dempsey, Captain W. G. Raoul, A. A. Smith, Dr. George H. Noble, J. S. B. Thompson, W. A. Wimbush, W. J. Massey and W. E. McCaw, of Macon; W. A. Knowles, of Rome and three others.

HE DESERTED FLAG

FOR FILIPINO GIRL

President Taft Pardons Baker,

Who Was Sentenced

for Life.

Vallejo, Cal., March 17.—F. M. Baker, formerly a noncommissioned officer in the marine corps, who was sentenced to life imprisonment at San Quentin for desertion, has been pardoned by President Taft.

Baker was arrested in 1904 while on duty at the home of his father, who was instrumental in having President Taft pardon the young man. Love for a Filipino girl is said to have caused Baker's desertion.

ALDRICH FORCED TO SURRENDER ON RAILWAY BILL

Hot Fire of Senator Cummins Draws Promise to Amend the Measure.

FRIENDS OF MEASURE HOLD A CONFERENCE

And Agree Upon Amendments That May Lessen Opposition to the Taft Measure—Proposed for Commission to Have Power Over Rate Agreements
Made by the Roads.

Washington, March 17.—For the purpose of having the administration railroad bill amended by its friends, rather than by senators who have assailed its provisions, senate leaders and Attorney General Wickersham conferred for two hours after the adjournment of the senate today. That a number of changes will be urged as a result of this conference was admitted tonight.

The meeting was attended by Attorney General Wickersham and Senators Aldrich, Hale, Carter, Sutherland, Flint, Elkins, Keen, Crane and Root. The senators present scouted the suggestion that the senate was the result of the attack upon the bill by Senator Cummins.

Secrecy as to Amendments.

The senators in the conference all declined to say what amendments had been agreed upon. Probably the most important of the modifications considered in that along the lines indicated yesterday by Senator Aldrich, which would give the interstate commerce commission undisputed control of traffic agreements between railroad companies, if it is found that this is not already covered in the bill.

Other suggestions look to amendments putting shippers to be presented before the proposed court of commerce, and changing the provision in relation to water carriers as to make it conform to the present law.

Senator Cummins concluded the third section of his discussion of the bill and was about to enter upon the consideration of the section regulating mergers when the senate adjourned. He was on his feet for two hours.

Power of Commission Over Agreements.

The most interesting portion of today's proceedings consisted of a reiteration of Senator Aldrich's position with reference to the power to be given the interstate commerce commission over agreements between railroads. Senator Cummins returned to this question, saying he understood the Rhode Island senator had indicated yesterday that he was in practical concurrence with him.

In reply Mr. Aldrich said he was of opinion that the rates and classifications fixed by the railroads should be subject to the approval of the commission and he repeated the statement that if these were not clearly sounder, in the pending bill, he desired to have them made so.

Assuming that Mr. Aldrich meant to accept his view in substance, Mr. Cummins was preparing to pass to another point when Mr. Aldrich stated that he had been misunderstood.

An Impassable Gulf.

"Does the senator from Iowa understand that there is an impassable gulf between himself and the senator from Rhode Island?" asked Mr. Nelson, who pointed out that Mr. Aldrich thought the pending bill sufficient, while Mr. Cummins demanded a change of the language.

Mr. Cummins admitted the existence of such a gulf, and expressed the fear that it never would be bridged.

He later expressed hope that Mr. Aldrich would consent to preserve what is good and reject what is bad in the bill.

"Vain hope," ejaculated Mr. Bailey.

While Mr. Cummins was discussing the changes made in the original

Weather Prophecy:

FAIR.

Georgia—Fair Friday and Saturday;

light variable winds.

Lowest temperature 43

Highest temperature 68

Mean temperature 56

Normal temperature 53

Rainfall in 24 hours, inches 0.0

Deficiency since first of month, inches 1.09

Deficiency since January 1, inches 3.43

Reports from Various Stations.

Stations and State of Weather.

Temp'rature Rain 12 h's

7 p.m. High/Low

Atlanta, Ga., cloudy . . . 64 68 .00

Boston, clear . . . 28 32 .00

Buffalo, clear . . . 26 30 .00

Birmingham, cloudy . . . 62 68 .00

Chattanooga, Pt. C. . . 62 68 .00

Chicago, clear . . . 38 52 .00

Corpus Christi, clear . . . 68 72 .00

Danvers, clear . . . 62 62 .00

Detroit, Pt. C. . . 32 32 .01

Galveston, cloudy . . . 62 62 .00

Jacksonville, clear . . . 68 72 .00

Los Angeles, cloudy . . . 60 70 .00

Mobile, clear . . . 58 68 .00

Montgomery, clear . . . 66 72 .00

New Orleans, clear . . . 66 72 .00

Norfolk, clear . . . 42 64 .00

Palestine, cloudy . . . 52 54 .12

Portland, Me., clear . . . 22 30 .00

San Francisco, Pt. C. . . 58 64 .00

St. Louis, clear . . . 62 66 .00

St. Paul, clear . . . 48 52 .00

Thomasville, clear . . . 54 70 .00

Vicksburg, cloudy . . . 64 68 .00

T indicates inappreciable precipitation.

<

Spring Medicine

There is no other season when medicine is so much needed as in the spring. The blood is impure and impurities—a condition indicated by pimples, boils and other eruptions on the face and body, by deficient vitality, loss of appetite, lack of strength.

The best spring medicine, according to the experience and testimony of thousands annually, is

Hood's Sarsaparilla

It purifies and enriches the blood, cures eruptions, builds up the system. Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets known as Sarsatabs.

draft of the bill as prepared in New York last August. Senator Aldrich said Mr. Cummins himself had been among the persons who had been called into consultation by the president. Mr. Cummins replied that he would not undertake to enter into an explanation of the conference. He recalled, however, that Senator Elkins had developed a discussion as to whether it would be possible to compel trunk lines to furnish equipment to coal roads.

Bailey Wanted Revelations

In view of Mr. Bailey going to the interest that would attach to a full revelation as to what had occurred. He knew, he said, that Mr. Elkins and Mr. Cummins had been there, and he was anxious to know whether Mr. Aldrich had been present. Mr. Aldrich replied that he had not been a member of the conference.

"I must be silent as to the meeting," said Mr. Cummins. "I do not like to recall painful memories."

Mr. Cummins contended that if the present provision regarding traffic agreements was accepted, there would be anywhere from 1,000,000 to 5,000,000 such agreements, rendering it absolutely impossible for the commission to investigate any appreciable portion of them. The inevitable result, he contended, would be the destruction of competition with a consequent increase of rates.

MORTUARY

Mrs. Dana Gibbs.
The funeral of Mrs. Dana Gibbs will be held in the Capitol Avenue Baptist church at 10:30 o'clock this morning. The interment will be in West View cemetery.

Mrs. Jennie Theresa Hall.
Mrs. Jennie Theresa Hall, wife of W. B. Hall, died here today at 4 o'clock at 4 Confederate avenue Wednesday night at 10 o'clock. She had been in Atlanta about a month in search of health. The body will be taken to New Haven this morning for funeral and interment.

Paul J. Emory.
Paul J. Emory, aged 22 years, son of G. W. Emory, died at the residence, 115 Logan street, at 8 o'clock yesterday morning. The body will be taken to Glenn, Ga., this morning for funeral and interment.

J. M. Williams.
J. M. Williams, aged 43 years, of Grayson, Ga., died at a private sanitarium early yesterday morning. He is survived by his wife and four children, all living in Grayson. He also leaves two brothers, O. R. Williams, of Atlanta, and W. D. Williams, of Grayson. The funeral will be held at his home in Grayson at 11 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Lula Chandler.
Mrs. Lula Chandler, aged 22 years, wife of H. Chandler, died at the residence, 203 Kennedy street, at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. The body will be taken to Dalton, Ga., at 7:15 o'clock this morning for funeral and interment.

Death of Infant.
The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Epps died at the residence, on the Jonesboro road, at 12:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The funeral will be held from the residence at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The interment will be in South Bend churchyard.

William McGukin.
William McGukin, aged 77 years, died at his residence in Lakewood Heights at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He is survived by his wife and two children, J. T. McGukin and Mrs. H. T. Yearsley. The funeral will be held at Harry G. Poole's chapel, where it will be taken at 6:55 o'clock this morning to Anderson, S. C., for funeral and interment.

G. J. Garner, Dawson.
Dawson, Ga., March 17.—(Special.)—G. J. Garner, died here today at the age of 52 years. He is survived by a wife and seven children. He was a candidate for the office of clerk of the county with good prospects of being elected. Mr. Garner belonged to the Women of the World and the Royal Arcanum.

Mrs. J. D. Rogers, Kingston.
Kingston, Ga., March 17.—(Special.)—Mrs. J. D. Rogers died at the family home here this morning. Before her marriage she was Miss Mattie Hargis, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hargis. She is survived by her husband, James D. Rogers, of the Hargis Grocery Company, of Atlanta. Three children, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Rogers, Gordon Rogers and Miss Kathleen Rogers, of this place; her mother and her uncle, Capt. J. H. Hargis, one of the oldest conductors on the Western and Atlantic Railroad. She was also a member of the oldest of Atlanta. The funeral and interment will take place tomorrow at 2 o'clock.

John O. Turner, Alabama.
Montgomery, Ala., March 17.—(Special.)—News reaches the state educational department that John O. Turner, former principal of the state normal school at Nashville, died this week at his home in Asheville, N. C. Mr. Turner held the office from 1894 to 1898.

Captain G. M. Kidd, Nashville.
Nashville, Tenn., March 17.—(Special.)—Captain George William Kidd, of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, one of the oldest conductors in the south in point of service, died at his home here today. He was with the treasurer division of the road before the civil war.

NEW AUTO CLUB FOR CENTRAL CITY
(From Life)
Macon, Ga., March 17.—(Special.)—A new automobile club will be formed in Macon tomorrow evening at a meeting of prominent owners. In the rooms of the chamber of commerce, in the Jacques building. A call has been issued by Emory Winship, S. R. Jacques, J. W. Shindles, Henry J. Lamar and Frank B. West. Several months have passed since such an organization was discussed in Macon. The meeting tomorrow promises a strong organization.

Latest Divorce.

"Parker and his wife have separated." "What are the terms?" "They each get their cook for six months."

REELIN'S SAINT HONORED BY TAFT

President Guest of the Irishmen of Chicago.

While Battle Raged at Washington Taft Was Lauding Virtues of Several Addresses by President During Day-In One He Discussed Conservation.

Chicago, March 17.—If President Taft, as he sat beaming behind a bank of orchids at the St. Patrick's banquet of the Irish Fellowship Club to-night, knew of the insistent uprising at Washington, he did not show it.

One of his staff, seated at the press table, received a long message, which he perused with a half frown. Then he looked at the president, who seemed regal and at peace with the world, and died the message slowly away in his coat.

The president, who had during the day, discussed in vigorous fashion, various live questions of the day, placidly read a long appreciation of Ireland's patron saint and touched upon the history of Ireland and her long struggle for at least quasi independence. It was the one effort of the day which he had found time to prepare, and there was no politics in it.

Maximilian Heavily Cherished.

The address, if the heartiest plaudits are a criterion, went straight to the hearts of his listeners.

At the speaker's table were General F. D. Grant, Governor Deane, Bishop Muloon, Judge Elbridge Haney. A large number of Catholic priests, in their sacred garb, lent their dignity to the occasion, the whole effect, however, being bright, owing to the presence of many women. No wine was served.

President Taft was a thoroughly tired man when his train left at 11 o'clock tonight for Rochester, N. Y.

During the day he spoke to members of the Chicago Newspaper Club, the Traffic Club to a mass meeting and to members and guests of the Hamilton Club.

In these speeches the president touched on "statesmen correspondents," who colored facts to suit their views. To railway men of the Traffic Club he expressed his trust in the sense of justice of the American people. He declared that he had learned more in the first year of his administration than he could hope to assimilate in the next three.

Taft on South's Progress.

Speaking of the prosperity of the country, the president referred especially to advance in the south.

"I like to dwell upon that," said the speaker, "because down in the south there was a time when the hindrance and seemingly little chance of any real progress. But now she is growing, and I know that you, northerners that you are, welcome that fact, because you realize that there was a time when she did not have quite a fair show."

The president's brother, Charles P. Taft, unobtrusively edged into the crowd during the reception. He was at the Chicago Newspaper Club, and was also present at the luncheon. A harp of shamrocks, sent from Ireland by John E. Redmond, the Irish nationalist leader, was presented to the guest of honor.

At the conclusion of this luncheon, the president sought his room for a half hour of quiet and rest. Crowds made the hotel corridors noisy, but policemen warned all who passed the president's room to cease talking. When the president disappeared he seemed much refreshed, and there was nothing of weariness apparent in his manner when he began his address to the thousands of persons who had gathered at the Auditorium.

Mass Trade to Follow Taft.

At the stage door of the theater a man attempted to follow the president into the building, but he was seized by two secret service operators. He declared he was a newspaper man, but the paper for which he said he worked denied his statement. He was locked up after a struggle. He gave the name of "Dick" Shaw. At the station it was said he seemed to be under the influence of liquor.

Prolonged cheering interrupted the speaker when he mentioned the name of Theodore Roosevelt.

"The conservation movement," said Mr. Taft, "was the beginning of Theodore Roosevelt. (Prolonged applause.) Go it again. You don't enjoy that any more than I do. Who was it inspired in Clifford Pinchot that wonderful faculty of mind and body with reference to conservation movement? (Applause.) I am in favor of giving credit where credit belongs (applause), and of withholding it where it does not belong. "There are people in congress, scientists, hard-working prominent statesmen, who look at the question of conservation as it might have been looked at twenty or thirty years ago. They are still in favor of leaving out the land and getting the settlers on it, not in favor of a careful method of conservation and preservation. I am not criticizing them."

"Convincing Some of Them."

"What I think I don't understand, and that we in the east don't understand the situation, because we don't breathe the atmosphere of the west. Well, I think we are convincing a good many of them that we are right, and they are in the wrong; but there are some of them who are perfect Ajaxes in debate, and who say they will continue to debate this question and will stand against the conservation program as long as the leather of their shoes will last."

"What I want to get is an act of congress that shall validate all the withdrawals of land that have been made, and shall give me power to make such further withdrawals as ought to be made until congress has determined upon the proper disposition of these lands."

The president said that he was meeting opposition from those who wish an immediate disposal of land and from those who question the constitutional power of the president to make withdrawals.

New Cars Yet to Be Ordered.

Macon, Ga., March 17.—(Special.)—The play-as-you-enter cars that were to have been ordered by the Macon Railway and Light Company are not as yet on the order books of the company, that is waiting to make them. The cars are under advisement, however, and President J. W. Mussey will probably have a new proposition within a few days.

Beauties of Blank Verse.

"Mrs. Smith's dress was a perfect poem," she ventured.

"What are the terms?" he answered, "part of it was in blank verse."

CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS AND WIFE RETURN FROM THEIR WORLD TOUR

Equaling in warmth if not in size the welcome to be extended to Colonel Roosevelt in June is the reception arranged in New York to mark the return to America of his former associate in office, ex-Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks. Among the bodies which prepared to extend a hearty greeting to the returning Indian and his wife was

BACK TO WALL CANNON FIGHTS TO AVERT POLITICAL WATERLOO

Continued From Page One.

The Cannon forces wary, and they immediately began "sparring for time." It was evident on every side that the organization was fighting for its very existence. The conflict was on a plane different from any that had been held in the past. It appeared that the positions had been reversed. The enemy had presented a solid front and there were wide breaches in the regulars' ranks.

The regulars declared that the Norris resolution was not in order, but they had not the votes to enforce their position. At the same time debate on this point could not be limited, and the fight resolved itself into an endurance contest with the regulars being the breastworks and the insurgents and democrats the besieging force. The best orators on both sides appeared in the debate. The very fact that so many members wanted to talk made it all the easier for the regulars to keep up their filibuster.

Even Cannon Took Part.

Even Speaker Cannon took part in the discussion. After listening to the abuse of his power for several hours, he finally appeared on the floor and in direct answer to a speech of Mr. Cooper, of Wisconsin, he said: "I am not in favor of the emergency currency law."

Representative Underwood, of Alabama, who, with Representative Champ Clark, had been in charge of the fight conducted by the democratic forces throughout the day, said at 10:30 o'clock:

"It is apparent that we can do nothing until the speaker rules on the point of order which is pending. The house cannot compel the speaker to see where they stood in their attitude of reformers of the practices of the house."

Mr. Douglas, of Ohio, in an impassioned appeal to the majority, declared that by the adoption of the pending resolution the house would make chaos of its rules.

"Now is the time of our salvation," said Mr. Polindexter, after ridiculing the suggestion that there was danger of chaos in the conduct of the house.

One of the most vigorous speeches of the day was by William of New York, who told of his efforts to get a hearing on his bill for the creation of a parcels post.

"Your resolution for an inquiry into the parcels post suggestion gave me the opportunity to express my views on this work," suggested Mr. Smith, of Iowa.

Charges and Counter Charges.

Then followed charges and counter charges concerning the methods of delay alleged to be responsible for the inability of members to get hearings on bills and the assertions of impossibility of having bills brought out unless approved by the powers of the house.

An extended address was delivered by J. Slat Fassett, of New York, who, defending the majority of the house, appealed to his republican colleagues to resist any effort to divide the party. He reminded the democrats that in curbing the power of the majority, they were establishing a dangerous precedent for themselves.

"Finally," he exclaimed, "the action taken here means success or failure of the Taft administration."

Mr. Tawney then moved that the house take a recess until 11 a. m. tomorrow. This the house defeated by a vote of 142 to 147.

Representative Roberts, of Massachusetts, then made the point of "no quorum," on which an eye and nay vote was demanded, and twenty-three minutes were consumed on the question whether there should be a call of the house.

Whips Round Up Forces.

The whips on both sides began rounding up their forces and members began pouring back into the chamber in line to answer to their names. The "regulars" were again defeated, the vote being 108 yeas, 116 nays.

The "regulars" were again defeated, the vote being 108 yeas, 116 nays.

Mr. Cannon yielded the chair to Representative Olmsted, of Pennsylvania, and left the chamber. The speaker pro tem. recognized Representative Parker, of New Jersey (republican), who denounced the insurgents. The speaker pro tem. then recognized Mr. Fowler, of New Jersey, who proceeded with a defense of the course of the insurgents and a scathing denunciation of the "regulars."

The rules of this house gives to the speaker the power that accorded the presiding officer of any other legislative body on earth. I refuse to deal in personalities. I denounce Speaker Cannon, although on the floor of the house some months ago he stood to her a few feet distant from me as I sat here and without provocation called me a demagogue, and for what? For nothing more than that I did not agree with him that there should be a high protective tariff on Standard Oil.

An extraordinary scene occurred when Mr. Cooper, of Wisconsin, declared instances in which he declared members of the house had been punished by the speaker by being refused important committee assignments, called upon Mr. Fowler, of New Jersey, his colleagues to testify to the treatment they had received at the hands of the speaker. Mr. Cannon had left the chair and stood on the raised dais at the clerk's desk observing the Wisconsin member's speech.

Interrupting at last, Mr. Cannon asked if Mr. Gardner, of Massachusetts, was in the house, and the Massachusetts man appearing, the speaker asked him to tell the house how he had been treated by the speaker.

Mr. Gardner said he had gone off that committee voluntarily in order to avoid embarrassment in his course as an insurgent.

Mr. Cannon then explained why he had removed several members from their committee places. Fowler, of New Jersey, he said, as chairman of the banking and currency committee, had refused to report the emergency currency bill after the republican caucus twice had declared in favor of that legislation. Murdock, of Kansas; Norris, of Nebraska, and Cooper, of Wisconsin, he said, had refused to attend and abide by the will of the republican caucus.

"And," said Mr. Cannon, "this being a government by party, the speaker made it his duty to remove from the committee those who refused to do their duty in respect to the trust reposed in him by his party."

Cannon Resumes Chair.

Speaker Cannon resumed the chair at Mr. Cooper had concluded. The speaker said he ought to rule on the point of order only after due consideration of precedents. After the house had refused to adjourn or to take a recess, the democrats cried, and great excitement, "Rule!"

"Rule!" The speaker's brow left his face, giving way to a genial smile. Mr. Cannon kissed the tips of his fingers toward his opponents, then bowed to them politely and recognized Representative Keifer, of Ohio, who spoke at length in support of the speaker.

At midnight it was rumored more regular trains had brought four more regular votes, and the speaker's attempt to be made to take a recess.

At 12:15 Mr. Keifer concluded and the democrats at once resumed their demand for ruling on the pending point of order.

"If the speaker has no information, enough to rule on this time," Mr. Speaker said Minority Leader Clark, you certainly have acquired a vast deal of other information."

Cannon Responsible.

Mr. Clark went on to accuse the speaker of being responsible for the long filibuster.

"It is the best illustration of the charge which the speaker denied, of being a czar," said Mr. Clark. "He knew how he intended to rule on the point of order the minute it was made."

He moved the speaker be required to rule. A yell from the insurgents and democrats greeted the motion.

Mr. Clayton, of Alabama, reiterated Minority Leader Clark's charge that in refusing to rule, or to submit the ruling to the house, the speaker was exhibiting himself as a czar.

DEATH OF ARCHBISHOP SENATOR DANIEL

End May Come in the Next Twenty-Four Hours.

Daytona, Fla., March 16.—Senator John Daniel's condition is critical, an extreme degree. The indication is that he is gradually approaching the end of his life. He is in a state of coma, which is getting more and more profound.

This coma may terminate in death during the next twenty-four to twenty-five hours. The coma is due to cerebral hemorrhage, which caused paralysis of the left half of his body in the beginning of his illness here.

Mrs. John W. Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harper, E. M. Daniel, John Halley, Mrs. Darr Halsey, his sister; Major James D. Patton and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hicks are here at the bedside of Senator Daniel.

Condition Last Night.

A statement signed by Drs. C. C. Bohannon, E. A. Waugh and C. C. Bohannon was issued at 9 o'clock tonight:

"Senator John W. Daniel's condition shows slight improvement. The state of coma has lessened a little since morning. The patient has taken nourishment a little better this afternoon, as the result of being able to swallow a little better. He has not recognized anyone and the left half of his body is completely paralyzed. We are much pleased at being able to announce a slight improvement in his condition, but it will prove to be but temporary and that the worst may soon come."

GROWTH OF A GREAT AMERICAN INDUSTRY

One of the most interesting and significant booklets issued recently is "Fifteen Years in Business," in which Kops Brothers, of New York, described the wonderful evolution of the American corset, as applied to their brand—the Nemo.

The book tells how original inventions and patented devices figured in the evolution of this industry, until today it has invaded Europe and begins to compete with the products of France and Germany, both homes of the corset.

To judicious and unremitting advertising the Messrs. Kops ascribe a large part of their phenomenal success.

In this connection much credit is interferred with the success of the "publicity for this enterprising house."

speaker pro tem. recognized Representative Parker, of New Jersey (republican), who denounced the insurgents. The speaker pro tem. then recognized Mr. Fowler, of New Jersey, who proceeded with a defense of the course of the insurgents and a scathing denunciation of the "regulars."

The rules of this house gives to the speaker the power that accorded the presiding officer of any other legislative body on earth. I refuse to deal in personalities. I denounce Speaker Cannon, although on the floor of the house some months ago he stood to her a few feet distant from me as I sat here and without provocation called me a demagogue, and for what? For nothing more than that I did not agree with him that there should be a high protective tariff on Standard Oil.

An extraordinary scene occurred when Mr. Cooper, of Wisconsin, declared instances in which he declared members of the house had been punished by the speaker by being refused important committee assignments, called upon Mr. Fowler, of New Jersey, his colleagues to testify to the treatment they had received at the hands of the speaker. Mr. Cannon had left the chair and stood on the raised dais at the clerk's desk observing the Wisconsin member's speech.

Interrupting at last, Mr. Cannon asked if Mr. Gardner, of Massachusetts, was in the house, and the Massachusetts man appearing, the speaker asked him to tell the house how he had been treated by the speaker.

Mr. Gardner said he had gone off that committee voluntarily in order to avoid embarrassment in his course as an insurgent.

Mr. Cannon then explained why he had removed several members from their committee places. Fowler, of New Jersey, he said, as chairman of the banking and currency committee, had refused to report the emergency currency bill after the republican caucus twice had declared in favor of that legislation. Murdock, of Kansas; Norris, of Nebraska, and Cooper, of Wisconsin, he said, had refused to attend and abide by the will of the republican caucus.

"And," said Mr. Cannon, "this being a government by party, the speaker made it his duty to remove from the committee those who refused to do their duty in respect to the trust reposed in him by his party."

Cannon Resumes Chair.

Speaker Cannon resumed the chair at Mr. Cooper had concluded. The speaker said he ought to rule on the point of order only after due consideration of precedents. After the house had refused to adjourn or to take a recess, the democrats cried, and great excitement, "Rule!"

"Rule!" The speaker's brow left his face, giving way to a genial smile. Mr. Cannon kissed the tips of his fingers toward his opponents, then bowed to them politely and recognized Representative Keifer, of Ohio, who spoke at length in support of the speaker.

At midnight it was rumored more regular trains had brought four more regular votes, and the speaker's attempt to be made to take a recess.

At 12:15 Mr. Keifer concluded and the democrats at once resumed their demand for ruling on the pending point of order.

"If the speaker has no information, enough to rule on this time," Mr. Speaker said Minority Leader Clark, you certainly have acquired a vast deal of other information."

Cannon Responsible.

Mr. Clark went on to accuse the speaker of being responsible for the long filibuster.

"It is the best illustration of the charge which the speaker denied, of being a czar," said Mr. Clark. "He knew how he intended to rule on the point of order the minute it was made."

He moved the speaker be required to rule. A yell from the insurgents and democrats greeted the motion.

Mr. Clayton, of Alabama, reiterated Minority Leader Clark's charge that in refusing to rule, or to submit the ruling to the house, the speaker was exhibiting himself as a czar.

FIGHTING TO KILL CORPORATION TAX

Contest Begins Before U. S. Supreme Court.

Constitutionality of the Tax Attacked by Corporations. Solicitor General Bowers Is Defending the Tax for the Government.

Washington, March 17.—For four hours today the supreme court of the United States listened to conflicting arguments on the constitutionality of the corporation tax provisions of the Payne-Aldrich tariff act. After another day's argument the court will take the statute under its consideration with a view to arriving at a decision.

Constitutional lawyers from various sections of the country took part in the arguments today. They were connected with the fifteen cases in which the validity of the tax is attacked, and which has been consolidated into one cause for the purpose of the hearing. In each of these suits stockholders or policy-holders have brought action to prevent corporations from paying the tax. Without exception, the lower courts held the tax constitutional and dismissed the suits.

The Home Life Insurance Company and the Coney Island and Brooklyn Railroad Company had counsel present to insist that these corporations themselves be required to pay the tax.

Maxwell Everts, of New York, opened the argument. He declared the tax unconstitutional, because, as he argued, it interfered with the powers of the state by fixing a franchise; it was arbitrary and oppressive, and because its publicity clause took private property for public use without compensation.

Foraker, of Ohio, and Richard V. Williams and Richard R. Rogers, of New York, and E. O. Brown, of Chicago, who argued the unconstitutionality of the law as applied to various individual cases. Former Senator J. B. Foraker, of Ohio, and Richard V. Williams, of New York, addressed the court on general features of the law, holding it invalid.

Solicitor General Bowers, shortly before the court adjourned, began his argument for the government. He defended the law. His time was devoted to an endeavor to prove that the tax was levied on the "carrying on of doing business," and was merely measured by and was not on the "net income."

He argued that legislators never would have selected net income as a measure if the tax was to be on property, as he said some of the opposition had contended.

GEORGIA LINES UP AGAINST YANKEES

Second Practice Game of the Season at Athens Tomorrow.

Athens, Ga., March 17.—(Special.)—The University of Georgia will hook up again with the regulars of the New York Americans on Saturday afternoon in the university do not interfere too much. This game will be the first played in the new stadium and there is much interest attached, on account of the fact that Georgia showed up so well the other day, and some of the new men were clearly affected with stage fright at their first appearance against the leaguers.

Coch Foster has taken hold with a rush nowadays, and has done wonders with the bunch in the short time, and the team is beginning to show signs of being as good as the major league wannabes. Walker is back in the game and is pushing Tabor hard at first base, but unless he improves in fielding, will hardly beat the ex-River-side out.

Allen, the Georgia Military college lad, is going after shortstop in great style, and is touted by Manager George Stallings, of the Yankees, as a comer. He will likely land the berth, and Cox will be shifted to third, displacing Begg, the varsity regular of last season.

Brannen will probably work against the Yankees, and from his showing in the first game will give them something to chew on. He held them to one run in four rounds, and that was a gift by careless fielding. Thompson, the new hurler, who comes with such a good record in Tennessee, will also get a chance against the leaguers, and a good game is looked for.

TWO CLUBS FIGHT OVER PAT FOLBRE

San Antonio and Memphis Both Claim Services of the Southpaw.

Memphis, Tenn., March 17.—(Special.)—Patrick Folbre, the left-handed hurler with Little Rock a part of last season and who finished the season with San Antonio in the Texas league, is being contested for by the latter club and by Memphis.

Folbre declares himself a free agent, claiming that San Antonio did not send him a contract by March 1, which, according to the rules of baseball, does make him a free agent. San Antonio claims they signed him up before he left last season.

Both clubs are pushing their claims on the player and Secretary Farrell will probably have to decide the case. In the meantime, Folbre has reported to Manager Rabb at Memphis for practice.

SWACINA RETURNS TO HIS FIRST LOVE

One of the Few Players who Were with Chattanooga During the Days of the Old Southern League Before Montgomery Took the Lookouts' Place in the League, who is still playing in the organization, is Harry Swacina, who will play the first sack for Mobile this season.

Swacina will make the Gulls a good man. When he first broke into the game in this action he was but a youngster trying to make good. Since then he has seen service in several leagues, playing one season at the initial sack as the successor to "Kitty" Brannfield. Harry went the route of all the other first-sackers of the Pirates, being "knocked" out of his job by the tin horns.

A most comfortable and stylish
ARROW COLLAR
15 cents each—2 for 25 cents
Cluett, Peabody & Co., Makers
ARROW CUFFS, 25 cents a Pair

AMERICAN CLOTHING ON FOREIGN MARKETS

New York Manufacturers Invading Europe.

596 LATE TRAINS ON NINE RAILROADS

Reports From the Other Roads Not Yet Received.

Reports received by the railroad commission for the week ending Saturday, March 12, show that during that week there were 596 late trains on nine railroads in the state, or an average of more than 65 trains per road for the seven days.

The reports from the other roads for that week have not been received.

The number of trains which each of the nine roads reported as being late, is as follows:

Central of Georgia, 297; Louisville and Nashville, 84; Georgia railroad, 74; Atlanta and West Point, 50; Georgia, Florida and Alabama, 38; Macon, Dublin and Savannah, 23; Georgia and Florida, 22; Wrightsville and Tennille, 8; Gainesville Midland, 2.

According to the reports, a large percentage of the trains reported late were delayed on account of system and foreign connections and by accidents which were apparently unavoidable.

Students Feel Cost of Living.

New York, March 17.—The cost of living has laid its heavy hand on the students of Columbia university, and Manager Jones, of the college commons, has been summoned to put up his prices about 25 per cent. He accompanied this action with an ultimatum to the effect that unless the commons receives better support from the students, it will be abandoned.

OLD ERIN'S SONS ON EVERY SIDE

St. Patrick's Day Is Proud
One for Wearers o' the Green.

St. Patrick's day it was. "And it's not likely ye'll be er gettin' it with all the green er passin' in," remarked a genial son of Erin as he stood and watched the crowds thronging Atlanta's widest street yesterday.

Green ties, green socks, green ribbons, shamrocks and flags or Ireland were to be seen on every hand. If any doubted that the sons of the Emerald Isle are plentiful in Atlanta, he now has another thing coming to him. Fully one man in ten of those to be seen on the streets was "wearing of the green." Show windows in many of the stores showed a marked partiality to Bobby Burns' national colors, while more than one saloon man littered his floors with green sawdust.

High mass was held at the Church of the Immaculate Conception during the morning, after which Father Quinn preached on the work of St. Patrick in Ireland.

At night a banquet was served at 55 1/2 South Pryor street, the quarters of the second division of the local chapter of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. H. S. Keeney, president of the local organization, was toastmaster. He made a highly interesting address, as did Father Quinn, James Gillespie and P. G. Keeney.

Ask your dealer for Grelotco-Good Will Soap, the great cleanser.

FROM THE STAGE OF LIFE L. DEGIVE MAKES EXIT

After Long Illness End Comes at His Winter Home at Rockledge, Florida.

HIS FUNERAL SERVICES
"WILL BE HELD ON SUNDAY"

Mr. DeGive Had Been Consul for Belgium for Many Years.
He Was Pioneer Theatrical Man in Atlanta, Owning the Grand Opera House and the Bijou Theater.

From the stage of life, Laurent DeGive, Belgium consul, pioneer theater manager, owner of the Grand, the Bijou and other valuable property, and resident of Atlanta for over fifty years, has made his final exit.

Death called him at 7 o'clock yesterday morning at his winter home in Florida, after an illness of several weeks, which was the result of a gradual breaking down, due to old age.

Surrounded by the members of his family, and prepared for the final journey by a minister of the Roman Catholic church, of which he was a devout member, he met his end, quietly and peacefully.

Death a Shock to Many.

While his death has been one of the expected events of the past few weeks, and will prove no surprise to any of the intimates of the family, it will come nevertheless as a shock to the many who have been associated with him in business, and knew and respected him for the integrity of his life, and to those who loved him for his personal side.

Of the many men in Atlanta who have accumulated wealth, and have been figures in the business life of the city, and have had their part in the making of it, Mr. DeGive was probably the least known to the general public.

Publicity was the one thing that he avoided whenever possible. Had it not been for the fact that he was in a business, the life of which is publicity, it is probable that he would have lived and died so simple a life that the announcement of his death would have meant nothing to the ordinary reader of a paper.

He believed his business was his own private affair, something with which the general public had absolutely nothing to do.

His theater was his willing to boom at any time, his attractions were advertised by all the skill that the combination of press agents, advance agents and lithographing knows, but Mr. DeGive remained to the public an x quantity to the end of his life.

His Family Life.

He lived a life unobtrusive and retired, believing that a man can be a good citizen without seeking political honors or social advancement.

For his family he wanted the same kind of a life. Coming from the old world, he considered the strictly family life the most desirable one. To achieve this end he was always anxious to keep the members of his family around him, to have them interested in his interests.

Of all the men engaged in the theatrical business in the south, Mr. DeGive was the one bright success. Where failure greeted the others, by hard work, perseverance, and close attention to the details of a business which, when he gained possession of the Bijou, was new to him, he proved the one exception to the rule.

Mr. DeGive and the members of his family have always insisted that he made no money in the theater business. The Bijou has always been a big money maker, but the Grand has not proved so successful.

In Days of Long Ago.

In the days before Klaw and Erlanger gained control of the booking business, the theatrical business was largely a matter of chance. Only the shrewdest of business men, one whose ability and integrity and financial worth was unquestioned could hope to succeed.

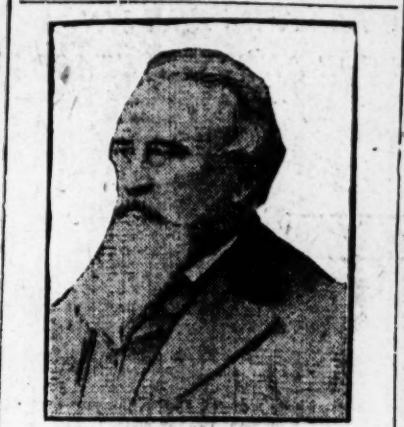

Each year Mr. DeGive and other managers had to make trips to New York, remaining there for long periods, for the purpose of getting together and booking shows for the next season. Of course, there was the usual percentage of attractions that failed on the road before reaching their objective points; others that failed to keep their engagements, and disappointments galore of every kind, but the DeGive opera house weathered the storms of uncertainty, and proved a bulwark of strength to both showmen and to surrounding towns. If a show ever got to Atlanta it could depend upon fair patronage, as well as fair treatment. That hope kept many a company on the way to this city.

Above everything else, Mr. DeGive's opera houses have been noted for the effort made to keep the attractions of the cleanest sort of character. He wanted no other kind of show.

Friend of Theater Stars.

No man stood higher in the estimation of managers and stars of the theater world. He was the personal friend for years of Klaw & Erlanger. His word was all that was wanted in business transactions, and for over ten years he was supplied with attractions by this firm without contract of any kind.

Many of the best known actors and actresses of today played the old DeGive opera house when they were no-

LAURENT DEGIVE,
Pioneer Theater Man, Who Died in Rockledge, Fla.

bodies. Even then he recognized the latent abilities of many of them and encouraged them to continue in their efforts, even when the future looked dark to them.

Years ago, it is related, when Mrs. Fiske, now perhaps the greatest, most finished actress on the American stage, appeared in Atlanta at the opera house she drew only a handful of people.

That night she came into the office of Mr. DeGive in tears. "I never can draw a house in this city," she half sobbed.

"The time will come," answered the manager, "when you will be one of the biggest stars in the world, and then all you will have to do will be to announce that you will play in Atlanta, and your house will be sold out."

That was over a decade ago. Only a few weeks ago, while Mr. DeGive was still in Florida fighting for a few more weeks of life, Mrs. Fiske opened in Atlanta in her great creation, "Salvation Nell," to houses that were packed to the doors.

No man had a better grip on the details of his business. Although he has been in Florida for many months, he was sent a detailed account of the business of the day every night from the Atlanta offices.

Sketch of L. DeGive.

Mr. DeGive was 53 years old. He was born in Denant, Belgium. First intended for the law, he was sent to the university at Liege, where he received his diploma. Going to Namur, he started practicing law with some success and there married.

At this time his health was poor and he decided to go to America with a cargo of goods, which was being shipped to Savannah by merchants of his neighborhood.

Accidentally he became interested in the theater business. He loaned some money to a well-known Atlantan on the property on which the Bijou now stands, and afterwards, when the money was not paid, foreclosed his mortgage. After the war he sold the land to the Masonic fraternity, who planned a large hall. A panic set in about that time, the work stopped, the unpaid workmen according to the law of that time, called upon Mr. DeGive for payment.

He hid in the half-finished building, and the labor, and upon the suggestion of a friend, made a theater of it when it was completed. He named it DeGive's Opera House. Since that time it has gone under several names, finally becoming the Bijou.

After many years of service the Marietta street house became too small and the Grand was projected and finished and opened February 10, 1893.

The funeral services will be held in Atlanta on Sunday.

TELEGRAMS SENT TO DEGIVE FAMILY

Messages From Lee Shubert, Jim Decker and Klaw & Erlanger.

The sympathy felt by the theatrical world for the family of Laurent DeGive, pioneer theater owner, was feelingly expressed all day yesterday in the flood of telegrams sent to Rockledge, Fla., and to Atlanta from persons whose names are powerful in the amusement field.

Among those which came to the Atlanta offices were messages of condolence from Klaw & Erlanger, who control many of the theatres, practically all the theaters outside the large cities, from Lee Shubert, from James Decker, of the Shubert offices, from Jake Wells, with whom L. DeGive had long been interested in entertainment enterprises, from Congressman L. F. Livingston, and many others.

It marked one of the few times when the offices of Klaw & Erlanger and the Shuberts were in agreement. All the messages paid tribute to the many virtues of Mr. DeGive, and expressed the deepest sympathy for his family.

Thursday, Warren Fogg, of the Central Railway, and Mr. Edmondson, a railroad man and personal friend of the family, went to Rockledge to aid in making arrangements for the funeral of L. DeGive. While no definite arrangements have been made, the body will be brought back to Atlanta on Sunday morning, and it is understood the services will be held at the Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Gunn officiating, in the afternoon.

Mr. DeGive was extensively interested in theatrical matters, and his passing is of the greatest interest to people of this field. He was owner of the Grand and of the Bijou, part owner in the ten-year lease of the new Forsyth street theater, and part owner in the Lyric and the Orpheum. He was the owner of the theater building in Macon, one of the handsomest in the south. For many years he had practically a monopoly in the theatrical line in Atlanta, until the early years of 1900, when Jake Wells became his partner in the Bijou, then the Columbia.

The Bijou was opened, under the name, the DeGive's opera house by the great Forrest. The Grand was opened in 1893 by Basco and DeMille's play, "Men and Women." Clark Howell made the first speech from the boards, introducing Mayor John B. Woodworth. After Mayor Woodworth's speech, Mr. Howell, in response to cheers for L. DeGive, started to introduce him, but found that the owner of the house had made a hasty retreat.

MUSE'S NEWS

FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 18, 1910.

THE thought uppermost in the minds of the people of the whole country just now is EASTER; and following close upon that is the subject of good clothes.

We have examined our files for many years past, and we face this glad Easter time with greater expectations than ever.

Our clothes are better today than ever, not because the wool in the fabric is superior (our clothes have always been good); but because honest fabrics of superior wool have been wrought into suits of great distinction by the heads and hands of those who stand in the forefront of their splendid profession. We have worked with them and evolved together.

For the man of affairs, we have a suit in Gray Worsted at $30.00 that lends itself to his notable dignity as naturally as his graceful step.

"There are other suits, too."

MUSE'S

Do it Now

Tomorrow A. M. too late. Take a CASCARET at bed time; get up in the morning feeling fine and dandy. No need for sickness from over-eating and drinking. They surely work while you sleep and help nature help you. Millions take them and keep well.

CASCARETS are a box for a week's treatment, all druggists. Biggest seller in the world. Millions boxes a month.

You Can Buy the NEW 1910 SPRING STYLES in Your Own Town

These handsome models in Beacon Shoes are exactly the same styles which will be shown this Spring in the high-grade shops of New York and other fashion centers. They embody not only the shapes which are correct for 1910, but also the famous expert workmanship which experienced Union workman build into Beacon Shoes by the genuine Goodyear Welt Hand-Sewed Process. This same process is used in other shoes costing from $4.00 to $8.00.

The appearance and wear of Beacon Shoes show their quality. Only the finest tannery stock enters their make-up. A shoe which is stylish, which fits without a wrinkle or a pinch, and then wears so long that you are willing to buy a new pair before the first pair is worn out—that's a full value shoe—a BEACON SHOE.

BEACON SHOES MEAN—Latest Models, Perfect Fit, Best Quality, Long Service, Low Price—because sold through 3,000 Authorized Dealers. No other shoe is better.

F. M. HOYT SHOE COMPANY, Makers, Manchester, N. H.

HE COULDN'T KISS BABY AND SHOT ITS MOTHER

Young Man Fatally Wounds
Seventeen-Year-Old Wife.

Cincinnati, March 17.—"When they wouldn't let me kiss my baby, that settled it. Then I fired."

Thus Albert Scherrer explained why he shot his 17-year-old bride today as she lay in bed at the home of her mother, Mrs. Charles Wurster, here.

The victim probably will die, as one bullet entered her head just back of the left ear. The other bullet entered her left arm.

Scherrer claims he also tried to end his own life, but failed because the bullet glanced off his head. An abrasion on the left forehead and powder marks, as well as a bullet hole through his hat indicates that the man did try to commit suicide.

The shooting is the culmination of a hasty marriage.

Bertha Wurster was not yet seventeen and had known Scherrer, who is 22, but a week when they were married a little over a year ago.

DEATH WAS GUEST AT WEDDING FEAST

Father of the Groom Ate Too Much and Died at Table.

New York, March 17.—Edwin S. Pearson, a wealthy Brooklyn manufacturer, ate too heartily at a dinner given at a friend's home in honor of his son's marriage, and died suddenly in his chair at midnight as the waiters were clearing off the remains of the last course. Physicians hastily summoned to the uptown restaurant where the dinner was given, said that death was due to an attack of acute indigestion.

THURSDAY NIGHT DULL FOR JOY-RIDERS' CLAN

Taxis Will Be on the Streets
Tonight, Declares the Management.

Thursday night was a dull night for the joy-riders. The effects of the taxi strike was still being felt, but it is expected that tonight will see a good number of cars on the streets. The officials of the company claim that it is not a strike, but that the chauffeurs quit their posts because they knew they were due to get their release papers anyhow.

Dugue Must Serve Term.

Montgomery, Ala., March 17.—(Special.)—A sad case is that of Walter Dugue, son of a well-to-do New Orleans family. He has entered a plea of guilty for stealing a diamond stick pin from an associate in the Y. M. C. A. building, and will be sentenced later in the week. A plea of guilty for taking a coat was entered, also a fine of $2.50 being levied.

Toledo and Detroit

Trains from the South make close connections with the three fast through trains leaving Cincinnati daily 8.20 a. m., 12.35 noon and 9.20 p. m., via Big Four Route.

Observation parlor car, electric-lighted sleepers and cafe dining coach through without change. Passengers may occupy Toledo sleeper on 9.20 p. m. train until 7.00 a. m.

Ask your local agent about this service and he will give you full information regarding tickets, parlor and sleeping car accommodations, connections, etc.

O. L. MITCHELL, General Southern Agent
Chattanooga, Tenn.
H. J. RHEIN, General Passenger Agent
Cincinnati, Ohio

Big Four Route

NEW YORK CENTRAL LINES

RED MEN PLANNING TO ERECT NEW HOME

Meeting Will Be Held Tomorrow to Arrange for $75,000
Stock Issue.

Following a final decision to build a new home for the local order of Red Men, the Red Men's Wigwag Association, of which H. L. Collier is president, will hold a meeting Saturday night for the purpose of adopting the charter of the association, which has been amended by the superior court so as to allow the issuance of $75,000 additional stock.

This additional stock will be sold to the stockholders of the association and members of the order throughout the state at the earliest possible moment, and a competent architect will be engaged to draw plans for the new building. Work will begin some time this summer, and it is hoped to complete it by the end of the year.

The new building will be erected on the site of the present Red Men's building, at 86 Central avenue, the latter to be torn down. It will be six stories high and fitted with all modern conveniences. A handsome library will be located on the ground floor, and the present library will be increased by the addition of $400 worth of books, which will be donated by Jesse B. Lee, and by similar gifts from other members of the order.

Several other secret orders in the city have already expressed a desire to secure quarters in the new building when it is completed. The lot on which it will be erected was purchased by the order seven years ago for $8,500, and is now valued at $35,000.

O'SHIELDS ASKS COURT TO DEFEND CHILDREN

Defendant in Recent Divorce Suit Bids Protection From Plaintiff.

E. Paul O'Shields, the defendant in the divorce proceedings instituted some time ago by Mrs. Jennie O'Shields, yesterday filed a petition asking the court to restrain Mrs. O'Shields from attempting to lure his children from him until the court has made a settlement of the case. The order was signed by Judge Bell.

In the original suit Mrs. O'Shields asked for the possession of the children, but a temporary order was issued allowing the father to keep them until the suit was tried.

O'Shields, the husband, now claims that his wife has been making serious attempts to abduct the children, he sides annoying and harassing him on all occasions. He states that on one occasion she was waiting outside of the school where the children attended when it was dismissed and there attempted to take them away. She would have been successful, he states, had he not come on the scene in time to catch up with the children and run away with them.

THOMPSON SUES AGAIN BOTH CITY AND RAILWAY

Claim Thrown Out of Court
Once, but Comes Back for Second Trial.

After having his petition dismissed, H. C. Thompson is again bringing suit, both against the city of Atlanta and the Georgia Railway and Electric Company, for $50,000 each for damages alleged to have been sustained by falling into a catch basin at Fonce de Leon park. Thompson's original suit was filed some time ago, but upon its being heard before Judge Pendleton, the claim was dismissed.

The petitioner claims that he was on the way to the skating rink when he fell into this basin, and that he suffered serious injuries to his body and limbs. He claims that over $1,000 was paid out in doctors' bills.

Evacuation Day Celebrated.

Boston, March 17.—Evacuation day, the one hundred and thirty-fourth anniversary of the departure of 12,000 British troops under General William Howe from the shore of South Boston, was celebrated elaborately in that section of the city today. A large military and civic parade was the spectacular feature. Richmond Pearson Hobson, a representative in congress from Alabama, and General Isaac R. Sherwood were guests of honor.

To Organize Corn Club.

Swainsboro, Ga., March 17.—(Special.) Ira T. McLeure, Emanuel county agent of farm demonstration, is making every possible effort to get the boys of this county interested in the formation of a boys' corn club. McLeure, in his visits over the county, has become quite enthusiastic over the farming possibilities of the county, and especially in the matter of the growing of corn, the climate and soil of this county surprising even the great corn growing states of the north-west.

UNIQUE KENTUCKY BAND INVADES THE TERMINAL

Four Families, 35 Strong, Have a Picnic Luncheon
There.

A group of Kentucky mountaineers, thirty-five strong, trailed slowly and solemnly into the Terminal station yesterday morning, and in silence and with much deliberation, sorted out their various children, deposited their bundles, and, still in silence, lined themselves up on the benches in the main waiting room until four of the long seats were closely occupied, and attracted much attention.

All of the thirty-five people comprised four families only, and about twenty-five of the thirty-five were children. The Pie Pipers, and similar edibles—enough to last for a week at least, so the train carrier suggested that they buy some fish. They invested in about $5 worth of fish and a gallon and a half of coffee, and then, quite oblivious to the attention they were receiving, the women spread a rumpled table cloth on a bench outside the waiting room, unpacked hamper, and men, women and children proceeded to devour ravenously their "dally bread" and meat.

Their dinner hour was a spectacle worthy of the staff photographer's skill. They had baskets and bundles into which thrifty women had packed cakes, and pies, and biscuits, and similar edibles—enough to last for a week at least, so the train carrier suggested that they buy some fish. They invested in about $5 worth of fish and a gallon and a half of coffee, and then, quite oblivious to the attention they were receiving, the women spread a rumpled table cloth on a bench outside the waiting room, unpacked hamper, and men, women and children proceeded to devour ravenously their "dally bread" and meat.

Their dinner hour was a spectacle worthy of the staff photographer's skill. They had baskets and bundles into which thrifty women had packed cakes, and pies, and biscuits, and similar edibles—enough to last for a week at least, so the train carrier suggested that they buy some fish. They invested in about $5 worth of fish and a gallon and a half of coffee, and then, quite oblivious to the attention they were receiving, the women spread a rumpled table cloth on a bench outside the waiting room, unpacked hamper, and men, women and children proceeded to devour ravenously their "dally bread" and meat.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER TO RETURN TO NORTH

Says He Has Enjoyed Himself
Very Much During Visit to Augusta.

Augusta, Ga., March 17.—John D. Rockefeller will leave for New York tomorrow afternoon after having spent two months at a local tourist hotel, where he had a suite of eleven rooms. Mr. Rockefeller was in the lobby of the hotel tonight shaking hands with his friends and bidding them goodbye. He says that he has enjoyed himself very much this year, and intends coming back next year. In fact, he has asked for reservations. The entire Rockefeller party will leave tomorrow. He will be accompanied by New York by his brother-in-law, W. C. Rudd. Mr. Rockefeller will stop at a hotel round on the links tomorrow morning.

CONTESTS IN DOUGHERTY For Two County Offices Promise to Be Warm in Years.

Albany, Ga., March 17.—(Special.)—There is a three-cornered race on for the office of sheriff of Dougherty county. Felix G. Edwards, who is the oldest sheriff in point of service in Georgia, having held his present office for more than a third of a century, is opposed by two well-known gentlemen, J. E. Hall, a railroad man, and John D. McConnell, a naval stores operator. The primary has been ordered for May 1, and the campaign promises to be one of great interest.

There is also a three-cornered race on for the tax receivership, J. H. Davis, the incumbent, being opposed by Joseph W. McKinley and R. A. Malone. The other county officers, all of whom are candidates for reelection, are thus far unopposed.

Not in any Milk Trust

The Original and Genuine

HORLICK'S MALTED MILK

The Food-drink for All Ages.

More healthful than Tea or Coffee. Agrees with the weakest digestion. Delicious, invigorating and nutritious. Rich milk, malted grain, powder form.

A quick lunch prepared in a minute. Take no substitute. Ask for HORLICK'S. Others are imitations.

SPORTS ATHLETICS DRAW FIRST BLOOD

Edited by Dick JemisonATHLETICS COP
OPENING GAME
SAM LANGFORD
DEFEATS FLYNNShoved Four Tallies Over on Nancy Hanks.Score 6 to 3—Mayer and Martina Pitched Good Ball—The Crackers Lit on "Chief" Bender—Smith, Seitz and Bayless
Starred in the Field.

The Crackers made their official debut yesterday afternoon at Ponce de Leon and for six innings their debut was a splendid one, but with Nancy Hanks at the helm, something happened to his steering gear, i. e., his left wing, and before he had assumed control of it, the Athletics had romped into the lead and stayed there, winning the contest by the score of 6 to 3.

Things looked bright, as aforesaid, for six innings, with "Scissors" Mayer, formerly of the Tech team, and Joe Martina, the former New Orleans semi-pro in the box, the Athletics could do was to amass a total of three hits and two runs, each hurler allowing one run apiece.

On their showing, these two boys are entitled to another try-out, and if they deliver the goods in the large packages of superior brand that they handed out yesterday, some of the twirlers will have to go some to beat them out. They had everything—speed, control, curve and headwork—and the heavy Athletic swatters were kept guessing.

The Crackers entered the game with three men out of position and, strange to say, all three of the men's names started with "S." Sweeney, a candidate for first base, was playing right field, Smith, the regular catcher, was at third, and Seitz, an outfielder, was at short, and every one of them played stellar ball.

Three "g's" Starred.

Seitz starred in the field, with two wonderful one-handed stops, one with his bare hand. Sid Smith, flagged an awful drive with one hand, too, and Sweeney got two hits out of four times up, the only Cracker to get that many.

Dick Bayless pulled off another one of his famous running catches, in mid-season form.

"Rube" Oldring played third base for the Athletics in Baker's place, the latter being sick. Hestmuller playing center field in Oldring's place.

Bender, Morgan and Dygert twirled three innings each for the Athletics. The "Chief" yielded all of the runs the Crackers scored, though it is true a couple of errors helped some. But the pinch hit that Harry Matthews drove out in the second inning sent in the first two runs in fine style, and came near breaking the "Chief's" back.

The Athletics scored first, sending one run home in the second inning. Barry singled to left field, Hestmuller hit a long single to right field, Barry traveling to third. Livingston's sacrifice fly scored Barry.

Matty a Pitch Hitter.

The Crackers came back with two in their half of the second. Jordan singled to right and stole second. Sweeney was safe on an error of short, Jordan going to third, and Sweeney to second when Barry threw wild to first. "Matty" binked a pinch hit over second for one sack, Jordan and Sweeney scoring.

The Crackers scored one more in the third. Sid Smith binked past short, Hestmuller walked, and went to third when Oldring doubled to left, Moran just reaching the ball, but being unable to hold it. "Topsy" scored when Collins hit a sacrifice fly to Bayless.

Without a semblance of a hit, the Athletics tallied two in the seventh. Livingston was hit by a pitched ball, went to second when Baker, hitting for Morgan, walked, and went to third when Hestmuller walked. Oldring hit to third and Livingston was safe on the play, Collins fled out to right, scoring Hoffmann, who ran for Baker. Hestmuller and Oldring pulled off the double steal.

Barry singled in the eighth and stole second. He went to third on Hestmuller's single past short.

Oldring Swiped Home.

Oldring doubled with one down in the ninth, went to third on Collins' out and then stole home while Hanks was calmly winding up to deliver the ball. This was a fine wind to a good day's playing by Oldring. Barry was the king bee swatter, though, with three bingles.

The two teams line up again today. McLain, Hoyt and Griffin will twirl for the Crackers. Hanks, Bender, Morgan, P. J. Jones, Sweeney, Seitz and Martina, p. . . .

Score by Innings: R. Athletics 010 010 211-6
Atlanta 021 000 000-3

Summary—Left on bases, Atlanta 5, Athletics 6; two-base hits, Oldring 2, double plays, Morgan to Oldring to Davis, Barry to Davis, Hanks to Jordan to Hestmuller; Innings pitched, Mayer 6, Martina 3, Hanks 3, Bender 2, Morgan 2, Dygert 2, struck out, by Bender 3, Morgan 2, Martina 3, Dygert 1; sacrifice hits, Livingston, Moran, Collins 2; stolen bases, Jordan, Sweeney, Barry, Oldring, Hestmuller; wild pitch, Morgan; hit by pitched ball, by Hanks (Livingston, Davis). Time 1:45. Umpire Horner.

End Came in the Eighth
Round at Los Angeles.Knock-Out Was Not Clean, Langford's Blow Being Delivered
After Flynn Lost Balance
From Missing Right Swing.
Flynn Badly Punished.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 17.—Sam Langford, Boston's well-known colored fighter, did away with Jim Flynn, the Pueblo fireman, in the last half of the eighth round of a fight that was scheduled to go forty-five rounds at the old Jeffries arena, here today.

The knockout was not a clean one, the uppercut which Langford delivered with his left hand merely accelerating Flynn's fall, after he had missed a right swing at Langford's jaw and lost his balance. Flynn fell prone on the mat with his arms extended and dislocated his jaw.

Flynn Counted Out.

Referee Charles Ebyon counted the fireman out before Flynn's seconds were able to realize what had happened, and the badly punished fighter staggered to his feet, made feeble efforts to fight again, though the opponent he saw through his half-sight eyes was imaginary.

Flynn's chances of winning were dimmed in the first round, when Langford, breaking away from the first clinch, delivered a right swing to the fireman's left cheek. The blow opened a gash and started the blood flowing.

Before the first round was ended Langford again found Flynn's face with his right and in the almost continuous clinches he frequently brought both gloves to Flynn's face and neck.

With his face cut and swollen, bleeding from nose and mouth and apparently weakened in body and spirit by the terrific blows of the colored fighter, Flynn fought through six more rounds and came up for the eighth still determined to keep the colored man close to him.

At Mercy of Langford.

In the first seven rounds he had prevented the colored man from setting himself for a final knockout by giving in whenever he found his arm free and butting his head up against his opponent's chin. He could not do that now, Langford had him at his mercy and kept him off with jabs to the face and swings with left and right to the body.

When the round was half over Langford leaped backward from a clinch and started his right to Flynn's jaw. Flynn launched a swing with his right, but it failed to find the mark, and his body followed. Langford's left hand shot to Flynn's jaw, but it was more from his own momentum than from Langford's blow that Flynn went down.

Straws, Panamas and all hats cleaned, reshaped. Bussey, 28½ Whitehall.

YANKEE TWIRLERS
PASTING THE PELLET

Russ Ford, Former Cracker, Made Two Hits on Tuesday.

Athens, Ga., March 17.—(Special.)—The Yankees have established a home run record on their new park, and the curious thing about it is that the twirlers are getting away with most of the long wallpops. In the game Tuesday there were six, with two gathered by twirlers, and yesterday there were four more, and again two went to a hurler.

Russ Ford was the man who clouted the pill with such telling effect in yesterday's game, and his two homers to deep left were easily the longest hits ever seen on the local diamond.

Ten homers in two games is going some, and the new recruits gathered in by boss Manager Stallings have displayed their worth by collecting the long swats from the benches of Savannah and Ed Sweeney, of the New York Americans, were present. A splendid course dinner was served, music being furnished by Mathieson's orchestra.

KAISER CONGRATULATES
BARNEY OLDFIELD

Daytona, Fla., March 17.—A cable of congratulations from Emperor William of Germany was received tonight by Barney Oldfield, who yesterday drove the fastest mile ever traveled, using a German made car. The Kaiser's message read:

"Congratulations a daring Yankee on his successful performance with a German car."

The same car which Oldfield drove to victory was used by the Kaiser's favorite racing driver, Hemmery, when he made the world's records at Brooklands, England, a few months ago.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

Under this head, the sporting editor will endeavor to answer all questions pertaining to all branches of sports.

WILL THESE TWO STAR PLAYERS REMAIN OUT OF GAME FOR ANOTHER SEASON?

Will another season pass without the fans on the big league circuit being able to witness the star catching of Johnny Kling, the Chicago National's great backstop, or the great batting of Mike Donlin, of the New York Nationals? Recently it was thought that Donlin would attach his signature to a contract, but for some unknown reason he did not and has announced that he will not play during 1910. Kling has asked the national commission to renege him, so the chances are that he may wear a Cub uniform this year. As Donlin and Kling are two of the greatest players in the country, the fans are anxious to see them cavort in front of them once more.

BILLY SMITH IS HONORED BY FANS
YANKEES TO TRAIN
AT ATHENS 1911-13

Athens, Ga., March 17.—(Special.)—President Frank Farrell and Manager George Stallings, of the New York Americans, signed a contract this afternoon with the official of the Street Railway Company for the Yankees to train on the local diamond during 1911, 1912 and 1913.

The Yankees are delighted with the present situation, and Owner Farrell stated that the local park could be made one of the finest in the country. It will be improved during the summer, and next year will be in magnificent condition.

AUTOS FOR HIRE.
New White Steamer. Either phone 2680.

NO UTILITY PLAYER
FOR COAL BARONS

Birmingham, Ala., March 17.—(Special.)—Birmingham is going to carry five pitchers all during the coming season. Two catchers will also be carried. This, with the regular seven players, will keep Molesworth in the utility line, but will make him without a utility man.

But Moyle depends upon his pitchers to fill the utility role. Moyle can play outfield as can Wagner, while Emory at third is an all-around man, being fitted for every position on the diamond but pitcher.

HERRE MECK MUST PLAY WITH MOBILE
Either Play With That Club or Not at All Is the Cry.

Mobile, Ala., March 17.—(Special.)—The officials of the Mobile Baseball Association when informed today that Herre Meck, the big backstop who played with Chattanooga last season, had refused to report, stated that unless Meck reported to them he would not play anywhere.

Chattanooga has been hot after Meck. They have offered Mobile more than the value price of $400 for the player, but Manager Reed has instructed the Mobile club owners not to sell the big backstop.

WILLIE HOPPE ISSUES
CHALLENGE TO WORLD

Portland, Ore., March 17.—Charles Twines, manager of Willie Hoppe, the billiard champion, who is on the Pacific coast arranging matches for Hoppe and Morningstar, last night issued a challenge to any billiard player in the world to meet Hoppe in a 1,500-point 18.1 or 18.3 game for a side bet of $5,000 against $2,000.

FOSTER RELEASED
BY CHARLEY FRANK

New Orleans, March 17.—(Special.)—Pitcher Edward Foster, of New Orleans, formerly with Cleveland and Charleston and several other places, has been released by Charley Frank.

The "Foxy Dutchman" has given up all hope of Foster ever rounding into shape again and made him a free agent to seek where he pleases.

Sunday Schools, Notice.
Sporting Editor The Constitution: Please notify the superintendents of a Sunday school, the Mobile boys would care to consider organizing a baseball league composed of boys from 13 to 16 years of age to communicate with the undersigned.

HEADLINER WON
BY SPELLBOUNDUpset in the St. Patrick
Event at Jacksonville.

Victory of Spellbound a Complete Reversal of Form—Val-lonia and Flying Footsteps, Quoted at Long Odds, Were Among the Winners.

Jacksonville, Fla., March 17.—The St. Patrick selling stable, headliner of the afternoon's card, was productive of one of the smartest contests of the meeting. Spellbound, showing one of the most glaring form somersaults of the meeting, was returned the winner, with Elyon second and Ozona third. The Pons stable, which was represented by an entry, made a determined bid, but Ober, who rode Ben Double, appeared to be so busy attempting to take care of other people's mounts that he allowed himself to be cut off by Jack Parker, the stablemate. Spectacular plunging marked at least two of the races today, the second and third. In the former Val-lonia was the real melon to be cut and Flying Footsteps another artist. Backed from 10 to 1 to a close of 55, the Burtshell representative spreadened her field at all stages. Summaries:

FIRST RACE—Five furlongs, purse: Herpes, 107 (Grand), 4 to 1; won; Miss Lora, 107 (Field), 5 to 1; second; Voltaire, 110 (Trotter), 15 to 1; third. Time, 1:01 4-5. Queen's Song, Brevette, Montcalm, Lawndale Belle and Sister Belle also ran.

SECOND RACE—Four furlongs, selling: Val-lonia, 100 (J. Wilson), 8 to 1; won; Tallahassee, 105 (Cotton), 7 to 1; second; Abe Attell, 104 (Griffin), 15 to 1; third. Time, 48 4-5. Clay, Jack Ryan, Inspector General, Deser, Fruitful, Demons, New Star, Schnickel-fritz and Red Bob ran.

THIRD RACE—Six furlongs, selling: Flying Footsteps, 114 (Nico), 6 to 1; won; Fair Louise, 105 (Wilson), 8 to 1; second; Abrasion, 105 (Ober), 13 to 1; third. Time 1:14. Dress Parade, II, Smug, Starover and Amanda Lee ran.

FOURTH RACE—St. Patrick handicap, 1 mile: Spellbound, 104 (Davis), 3 to 1; won; Elyon, 107 (Ganz), 8 to 1; second; Ozona, 105 (Field), 5 to 1; third. Time, 1:39 4-5. Elfal, Camp-paigner, Jon Rose, Ben Double, Jack Farina and Bonny ran.

FIFTH RACE—Seven furlongs, selling: Descombes, 108 (McTaggart), 10 to 1; won; Crawford, 112 (Hannan), 8 to 1; second; Gold Dust, 110 (Nico), 8 to 1; third. Time, 1:27 2-5. Royal Captive, Ozorine, St. Joseph, Cowen, Robin Gray and Grace King ran.

SIXTH RACE—Mile and 70 yards, selling: Bonnie Barr, 113 (Griffin), 10 to 1; won; Johnnie, 113 (Ober), 8 to 1; second; Sandpiper, 99 (Wilson), 12 to 1; third. Time, 1:45 2-5. Quagga, Red Dog, Admiration, Admiration and Peliss also ran.

Jacksonville Entries for Today.

First Race—Broeders' race, 5½ furlongs: Cogan, 105 (Coyne), 8 to 1; won; Blitter, Miss Away, Flarney, Com-mediane, Linta, Pedigree, 105; Mozart, Hilet, 108.

Second Race—Three-year-olds, 5½ furlongs: Whim, Catoke, 102; Autumn race, Lucena, Coonskin, 104; Clem Beachy, 107; Tom Wall, Outpost, Gorando, Mon Ami, Hibernia, 106; Eva Tanquary, Lott, 107; Kid, 107; Daniel, 112. Also eligible to start: Brilares, Pitain.

Third Race—Selling, 3-year-olds, 1-16 mile: Syph, Stoker, 102; Zymol, 104; Ted, 105; M. J. Lamb, Col-nel Jot, Universe, 107.

Fourth Race—Selling, 3-year-olds and up, 1-16 mile: Syph, Stoker, 102; Zymol, 104; Ted, 105; M. J. Lamb, Col-nel Jot, Universe, 107.

Fifth Race—Selling, 4-year-olds and up, mile and 70 yards: Plume, 96; Golconda, 105; Sir Catesby, Mole-scow, 106; Bonita, 105; Hart, 108; J. H. Reed, 111; Tolson, Dvor, 101.

Sixth Race—Selling, 4-year-olds and up, 1-16 mile: Syph, Stoker, 102; Zymol, 104; Ted, 105; M. J. Lamb, Col-nel Jot, Universe, 107.

Seventh Race—Selling, 4-year-olds and up, 1-16 mile: Syph, Stoker, 102; Zymol, 104; Ted, 105; M. J. Lamb, Col-nel Jot, Universe, 107.

Eighth Race—Selling, 4-year-olds and up, 1-16 mile: Syph, Stoker, 102; Zymol, 104; Ted, 105; M. J. Lamb, Col-nel Jot, Universe, 107.

Ninth Race—Selling, 4-year-olds and up, 1-16 mile: Syph, Stoker, 102; Zymol, 104; Ted, 105; M. J. Lamb, Col-nel Jot, Universe, 107.

Tenth Race—Selling, 4-year-olds and up, 1-16 mile: Syph, Stoker, 102; Zymol, 104; Ted, 105; M. J. Lamb, Col-nel Jot, Universe, 107.

Eleventh Race—Selling, 4-year-olds and up, 1-16 mile: Syph, Stoker, 102; Zymol, 104; Ted, 105; M. J. Lamb, Col-nel Jot, Universe, 107.

Twelfth Race—Selling, 4-year-olds and up, 1-16 mile: Syph, Stoker, 102; Zymol, 104; Ted, 105; M. J. Lamb, Col-nel Jot, Universe, 107.

Thirteenth Race—Selling, 4-year-olds and up, 1-16 mile: Syph, Stoker, 102; Zymol, 104; Ted, 105; M. J. Lamb, Col-nel Jot, Universe, 107.

The Man's Store

Write it big. The fundamentals of tailoring must be acquired early and practiced late, in order to produce a suit of clothes that is first class in every particular.

The Stein-Bloch tailors know how.

American standard sack suits, English sack styles and two-button "Saxon" and double-breasted models, are made in Stein-Bloch exclusive patterns.

We'll show you every-thing.

$22.50
to $35

Parks-Chambers-Hardwick
Company

(Formerly M. R. Emmons Co.)

39-41 Whitehall Street

32-34 S. Broad Street

MERCER MEETS
DAHLONEGA NINEFirst Game of the Season
Played at Macon
Today.

Arrangements Have Been Closed by Manager
Bill Nye.

Macon, Ga., March 17.—(Special.)—Mercer will meet the strong nine from Dahlonega Friday and Saturday, March 18 and 19, and the first games of baseball to be played on the local diamond this season. Dahlonega is reputed to have an exceptionally strong team this year, and these games will give an idea of the strength of the Mercer team.

Only two changes have taken place in the Mercer line-up. Burroughs, formerly playing first base, has been shifted to the outfield. Hogg taking his place at first, and Smith is playing first base today. Second base, Redd, formerly playing second base, has been shifted to the outfield. Hogg taking his place at first, and Smith is playing first base today.

The teams will line up as follows: Mercer—O'Dell, third base; Gray, right field; Hogg, first base; Redd, second base; Smith, shortstop; Burroughs, left field; Sledge, center field; Baker, catcher; Voss, or Davidson, pitcher.

Dahlonega—Pendley, catcher; Terrell, first base; Davidson, second base; Redd, shortstop; Baldwin, third base; Hure, left field; Riden, center field; Neal, right field; Huey, Todd, pitchers.

JERRY MURPHY HAS
TACKLED HARD JOB

Meets "Dummy" Decker at the Monroe Athletic Club
on Monday.

A question that is agitating the minds of the boxing fans of Atlanta at the present time, is what can Jerry Murphy, the crack Indianapolis lightweight, do when he meets a man heavier than he is?

Every fan in Atlanta knows what Murphy can do against a lightweight. His winnings over Dasher and Saul demonstrated that, but when he tackles a welterweight it is a different proposition.

Murphy is clever; in fact he is one of the cleverest lightweights ever seen here and is improving wonderfully each day. But he meets an opponent who is not only worthy of his steel, but a man that is heavier and in just as good condition.

"Dummy" Decker, of Baltimore, is Murphy's opponent. Decker's draw bout with "Fighting Charlie" Kennedy last Tuesday night entitles him to some recognition in Atlanta. He is the goods, and has a set of tactics that are vastly different from that shown by any other boxer here recently.

But it is going to be a peach of a mill any way you look at it. Murphy trained up and Decker trained down, 125 pounds being the limit agreed upon at 3 p. m.

The semi-wind up will see Cliff Ford, weighing 144 pounds, lined up against Martin Monroe, weighing 128. Ford is a wonder at his weight and should make Monroe hurry despite the difference in avoirdupois.

The place—oh, yes, it nearly slipped by. It will take place at the Monroe Athletic Club, in the Steiner-Emery building, on Viaduct place, on Monday night.

Barons 8, Athletics 1.

Birmingham, Ala., March 17.—The Philadelphia Athletics were clearly outplayed by Birmingham today. The locals outdid and outthrew the visitors and won by a decisive score.

Score: Philadelphia 000 100 000-1 5 2
Birmingham 000 200 248-8 9 2

Batteries: Atkins, Kellogg and Lapp; Bauer, McTigue, Elliott and O'Brien.

$22.50
to $35

Parks-Chambers-Hardwick
Company

(Formerly M. R. Emmons Co.)

39-41 Whitehall Street

32-34 S. Broad Street

MERCER MEETS
DAHLONEGA NINEFirst Game of the Season
Played at Macon
Today.

Arrangements Have Been Closed by Manager
Bill Nye.

Macon, Ga., March 17.—(Special.)—Mercer will meet the strong nine from Dahlonega Friday and Saturday, March 18 and 19, and the first games of baseball to be played on the local diamond this season. Dahlonega is reputed to have an exceptionally strong team this year, and these games will give an idea of the strength of the Mercer team.

Only two changes have taken place in the Mercer line-up. Burroughs, formerly playing first base, has been shifted to the outfield. Hogg taking his place at first, and Smith is playing first base today. Second base, Redd, formerly playing second base, has been shifted to the outfield. Hogg taking his place at first, and Smith is playing first base today.

The teams will line up as follows: Mercer—O'Dell, third base; Gray, right field; Hogg, first base; Redd, second base; Smith, shortstop; Burroughs, left field; Sledge, center field; Baker, catcher; Voss, or Davidson, pitcher.

Dahlonega—Pendley, catcher; Terrell, first base; Davidson, second base; Redd, shortstop; Baldwin, third base; Hure, left field; Riden, center field; Neal, right field; Huey, Todd, pitchers.

JERRY MURPHY HAS
TACKLED HARD JOB

Meets "Dummy" Decker at the Monroe Athletic Club
on Monday.

A question that is agitating the minds of the boxing fans of Atlanta at the present time, is what can Jerry Murphy, the crack Indianapolis lightweight, do when he meets a man heavier than he is?

Every fan in Atlanta knows what Murphy can do against a lightweight. His winnings over Dasher and Saul demonstrated that, but when he tackles a welterweight it is a different proposition.

Murphy is clever; in fact he is one of the cleverest lightweights ever seen here and is improving wonderfully each day. But he meets an opponent who is not only worthy of his steel, but a man that is heavier and in just as good condition.

"Dummy" Decker, of Baltimore, is Murphy's opponent. Decker's draw bout with "Fighting Charlie" Kennedy last Tuesday night entitles him to some recognition in Atlanta. He is the goods, and has a set of tactics that are vastly different from that shown by any other boxer here recently.

But it is going to be a peach of a mill any way you look at it. Murphy trained up and Decker trained down, 125 pounds being the limit agreed upon at 3 p. m.

The semi-wind up will see Cliff Ford, weighing 144 pounds, lined up against Martin Monroe, weighing 128. Ford is a wonder at his weight and should make Monroe hurry despite the difference in avoirdupois.

The place—oh, yes, it nearly slipped by. It will take place at the Monroe Athletic Club, in the Steiner-Emery building, on Viaduct place, on Monday night.

Barons 8, Athletics 1.

Birmingham, Ala., March 17.—The Philadelphia Athletics were clearly outplayed by Birmingham today. The locals outdid and outthrew the visitors and won by a decisive score.

Score: Philadelphia 000 100 000-1 5 2
Birmingham 000 200 248-8 9 2

Batteries: Atkins, Kellogg and Lapp; Bauer, McTigue, Elliott and O'Brien.

THE CONSTITUTION

Published Daily, Sunday, Tri-Weekly

CLARK HOWELL, Editor

ROBY ROBINSON, Business Manager

Established 1868

Entered at the postoffice at Atlanta as second-class mail matter.

POSTAGE RATES:

United States and Mexico.
10 to 12-page paper... 1c
13 to 14-page paper... 1c
15 to 16-page paper... 1c
17 to 18-page paper... 1c
19 to 20-page paper... 1c
21 to 22-page paper... 1c
23 to 24-page paper... 1c
25 to 26-page paper... 1c
27 to 28-page paper... 1c
29 to 30-page paper... 1c

TERMS TO SUBSCRIBERS:

DAILY, one year... $5.00
SUNDAY, one year... $3.00
Both, as above... $7.00
TRI-WEEKLY, one year... $1.00
WEEKLY, one year... $1.00
DAILY AND SUNDAY, by carrier delivered per week in Atlanta... 12c
Outside of Atlanta... 14c
For six or three months at same proportionate rate as above.

J. R. HOLMIDAY, Constitution Building, sole Advertising Manager for all territory outside of Atlanta.

THE WASHINGTON BUREAU of the Constitution is located in the Hubbs Building, Fifteenth street, Mr. John Corrigan, staff correspondent, in charge.

THE CONSTITUTION in New York: Visitors to New York wishing to obtain the Constitution will find it at "Hollings' News Stand on Broadway at Twenty-ninth street, Thirty-eighth street and Forty-second street, also No. 1 Park Row. The Constitution will be delivered to your hotel, if desired. Telephone 6974 Madison Square.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS:

Our traveling representatives are: W. BLACKBURN, C. S. MOORE, W. H. OVERBEY, C. H. DONNELLY, On F. & D. routes, W. D. BRUMBLE, and W. F. STOKES.

Be sure that you do not pay anyone else.

CONSTITUTION PUBLISHING CO.

ATLANTA, GA., March 18, 1910.

No snakes were visible in Georgia on St. Patrick's Day.

Oyster Bay will soon make amends for its long lonesomeness.

For a time the younger Knox felt like a politician out of a job.

Poultry rises in price every time a woman dons a Chanticleer hat.

The oil trust has succeeded in raising prices to the highest point.

The silence of the Sphinx is accounted for: It saw the big stick.

Probably Patten wonders how Roosevelt can risk himself in Europe.

Spring might primp up some if the weather man would give her a new bureau.

Even if spring is late, we have the spectacle of the political bees hunting honey.

Roosevelt will not hear the real Call of the Wild until he gets back to civilization.

Mr. Carnegie is preaching sermons on "Peace." Has he tried them out in Philadelphia?

View the comet from the summit of an Atlanta skyscraper, so as not to strain your telescope.

Morgan has left enough of the Old World to make it worth while for Roosevelt to conquer.

If President Taft succeeded in getting a holiday from congress, he had to endure a banquet in Chicago.

It is vain for Parson Taft to preach to his party. There are sinners who have sinned beyond redemption.

If the Wrights need any more wings they should apply to the different branches of the republican party.

Next applicant for a hero medal will be the census taker who interviews the suffragette with the hat pin.

Spring is not green enough for the world to fool her into the belief that she is the whole vegetable garden.

Taft admits that he has kissed the Barney stone, and perhaps that is why congress thinks he is a huge joker.

If, as an exchange says, "the nation has been hanging on the utterances of congress," it is high time to cut it down.

Peary told us the colors of the polar snows, and remained long enough to become acquainted with the Atlanta frost.

The debating society of the Jay-birds has carried the day in favor of Spring, but the mocking birds won't make a note of it.

After his experience with the republican steam roller, Uncle Joe Cannon will neither have legs for dancing nor feet to stand pat.

When the big hunter returns, his first reflection after a survey of the field will be that the animals of the African jungles were at least desirable.

The Washington Post has an editorial on "The Labor Novel." Many "popular" novels give the reader the impression that the authors were doing time at hard labor.

THE INSURGENT SENATOR CUMMINS.

The republican recalcitrants have heretofore been lambasting Cannon and Aldrich. It remained for Senator Cummins to go direct to the fountainhead and attack the president himself, in such fashion and with such vigor as must make another dent upon the already battered republican organization.

Queerly enough, the vociferousness of Mr. Cummins was directed against that measure upon which Mr. Taft most prides himself—the railroad regulation policies sent to congress a few weeks ago.

At hardly a single point is the Iowa senator in accord with his chief. He goes the dangerous lengths of charging that railroad influence has been unduly effective in the framing and remodeling of the bill, and expresses his intention to kick clear out of the traces rather than be lashed into support of any bill embodying these pet Taft ideas.

Cummins, as an insurgent, per se, presents a spectacle by no means novel. But Cummins, as an insurgent, reckless of his standing with the republican party, is incontestably a more serious matter.

His radical action adds just one straw more to the weight already carried by the president and his so-called "conservative" advisors.

It does something vastly more important, also: It opens up further and hitherto undreamed vistas of republican dissension, the effects of which will be visible in the approaching fall elections and in the presidential election of 1912.

LAURENT DEGIVE.

Old-world and old-school gentleman and scholar, pioneer business man and theatrical promoter of Atlanta, gentle, unobtrusive and large-hearted, the passing of Laurent DeGivé will visit a sense of personal bereavement upon many and varying circles in this city.

Few names and personalities have been so characteristically associated with the marvelous growth of Atlanta as have the name and personality of Mr. DeGivé.

In the minds of hundreds of thousands of people who have visited this city for the past half century, the name "DeGivé" is virtually synonymous with the name "Atlanta."

The evolution of the theatrical enterprises, with which his name is most conspicuously identified, is, in reality, the evolution of Atlanta. To this parallel there is one exception which vividly illustrates his far-seeing type of mind, as well as his inspiring faith in the city of his adoption—the projecting and construction of the Grand Opera House. Atlanta has, literally, grown up to the Grand, an achievement of which its owner was sure, when he planned it on a scope at that time in excess of the downright needs of the city.

Locating in Atlanta before the civil war, Mr. DeGivé at once associated himself with the residents and influences making for the upbuilding of the city. His clear and cool judgment and his steady fortitude were notably effective during the chaos and hopelessness of reconstruction, as they were exemplified in every other phase of the city's development. For 50 years he was local consul for the Belgian government, and while he never revoked his allegiance to that nation, his conduct and course were, uniformly, those of the broad-minded and patriotic American.

Of an unassuming and retiring habit of life, he yet impressed all with whom he came in contact with the richness and depth of his human impulses.

Atlanta has lost a builder and a splendid citizen.

FIGHTING HYDROPHOBIA IN GEORGIA.

According to Dr. J. Edgar Paullin, of the state board of health, Atlanta is at present afflicted with a number of mad dogs radically unusual at this season of the year. He enjoins caution.

Contrary to common belief, hydrophobia is not exclusively a summer disease. It may be contracted from a rabid animal as readily in mid-winter as in the most sultry of the dog days. In the heated term dogs have a wider range, and are, therefore, more liable to distribute the contagion. But contact with a mad dog at any stage of the mercury is equally deadly, calling for immediate remedial measures.

Throughout Georgia the board of health, under the vigilant and unremitting supervision of Dr. H. F. Harris, has prosecuted, and is now prosecuting, a rigorous campaign against this justly-dreaded disease.

For some time, now, it has furnished, free, to Georgia physicians the anti-hydrophobic serum, maintaining also a free clinic at the state house for treatment of the disorder.

The literature systematically sent out containing warnings against rabid animals, methods of quick diagnosis and directions in case of infection have unquestionably been instrumental in putting the public on its guard.

An almost negligible percentage of hydrophobia cases proves fatal if the individual is taken in hand immediately following infection. With the malady still far from being eradicated in this state, and with the season when dogs are allowed most latitude rapidly approaching, it will be well for Georgians generally to keep prominently in view the urgency of a cool head and swift consultation of authority in event of infection.

AN AIR-PILOT WITH A GROUCH.

Disgusted with the nagging injunction and infringing suits of the Brothers Wright, Paulhan, the French aviator, is preparing to return home. He intimates the American inventors have given him a crooked deal, and that everything American, including even the weather, has conspired against him.

It will be remembered that the Wright injunction against Paulhan, as well as Glenn Curtiss, is of rather long standing. They claim that, in both instances, their exclusive patents have been infringed, and they ask damages as well as an order forbidding a continuance of the infringements.

Without prejudice to the verity of the Wrights' claims, it is evident they are commercializing the new field of aviation as relentlessly as Peary the polar field.

A SIGNIFICANT CONTEST BETWEEN TWO COUNTIES.

A year ago Tattnall county had not awakened to the call of good roads, and leased the 21 road-building convicts, to which it was entitled, to very much alive Clarke county. Today Tattnall, awakened, is fighting to regain its quota of convicts and put them upon its own roads.

Clarke county knew all along what Tattnall has just found out—that the construction and extension and improvement of highways is of supreme importance in the scheme of economic and industrial development.

Unquestionably, many counties in Georgia today parallel the present and past attitudes of both Clarke and Tattnall. That fact was demonstrated when the new convict law became effective, and the alert and far-seeing counties immediately claimed their pro rata of road-builders, with, as in the case of Clarke, a few of the more aggressive counties clamoring for the share of the sleeping counties.

A few of the counties were indifferent to the gospel of good roads. They let their quota of convicts go by default or leased them to the more enterprising counties.

SIGNS ARE IN EVIDENCE THAT AT LEAST SOME OF THESE COUNTIES ARE SEEING THEIR ERROR, AS TATTNALL HAS SEEN ITS. UPON THE NEXT APPOINTMENT OF CONVICTS BUT FEW OF THE ALLOTMENTS WILL GO BY DEFAULT OR BE VOLUNTARILY TRANSFERRED.

In the story of progress in Georgia there are two divisions: The first is composed of the counties that demand and work their pro rata of road-building convicts, AND THAT GO AHEAD. In the second are the counties that do not utilize their road-building convicts. They are simply MARKING TIME.

There can be no quarrel or compromise regarding this classification. Its accuracy is self-evident.

Each county elects voluntarily whether it shall enlist in the ranks pointed forward or the ranks pledged to stagnation.

The conversion of Tattnall is, no doubt, due largely to the good roads crusade and endurance contests projected last fall by The Constitution. The same constructive influence has been exerted upon other counties, and its beneficial results are to be inestimably extended through the further contests already announced by The Constitution for 1910.

"JUST FROM GEORGIA"

The Bonnets of the Bills.

I sorter keep a-sighin' for the bonnets of the days

When the dear, old-fashioned sweethearts made sweet the Easter ways;

Never had such fixin's, an' such a power o' frills—

They beat these late creations—the bonnets of the bills.

So easy in the makin'—as simple as the light

That rested on the lilies—the roses red and white;

Of course, they ain't the fashion, but there's a heart that thrills

To the bonnets that seem sweeter than the bonnets of the bills.

Nuggets From Georgia.

The man that won't dance to the music of a fiddle will never throw in a brass button when the fiddler passes his hat for pay.

It would be easy to dodge Trouble if we only could recognize him, but he attends Life's big Masque Ball, and throws off his disguise too late.

The men with money to burn don't appreciate a hot time in this old world, and they're not anxious for it in the next one.

Trouble in the Skies.

I'm used to earthly troubles, but trouble in the sky

Keeps me sorter worried, though it's so amazin' high.

The comets, comin' nigher,

They're not of my desire;

They 'mind me of the place there

Where Satan keeps the fire.

Big supply of troubles we're havin' here below:

Instead of heavenly fire, I'd like a storm of snow.

Don't want the trouble higher—

It's not of my desire;

I'm 'mind'd of the place there

Where Satan keeps the fire.

A Spring Primer.

"Will the Man take the stovepipe to pieces and store it away?"

"He doesn't like to, but he will."

"Is he not swearing because he has to beat the carpet?"

"He is, but he'll beat it."

"Who is that Lady, with the sun-bonnet, who seems to be giving general directions?"

"It is the Lady 'who is Superintendent of the Stovepipe and the Carpet-beating, and the Man."

"Stake off a Comet-Claim."

Here is the view an Ozark editor takes of possible calamity from colliding with a comet:

"Who, except a dense pessimist, would be scared about the prospect of receiving the Scotch estates, which, heavily encumbered, produced at the best but little revenue.

Before many years we were past this fourth Lord Macdonald became involved in serious financial difficulties.

This was in the middle of the last century. He thereupon commenced an extraordinary suit to establish the legitimacy of his elder brother, not from any motives of affection or friendship, but quite the reverse. For if he could obtain a decree from the courts establishing the legitimacy of his elder brother, then the latter would be obliged to take possession of the barony, the baronetcy, and the Scotch estates, including Armdale castle, on the island of Skye, and he would have been compelled at the same time to surrender the Bosville property in Yorkshire to Godfrey.

Children Not Legitimate.

This suit fell through on the ground that while, according to Scotch law, the church marriage of the third Lord Macdonald and Louisa Edris might have legitimized their children born prior to the ceremony, it did not do so in the eyes of English or Irish law, and thus was insufficient to enable the fourth Lord Macdonald, elder brother, to succeed to the Irish barony of Macdonald. Alexander Bosville, as well as his son and grandson, were left in undisputed possession of the Bosville property. In fact, the latter was in possession of the estates for sixty years, which renders their title thereto absolutely indefeasible.

The present Alexander Bosville, and owner of the Bosville estates in Yorkshire, is the great-grandson of the third Lord Macdonald, and of Louisa Edris. While he realized that he could not hope to obtain the Irish barony of Macdonald, yet he felt that he had sufficient grounds on which to claim, at any rate the Scotch baronetcy of his great-grandfather, and the chiefdom of the Clan of Macdonald. Accordingly he started some three or four years ago an action at law to establish the legitimacy of his grandfather, the point turning on the question as to whether the latter's father was legally domiciled in Scotland, and thus within the jurisdiction of Scotch law.

Alexander Bosville managed, not only to furnish very strong evidence in favor of his great-grandfather's Scotch domicile, but also of the circumstance that he and Louisa Edris lived together in Scotland as man and wife prior to their Church of England marriage.

Dodged Question of Legitimacy.

With all this evidence heard, and both parties were looking for a decision, the presiding judge last fall issued a declaration which was unsatisfactory to the one party as to the other. For, short of its old-fashioned, quaint and almost incomprehensible Scotch legal phraseology, it amounted to this: that his court, namely, the court of session, was not the proper tribunal to deal with questions of legitimacy, and that the only court competent to deal with the matter was that of chancery. So that the whole case would have to be heard over again before another judge. Undaunted by this, Alexander Bosville at once began another action, this time in the chancery court. But Lord Macdonald has thrown up the sponge, on the score of expense, and therefore Alexander Bosville will from henceforth become the Alexander of Bosville, and head of the Macdonald family.

Born Prior to Church Marriage.

When Lord Macdonald died his eldest son, born prior to the church marriage of his parents, was therefore perfectly satisfied to abandon all claims of succession to the peerage and family honors, and to receive possession of the whole of the Bosville property, assuming the name and the arms of Bosville. His younger brother, Godfrey, born after the church marriage of his parents, became fourth Lord Macdonald, and received the Scotch estates, which, heavily encumbered, produced at the best but little revenue.

Before many years we were past this fourth Lord Macdonald became involved in serious financial difficulties.

This was in the middle of the last century. He thereupon commenced an extraordinary suit to establish the legitimacy of his elder brother, not from any motives of affection or friendship, but quite the reverse. For if he could obtain a decree from the courts establishing the legitimacy of his elder brother, then the latter would be obliged to take possession of the barony, the baronetcy, and the Scotch estates, including Armdale castle, on the island of Skye, and he would have been compelled at the same time to surrender the Bosville property in Yorkshire to Godfrey.

Children Not Legitimate.

This suit fell through on the ground that while, according to Scotch law, the church marriage of the third Lord Macdonald and Louisa Edris might have legitimized their children born prior to the ceremony, it did not do so in the eyes of English or Irish law, and thus was insufficient to enable the fourth Lord Macdonald, elder brother, to succeed to the Irish barony of Macdonald. Alexander Bosville, as well as his son and grandson, were left in undisputed possession of the Bosville property. In fact, the latter was in possession of the estates for sixty years, which renders their title thereto absolutely indefeasible.

The present Alexander Bosville, and owner of the Bosville estates in Yorkshire, is the great-grandson of the third Lord Macdonald, and of Louisa Edris. While he realized that he could not hope to obtain the Irish barony of Macdonald, yet he felt that he had sufficient grounds on which to claim, at any rate the Scotch baronetcy of his great-grandfather, and the chiefdom of the Clan of Macdonald. Accordingly he started some three or four years ago an action at law to establish the legitimacy of his grandfather, the point turning on the question as to whether the latter's father was legally domiciled in Scotland, and thus within the jurisdiction of Scotch law.

Alexander Bosville managed, not only to furnish very strong evidence in favor of his great-grandfather's Scotch domicile, but also of the circumstance that he and Louisa Edris lived together in Scotland as man and wife prior to their Church of England marriage.

Dodged Question of Legitimacy.

With all this evidence heard, and both parties were looking for a decision, the presiding judge last fall issued a declaration which was unsatisfactory to the one party as to the other. For, short of its old-fashioned, quaint and almost incomprehensible Scotch legal phraseology, it amounted to this: that his court, namely, the court of session, was not the proper tribunal to deal with questions of legitimacy, and that the only court competent to deal with the matter was that of chancery. So that the whole case would have to be heard over again before another judge. Undaunted by this, Alexander Bosville at once began another action, this time in the chancery court. But Lord Macdonald has thrown up the sponge, on the score of expense, and therefore Alexander Bosville will from henceforth become the Alexander of Bosville, and head of the Macdonald family.

Born Prior to Church Marriage.

When Lord Macdonald died his eldest son, born prior to the church marriage of his parents, was therefore perfectly satisfied to abandon all claims of succession to the peerage and family honors, and to receive possession of the whole of the Bosville property, assuming the name and the arms of Bosville. His younger brother, Godfrey, born after the church marriage of his parents, became fourth Lord Macdonald, and received the Scotch estates, which, heavily encumbered, produced at the best but little revenue.

Before many years we were past this fourth Lord Macdonald became involved in serious financial difficulties.

This was in the middle of the last century. He thereupon commenced an extraordinary suit to establish the legitimacy of his elder brother, not from any motives of affection or friendship, but quite the reverse. For if he could obtain a decree from the courts establishing the legitimacy of his elder brother, then the latter would be obliged to take possession of the barony, the baronetcy, and the Scotch estates, including Armdale castle, on the island of Skye, and he would have been compelled at the same time to surrender the Bosville property in Yorkshire to Godfrey.

Children Not Legitimate.

This suit fell through on the ground that while, according to Scotch law, the church marriage of the third Lord Macdonald and Louisa Edris might have legitimized their children born prior to the ceremony, it did not do so in the eyes of English or Irish law, and thus was insufficient to enable the fourth Lord Macdonald, elder brother, to succeed to the Irish barony of Macdonald. Alexander Bosville, as well as his son and grandson, were left in undisputed possession of the Bosville property. In fact, the latter was in possession of the estates for sixty years, which renders their title thereto absolutely indefeasible.

The present Alexander Bosville, and owner of the Bosville estates in Yorkshire, is the great-grandson of the third Lord Macdonald, and of Louisa Edris. While he realized that he could not hope to obtain the Irish barony of Macdonald, yet he felt that he had sufficient grounds on which to claim, at any rate the Scotch baronetcy of his great-grandfather, and the chiefdom of the Clan of Macdonald. Accordingly he started some three or four years ago an action at law to establish the legitimacy of his grandfather, the point turning on the question as to whether the latter's father was legally domiciled in Scotland, and thus within the jurisdiction of Scotch law.

Alexander Bosville managed, not only to furnish very strong evidence in favor of his great-grandfather's Scotch domicile, but also of the circumstance that he and Louisa Edris lived together in Scotland as man and wife prior to their Church of England marriage.

Dodged Question of Legitimacy.

With all this evidence heard, and both parties were looking for a decision, the presiding judge last fall issued a declaration which was unsatisfactory to the one party as to the other. For, short of its old-fashioned, quaint and almost incomprehensible Scotch legal phraseology, it amounted to this: that his court, namely, the court of session, was not the proper tribunal to deal with questions of legitimacy, and that the only court competent to deal with the matter was that of chancery. So that the whole case would have to be heard over again before another judge. Undaunted by this, Alexander Bosville at once began another action, this time in the chancery court. But Lord Macdonald has thrown up the sponge, on the score of expense, and therefore Alexander Bosville will from henceforth become the Alexander of Bosville, and head of the Macdonald family.

Born Prior to Church Marriage.

When Lord Macdonald died his eldest son, born prior to the church marriage of his parents, was therefore perfectly satisfied to abandon all claims of succession to the peerage and family honors, and to receive possession of the whole of the Bosville property, assuming the name and the arms of Bosville. His younger brother, Godfrey, born after the church marriage of his parents, became fourth Lord Macdonald, and received the Scotch estates, which, heavily encumbered, produced at the best but little revenue.

Before many years we were past this fourth Lord Macdonald became involved in serious financial difficulties.

This was in the middle of the last century. He thereupon commenced an extraordinary suit to establish the legitimacy of his elder brother, not from any motives of affection or friendship, but quite the reverse. For if he could obtain a decree from the courts establishing the legitimacy of his elder brother, then the latter would be obliged to take possession of the barony, the baronetcy, and the Scotch estates, including Armdale castle, on the island of Skye, and he would have been compelled at the same time to surrender the Bosville property in Yorkshire to Godfrey.

Children Not Legitimate.

This suit fell through on the ground that while, according to Scotch law, the church marriage of the third Lord Macdonald and Louisa Edris might have legitimized their children born prior to the ceremony, it did not do so in the eyes of English or Irish law, and thus was insufficient to enable the fourth Lord Macdonald, elder brother, to succeed to the Irish barony of Macdonald. Alexander Bosville, as well as his son and grandson, were left in undisputed possession of the Bosville property. In fact, the latter was in possession of the estates for sixty years, which renders their title thereto absolutely indefeasible.

The present Alexander Bosville, and owner of the Bosville estates in Yorkshire, is the great-grandson of the third Lord Macdonald, and of Louisa Edris. While he realized that he could not hope to obtain the Irish barony of Macdonald, yet he felt that he had sufficient grounds on which to claim, at any rate the Scotch baronetcy of his great-grandfather, and the chiefdom of the Clan of Macdonald. Accordingly he started some three or four years ago an action at law to establish the legitimacy of his grandfather, the point turning on the question as to whether the latter's father was legally domiciled in Scotland, and thus within the jurisdiction of Scotch law.

Alexander Bosville managed, not only to furnish very strong evidence in favor of his great-grandfather's Scotch domicile, but also of the circumstance that he and Louisa Edris lived together in Scotland as man and wife prior to their Church of England marriage.

Dodged Question of Legitimacy.

With all this evidence heard, and both parties were looking for a decision, the presiding judge last fall issued a declaration which was unsatisfactory to the one party as to the other. For, short of its old-fashioned, quaint and almost incomprehensible Scotch legal phraseology, it amounted to this: that his court, namely, the court of session, was not the proper tribunal to deal with questions of legitimacy, and that the only court competent to deal with the matter was that of chancery. So that the whole case would have to be heard over again before another judge. Undaunted by this, Alexander Bosville at once began another action, this time in the chancery court. But Lord Macdonald has thrown up the sponge, on the score of expense, and therefore Alexander Bosville will from henceforth become the Alexander of Bosville, and head of the Macdonald family.

Born Prior to Church Marriage.

When Lord Macdonald died his eldest son, born prior to the church marriage of his parents, was therefore perfectly satisfied to abandon all claims of succession to the peerage and family honors, and to receive possession of the whole of the Bosville property, assuming the name and the arms of Bosville. His younger brother, Godfrey, born after the church marriage of his parents, became fourth Lord Macdonald, and received the Scotch estates, which, heavily encumbered, produced at the best but little revenue.

Before many years we were past this fourth Lord Macdonald became involved in serious financial difficulties.

This was in the middle of the last century. He thereupon commenced an extraordinary suit to establish the legitimacy of his elder brother, not from any motives of affection or friendship, but quite the reverse. For if he could obtain a decree from the courts establishing the legitimacy of his elder brother, then the latter would be obliged to take possession of the barony, the baronetcy, and the Scotch estates, including Armdale castle, on the island of Skye, and he would have been compelled at the same time to surrender the Bosville property in Yorkshire to Godfrey.

Children Not Legitimate.

This suit fell through on the ground that while, according to Scotch law, the church marriage of the third Lord Macdonald and Louisa Edris might have legitimized their children born prior to the ceremony, it did not do so in the eyes of English or Irish law, and thus was insufficient to enable the fourth Lord Macdonald, elder brother, to succeed to the Irish barony of Macdonald. Alexander Bosville, as well as his son and grandson, were left in undisputed possession of the Bosville property. In fact, the latter was in possession of the estates for sixty years, which renders their title thereto absolutely indefeasible.

The present Alexander Bosville, and owner of the Bosville estates in Yorkshire, is the great-grandson of the third Lord Macdonald, and of Louisa Edris. While he realized that he could not hope to obtain the Irish barony

Why We Grow:

A CONSCIENTIOUS DISCHARGE of duty, painstaking care of the interests of its friends and patrons, and dispatching all business intrusted to it with care and accuracy, are features that would recommend any business institution to the very best patronage.

Add to these features the absolute security insured by ample Capital and Surplus, and a Management whose unswerving conservatism has become a byword, and you will have the reason why the ATLANTA NATIONAL BANK has enjoyed a steady growth for nearly half a century.

Atlanta National Bank

"A Financial Stronghold"

DARRY ADV.—ATLANTA.

EASTERN OR CENTRAL TIME? HOW DO ATLANTANS VOTE?

Here is the ballot. Sign it and send it in to The Constitution office:

I favor { Eastern Standard } Time, as the official time for Atlanta.

Name.....

Address.....

(Draw line through words indicating time for which you DO NOT wish to vote.)

CITY NEWS

Carl Guess Admitted.—Carl N. Guess, a practicing attorney, Atlanta, was yesterday admitted to practice in the United States district court by Judge Newman.

Rabbi Kleinfeld Preaches.—Rabbi A. E. Kleinfeld, of Congregation Beth Israel, corner of Washington and Clarke streets, will preach at 8 o'clock this evening on "Hopefulness."

Will Debate Time Change.—The Men's Club of the Unitarian church will meet in their club room at the church, on East Harris street, this evening at 8 o'clock. A discussion will be held by W. C. Puckett on the subject, "Shall Atlanta Change From Central to Eastern Time?"

Lot Is Purchased.—Kilne & Jacobs yesterday bought through J. H. Ewing, of the Ansley Realty Company, a lot on Butler street, near Decatur, formerly the property of Dr. W. W. Crowe. The lot has a frontage of 100 feet on Butler. The price paid was $11,000. It was bought as an investment.

Henley Visiting Parents.—J. R. Henley, son of Assistant District Attorney Henley, is in the city visiting his parents. Mr. Henley is a first lieutenant in the coast artillery branch of the military establishment and is stationed at Puget Sound. He will go to Marietta, Fla., to visit his brother, Weldon Henley, the well-known baseball pitcher, before returning to his post of duty.

Bond Money Expenditure.—The bond commission and the board of water commissioners will hold a joint session in the office of Mayor Maddox this afternoon at 3 o'clock for the purpose of receiving reports from the four sub-committees which were appointed to make arrangements for the expenditure of the money which is appropriated for the water department under the bond issue. As previously reported.

Quality in Diamonds

The De Beers Syndicate make four classifications of diamonds, known as Crystals and the primary grading is of "rough" uncut stock. After cutting, there are from seven to ten colors in crystals alone.

Another thing to be determined is the make of the goods. One house may make their goods to a higher state of finish than another; by that we mean having all stones round, having no girdles, having no heavy tops or too heavy bottoms—any of which has its effect upon the price of goods also.

Our Blue-White and Finest White Wesselton Crystals are perfect gems—absolutely perfect in shape, proportion, cutting and color. Weights and qualities are guaranteed, and for the same quality, our prices cannot be equalled.

Our grades range from the finest Blue Jager, Crystals, Whites, down to Commercial Whites, with a few plainly marked "slightly imperfect" stones in the various grades.

In a two-carat stone, a slight imperfection that can't be seen, will make a difference in price of $150.00. Therefore, care should be exercised to keep from buying a diamond from a dealer whose conscience is "color blind."

Write for a selection of diamonds to be shipped on approval. Ask also for our illustrated catalogue "C."

Majer & Berke, Inc.
Diamond Merchants
51-53 Whitehall St.

RAWLINGS BOYS ASK FOR PARDON

Attorney John Cooper Renews Battle for Their Liberty.

After about five years spent in jail and in the state penitentiary, the three Rawlings boys, who are serving life sentences for the murder of the Carter children in Lowndes county in 1905, are now seeking a pardon at the hands of the prison commission.

The application for clemency was filed through Attorney John R. Cooper.

MILTON RAWLINGS,
Oldest One of Brothers, Seeking Pardon.

the noted criminal lawyer, of Macon, who fought the Rawlings case through almost every court in the land before it was finally lost.

The murder of the Carter children, through the heartless brutality, attracted attention throughout the country. There had been a feud of long standing between the Rawlings family and the Carter family, which culminated one night when the children of the latter, attracted to the yard by noises from outside the house, were shot down and killed.

J. G. Rawlings, his three sons, Milton, Leonard and Jesse, and a negro named Alf Moore, were arrested and charged with the crime. After one of the hardest legal fights in the history of the state, all were found guilty and J. G. Rawlings and Alf Moore were hanged and the three Rawlings boys were sent to the penitentiary.

On the gallows Rawlings affirmed that his three sons were not implicated in the crime, and that Alf Moore, the negro, had committed the deed alone. Moore affirmed, also on the gallows, that Rawlings hired him to commit the crime and that the three boys assisted him.

The plea for clemency is based on the statement that Rawlings alone was responsible for the crime and his boys were innocent. The petition has been filed, but no date has been set for the hearing.

fifteen months in the federal penitentiary and a fine of $100.

Foot Crushed.—Switch—John Ficklin, a young man of Macon, employed on the Georgia railroad, had his foot crushed in a switch at the junction of the tracks and the Boulevard at 8:30 o'clock last night. An ambulance carried him to the Grady hospital, where it was found necessary to amputate the ankle.

Tuberculosis Lecture.—The lecture committee of the Atlanta Anti-Tuberculosis Society, of which Dr. Claude Smith, city bacteriologist, is chairman, has selected Dr. E. C. Thrash, a well-known physician and expert on tuberculosis, of this city, as the lecturer to deliver the second lecture of the series now being delivered before the Atlanta Typographical Union and the members of their families. This lecture will be delivered at 8:30 o'clock on Wednesday, March 23, at 3:30 in Federal hall. Dr. Thrash has selected as subject, "The Causes of Tuberculosis."

Playground Committee.—V. H. Krieger, Joseph L. Linton, C. Hopkins and Dr. Theodore Toepel have been chosen by Superintendent William H. Slaton to form a playground committee. The committee will be able to attend the meeting of the playground movement—the idea in modern educational thought being that the child's play is better for children, mentally and physically, than any enforced set of exercises.

Atlanta Engineers Represented.—The grievance or wage scale committee of the Seaboard Air Line Brotherhood of Engineers is now in session at Portsmouth, Va., and Atlanta's local branch is a representative present. The impression prevails here that as the current contract will soon expire, the formation of a new agreement between the road and engineers will be the feature of the gathering. The committee is composed of ten or twelve members of the locomotive brotherhood, every division of the organization being represented.

Agricultural Institute.—Professor Boule will conduct an agricultural institute in Decatur's courthouse on March 21, 22 and 23. Three sessions will be held each day, the first meeting commencing at 9:30 o'clock on the 21st. H. T. G. Hudson, commissioner of agriculture, will attend the opening exercises. The citizens of DeKalb are very much interested in scientific agriculture and heartily approve of the idea of an itinerant college. The meetings will not be confined to farmers, for business men and ladies are expected to attend some of the sessions.

Charles Crogan Injured.—Charles Crogan, aged 15, is seriously injured at the Grady hospital as the result of injuries received on Spring street yesterday morning, when he was knocked from a bicycle by a heavy car. His left collar bone was broken and the right side of his skull was fractured. Charles is the son of T. H. Crogan, at 67 Connally street. It is stated that he has a chance to recover. The accident occurred in front of the residence of Dr. James Ellis, 476 Spring street, and the young boy was given first aid by Hydrant Engineer Rudolph Hillier, who was passing the scene. The occupants of the carriage are not known.

Atlanta's Water Supply.—Atlanta's water supply of the future was the subject most discussed at the meeting yesterday of the Chamber of Commerce committee on water supply. As a result of the discussion a subcommittee was appointed to confer with Hydraulic Engineer Rudolph Hillier. It is the opinion of the committee that the time is coming when the section through which the Chattahoochee flows will become thickly settled and as a result the water will become fouled and unfit for use in the city. Whence the city will get its water in this event is the question the committee is commissioned to look into.

WHILE HE DAY DREAMS FIRE THREATENS HOME

The lure of spring—that soothing that, at this time of the year, calls luringly to every man born and reared in the country, yesterday made J. Hankins, a street railway employee, dream on while a fire of his own kindling burned a portion of the fence about his garden, and came within an ace of costing him his residence.

Hankins lived in the country for some 25-odd winters, to say nothing of summers, before he came to Atlanta to enter the employ of the street railway company. And the "call of the wild" hit him hard Thursday when the touch of spring began to make itself felt in the atmosphere. He resisted for a time, but later was forced to give in. It was to the country or bust with him. So he secured a substitute to take his place and hid himself to his cottage, just outside the city limits on the west.

He has been living at the place only a short time and has not had a chance to clean up his garden, as his rural training told him it ought to be done. So with the spring fever on him strong he proceeded to get busy with the vegetable patch immediately after reaching home.

It is Spring Again.

The apoth was overgrown with rank weeds, and not a few brush, left by whoever cleared the place, lay scattered about. So Hankins shucked his coat, donned a battered straw hat and began piling brush with an ardor that even his profuse perspiration could not dampen. The brush he piled near the back of the lot, cut down a few of the rankest weeds, and then set fire to the whole. This done, he seated himself in a shady spot for what he considered a well-earned rest.

It was only his body that had become fagged out, however, and as he sat and listened to the fire crackling, his brain worked overtime. The wheels of memory began turning backward and Hankins is again a boy on the farm.

It is spring. The robins have just begun to sing after a winter's silence. A woodpecker's hammering on a dead tree hardly. The dogwood blossoms are lending the woods their first touch of color. The air smells of guano and spring. From a nearby field floats the "Whoa-Ge!" of one of Africa's sons, who is "bedding up cotton land."

And so it ran, the day dreamer's memory carrying him back to what now seem so rapidly yesterday days of his life, despite the stone-bruises, early rising hours, and the occasional thrashing. For the brushes and the whippings are all forgotten and only the fishing on the shady creek, the swimming pool, and the coon hunts are remembered.

The shrill whistle of a passing trolley.

COTTAGES DESTROYED BY SPREADING FLAMES

Home of C. C. Weaver and Adjoining Cottages Attacked.

Flames starting in the kitchen of C. C. Weaver's cottage, 495 Hill street, at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon spread so rapidly that both the Weaver spread and an adjoining cottage were completely destroyed before their progress could be arrested. As the cottages were situated on the corner, the flames were greatly handicapped by the absence of water, and had not been for the prompt assistance given by a gang of convicts, who were working in the vicinity, under the surveillance of Captain Howell, the fire would undoubtedly have caused much greater damage than it did.

One of the cottages destroyed was the home of Miss Sadie Weaver, whose husband, a merchant, was away on a tour around the world, arrived in New York harbor tonight on the steamer Mauretania.

The former vice president talked freely. Peace with Japan was by a strange coincidence he reaches New York in time to be an honored guest with President Taft at a dinner of the American Peace and Arbitration League at the Hotel Astor on Tuesday night.

President Roosevelt's administration, said Mr. Stalling, greatly strengthened the ties of good neighborhood between us and other powers and President Taft, at a dinner of the American Peace and Arbitration League at the Hotel Astor on Tuesday night.

TRAVELED 3,000 MILES TO BE SWINDLED

Witness in Mabry Case Went to Los Angeles to Lose $8,500.

Council Bluffs, Iowa, March 17.—One witness for the defense is to be heard Friday morning in the case of John C. Mabry and associates, at which arguments will be finished. Both sides have finished their cases at tonight's session of the federal district court.

Just before adjournment John H. Sizer, a King William county, Virginia, merchant, testified to having traveled 3,000 miles to Los Angeles to watch $8,500 on a horse race in which Willard Powell, one of the defendants, was a jockey. Sizer declared that he was a jockey, and that he "took me down the chutes and cleaned me for that eighty-five hundred."

"It was a tragic thing for me," he added, "and once it looked like I might have to walk back to Virginia."

Shakespearean Recital.

Mr. Joseph Cady Allen, of Boston, who is to interpret Shakespeare's "Tempest" on Monday, March 21, at 8:15 p.m. in the Unitarian church on Cain street, has been making a tour of Florida and the south. Mr. Allen acts the play, making his audience see in imagination the scenes and situations. He is a most successful actor, and his book and recites the play entirely from memory.

He does not make comments on the lines, but interprets them by his powers of expression. He gives a smooth and equal presentation of the play as a whole—a one-star performance with a weak supporting company—always seeking to bring out the subtle meanings of the lines.

Mr. John Mullin will sing the "Tempest" songs as they were set to music of the sixteenth century and will also give some with more modern settings.

Fifty Cents Caused Killing.

Spaniardsburg, S. C., March 17.—R. W. Graham, engineer of the Valley Falls Manufacturing Company's mills, 10 miles west of here, who was struck on the head yesterday by a rock thrown by Emory Bishop, an employee at the mills, died today. A dispute over 50 cents was the cause of the killing. Bishop and his brother-in-law, Andy Teague, also implicated in the affair, fled, and have not been arrested.

HE THOUGHT HE'D BURN THE GRASS.

ley car aroused him. He could almost believe it to be the old tin horn calling him to dinner. His mind came slowly out of the state.

But just then a childish voice shrilled. "Papa, look, the fence's afire!" And sure enough it was. While he had dreamed, the fire he himself had started had done all it was intended to do and more. The brush pile had been made too near the garden fence, several panels of which were by this time in ashes. The fire was running rapidly along the fence and in a few minutes more would have reached the house. A few well-directed buckets of water stopped its progress, however, and the house was not damaged. Fully half the fence will have to be replaced, however.

"Well, I'll have to build that fence over again," Hankins ruefully remarked, as he surveyed the ruins. "But I ain't so blamed certain that the fun I got out of the old days weren't worth it."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

And then, as a far-away look came into his eyes: "And I don't know but what I'm going back to the farm pretty soon. My boys are missing all over the place."

To Send or to Carry Money Most Safely

The chief function of our Exchange Department is to afford to its patrons the utmost security and convenience in the transmission of moneys.

We specialize this department and consequently you will find it a most adequate aid if you want to remit funds to domestic or foreign parts.

Our system of Travelers' Checks and Letters of Credit is the perfection of simplicity and convenience.

It will give us pleasure to furnish any desired information pertaining to these matters.

Fourth National Bank

Best Material, Best Workmanship By Men of Ability; 5 to 15 Years' Experience

The Old Look Young Again
Phone 3211
Main

BY WEARING A SET OF OUR BEST TEETH, DELIVERED IN FIVE HOURS $5.00. Gold Crowns, $3.00. White Crowns, $2.00. We do all kinds of work known to dental science at lowest prices. Bottle of Mouth Wash free.

The White Dental Rooms
Cor. Whitehall and Mitchell, over Brannen's.

DEAF-MUTE GOT LICENSE, BUT RENEGED ON MARRIAGE

A tall, gaunt man walked into the ordinary's office Thursday and began making motions with his hands.

"What do you want," asked Marcelus Anderson.

The man then talked some more with his fingers, but Mr. Anderson was not versed in the language of signs and would have been at a decided loss if Mr. Stallings had not come to his rescue about that time.

"Oh, that fellow is named Evans. He got a marriage license yesterday," William Evans—for that was his full title—then began to go into painful detail.

He pictured graphically a long, tall woman with pinched face and irregular features. Then he threw his marriage licenses down on the counter, picked up a pencil and wrote—$175.

From what could be gathered from Evans' pantomime, he had gotten his license under a mistaken idea and now that he had found that the lady was too tall and too thin and otherwise unqualified, he decided to throw up the bargain and get his money back.

Mr. Stallings says that the true story is that Evans secured his first license last Sunday, but on going to the lady's house she scorned him and said that she never had promised to marry him. His second affair was similar.

It is not thought that Evans will try any more. He looked thoroughly disgusted when he left the ordinary's office.

FOUR GOVERNORS TO MEET AT THE ALBANY CHAUTAUQUA

Albany, Ga., March 17.—(Special.)—Albany is expecting to have as her guests on Governors' day of the approaching twenty-second annual assembly of the Georgia chautauqua four governors.

Positive acceptances have been received from Governor Brown of Georgia, and Governor Comer of Alabama; Governor Draper, of Massachusetts, and Governor Gilchrist, of Florida, are endeavoring to arrange their engagements so that they may accept the invitations and information received from both these executives encourages the hope that positive acceptances will be received in the course of the next few days.

The military feature of the day will, because of the presence in Albany of the governors, be made imposing and unusually interesting. The program is now being worked out by the chautauqua committee to which it was referred, and will be made public at an early date. The assembly opens on April 1.

One particularly encouraging feature of preparations for the assembly is the success which has met the efforts to secure reduced railroad rates. They will be lower, and will cover a wider territory than in the case of any former assembly.

LAW AND ORDER LEAGUE IS FORMED BY NEGROES

Aims of the Organization Set Forth in Letter to the Constitution.

A "Law and Order League" has been formed by negroes living in Pittsburgh, largely by members of that race, the purpose of the organization being to establish a better citizenship.

In a communication addressed to the Constitution from the organization, the president, B. C. Brooks, the aid of council and "especially" the police commission is asked in bringing about betterment of conditions in that neighborhood.

The communication, which is headed with the words, "Peace, Harmony and Good Will to All Mankind," is as follows:

"Be it known by all whom it may concern, that the Law and Order League of Pittsburgh stands strictly for good citizenship in every sense of the term. We ask every good citizen of Pittsburgh to encourage us by giving us good, law-abiding officers and such street improvements that would induce good people to seek homes in our midst and also help us to move out all evil influences. Now, I said good officers, because it is a conceded truth that ineffective practices makes a people resentful, which always brings trouble. That we don't want and we mean to use every precaution to prevent it. We believe that if the same spirit is shown by those in authority we will be able to accomplish great good for our neighborhood, bringing a great blessing to our race and untold credit to Greater Atlanta."

"R. C. BROOKS, President."

Three Negroes Burned.

Columbia, S. C., March 17.—Fire that destroyed the main building of Harrison College, a negro school, at Abbeville, S. C., today, burned to death three students. Five other students were badly hurt in jumping from windows. Firemen noticed a strong smell of kerosene on arrival. Incendiarism is suspected.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR TO HOLD INSPECTION

Atlanta Commandery's Annual Inspection Takes Place on Monday.

The annual inspection of the Atlanta Commandery, No. 9, Knights Templar, will be held Monday night at 7:30 o'clock at its asylum.

The commandery will be inspected by Right Eminent Sir Alpheus B. Simmons, grand commander, assisted by the officers of his staff. After the inspection a banquet will be given in honor of the grand commander.

Georgia Postal News.

Washington, March 17.—(Special.)—Postmaster appointed: Braswell, Paul Hagin, resigned; Trudie, Pierce county; Ellis, S. Strickland vice J. Ludwig, resigned.

LEATHER GOODS

ROUNTREE'S
Leather Goods

possess a distinctive quality—they embody the latest, most practical ideas in bag and suit case construction.

ROUNTREE'S
77 Whitehall St.
W. Z. TURNER, Mgr.

SOCIETY

Crew-McCord.
Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Crew announce the engagement of their daughter, Helen, to Mr. Mark J. McCord, the marriage to take place April 27.

Evening Bridge.
Miss Emma Robinson will entertain at bridge Saturday night in compliance to Miss Lula Calloway and Mr. John Mandeville, of Carrollton.

To Miss Flanders.
Miss Elizabeth Flanders, of New York, who is the charming guest of her grandmother, Mrs. L. C. Flanders, will be the guest of honor at a large bridge party Saturday night, to be given by Mrs. C. D. Maddox and Mrs. J. H. Tutwiler.

Supper Party.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Shadden entertained delightfully at supper last night in compliance to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Conklin, of Baltimore, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Conklin.

The polished table was covered with mats of Venetian lace, and in the center was a large basket shading fern light, green to pale straw color, filled with pink-tinted white tulips. The silver candelsticks had silk shades with Dresden figures in pink and light green, and these colors were continued in other pretty details.

After supper there was a game of bridge. Mrs. Shadden wore a becoming gown of white crepe chiffon and satin. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Conklin, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Conklin, Mr. and Mrs. John Goddard, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Little, Dr. and Mrs. Dunbar Roy.

To Mrs. Baxter.
Mrs. Henry S. Jackson's luncheon yesterday was an informal affair of eight covers, and Mrs. Nathaniel Baxter, of Nashville, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robert Maddox, was guest of honor.

The house was fragrant with spring flowers, and in the dining room the luncheon table was decorated in light spring colors. The luncheon cloth was embroidered in pink and green, and the centerpiece was of pink and white spirea. The silver candelsticks had pink empire shades, and the glass and china were pink and green and gold.

Symphony Concert.
One of the features of the concert at the Grand Sunday afternoon by the Philharmonic Association of the Atlanta Musical Association will be a Grieg "pastorale," "Evening in the Mountains," for horn, oboe and strings. It is delightfully characteristic, and will doubtless prove one of the most popular numbers on an interesting program.

At the Driving Club.
One of the brightest prospects of Easter week, which will be gay with many functions, will be the dinner dance at the Piedmont Driving Club Saturday. A handsome entertainment at the Driving Club on the evening of Tuesday, March 22, will be the cotillon Mr. and Mrs. Richard Congdon will give for their daughter, Miss Maizie Thurston.

Restaurant, 88 Whitehall Street.

Menu, Friday.
Soup, cream of tomato; chicken, dressing, gravy, new Irish peas, peas, rice, cranberry, celery, hot rolls, butter, tomato salad, mayonnaise, Neapolitan cream, home-made cakes, coffee.

Lunch will include fried oysters, hot rolls, pickles, coffee.
The restaurant at 88 Whitehall street will be in charge of the young matrons' committee of the First Presbyterian church today and Saturday. An elegant chicken dinner will be served for 50 cents and the usual oyster lunch for 25 cents.

To Mrs. Lang.
Mrs. James W. Morrow, Jr., was hostess yesterday at a delightful card party in compliance to Mrs. Frank Lang, of Memphis, who is the guest of her mother, Mrs. R. M. Rose.

There were sixteen guests, and the house was attractively decorated for their reception with ferns and jonquils. The St. Patrick's day suggestion was carried out in many pretty details of green, including the serving of a dainty luncheon after the game.

The prizes, silk stockings and a bridge set, were won by Mrs. John Evans, Mrs. James T. Williams and Mrs. T. C. Longino. The guest of honor was presented a piece of hand-painted china.

Miss Blount's Bridge.
Miss Ida Blount's afternoon bridge party was an enjoyable event of

Silver Pitchers

They often seem like a sort of dissipation with designers—so much enthusiasm appears to have gone into the making of many of them, that we are almost led to believe the artist in silver must choose the designing of Pitchers for his inspirational moments, his happy times.

Just look at the Pitchers we are showing, for instance, and imagine the loving touches, the sprightly thoughts, which, judging from results, must have gone into them!

This is one suggestion out of our many for wedding gifts.

DAVIS & FREEMAN

Jewelers
47 Whitehall Street

PHONE AND WIRE LEADERS VISIT ATLANTA ON MONDAY

Edward J. Hall, of New York, vice president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, and chairman of the executive committee, and member of the board of directors of the Western Union Telegraph Company, will arrive in Atlanta Monday for the purpose of inspecting the Western Union system here to note any needed improvements.

They come to Atlanta from Richmond, Va., and are making a tour of inspection throughout the south. Mr. Hall was formerly president of the Southern Bell Telephone Company, and as chairman of the executive committee of the Western Union directors will be prominently connected with future work in the south.

The visitors will be entertained Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock with a dinner at the Capital City Club by W. T. Gentry, president of the Southern Bell Telephone Company.

Admits Bad Forgery.

Montgomery, Ala., March 17.—(Special.)—George Upson, alias Fred Phillips, awaits sentence in the criminal court, having admitted forging a check which was cashed by the Exchange hotel in this city. He represented himself as a representative of the

CAMPAIGN UNDER WAY FOR MORE MEMBERS

Chamber of Commerce Committee Sends Letters to Business Men.
Secretary Walter Cooper, acting in behalf of the membership committee of the Chamber of Commerce, is sending out several hundred letters to various business men of the city who are not at the present time members of the Chamber of Commerce. In these letters Mr. Cooper calls attention to the rapid growth of the work done by the Chamber of Commerce and the urgent need for more workers with which to carry on the greater things that are to come before the body.

The appeal for new members is signed by the following: F. J. Paxton, president; Ben Lee Crew, chairman; J. A. Fischer, H. L. Schlesinger, J. F. West and J. R. Smith, membership committee. Attached to the appeal is a post card to be signed and returned to W. G. Cooper, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Empire building.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

You don't know how much better meats, fish and poultry taste when you try Rednappe Sauce. At grocers.

cards of her reading club, a long-standing organization of close friends, including Misses Helen Crew, Bessie Baxter, Olive Reese, Mrs. Jack Riddle, Mrs. Robert Stephens, Miss Louise Sisson, Mrs. Julian Baxter, Miss Rosa Lowry.

Miss E. A. Scribble, of Indian Springs, is the guest of Mr. Dabney Scoville, at the Marion.

Mr. George W. Scoville, of the Wigwam at Indian Springs, is in the city for a few days.

Miss Frances Hill will entertain twenty-four young women at heart-dance next Tuesday afternoon in compliance to Miss Lella Richardson.

Mrs. A. E. Collins, of Bolton, Ga., has returned from an extended trip along the eastern and southern coast of Florida.

Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Riddle entertained at family dinner last night, celebrating Mrs. Riddle's birthday.

Fifty young men and women enjoyed the Jaded Club dance last night at the club house in West End.

Miss Gladys Catchings will entertain at a small Dutch supper tonight in compliance to her guest, Miss Therrell, of Nashville.

Mr. and Mrs. John Edward Dance are at home at 2 A. Carnegie Way.

Mr. Frank Munsey, of New York, will arrive today from New Orleans with Major J. F. Hanson in the latter's private car, and will be the guest for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. John D. Little.

Miss Annie Mell Cashman gave an enjoyable heart-dance party yesterday, assembling twelve guests to meet Miss Gertrude Finckel, of Washington, who is visiting Mrs. Frank Byrne.

Mrs. Charles Strong, of Savannah, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Baker.

Miss Lottie Wyly will return from Alabama for Easter, after a visit of some time with relatives.

Mrs. Edwin Taylor, of Woodstock, Kansas, arrived in this city yesterday for a two-weeks' stay at the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fogg, of 155 Pine street.

A CAKE BAKING POINTER.
A cake without flavoring would be flat in taste. Perfection cake-making is secured by using the perfect Blue Ribbon extracts.

TODAY'S your (opportunity) day for a bargain in a diamond. Make it a point to be on hand at the auction; both sales if possible.

Morning and afternoon sales.
Charles W. Crankshaw
16 Whitehall Street

EDWARD J. HALL,
Vice president of American Telephone and Telegraph Company, who visits Atlanta Monday.

Fleishman Yeast Company, of New York, in which city he was arrested some weeks ago.

ROCKEFELLER REFUSES TO RECEIVE LETTER

Sent to Him by Geo. R. Washburn, Secretary of Model License League.

Louisville, March 17.—George R. Washburn, secretary of National Model License League, today received unopened a registered letter he sent John D. Rockefeller several days ago, asking the financier's moral and financial support of the Model License League. Mr. Washburn's letter referred to Mr. Rockefeller's contribution of $150,000 to the anti-saloon league, and after stating that prohibition is almost a farce in many states and noting the increasing consumption of liquors in nearly every part of the United States, giving the object of the Model License League as "the relieving of the retail liquor dealer of the domination of political bosses, and the giving of licenses to be taken from a dealer only by vote of the people or by violation of the law."

Mr. Rockefeller was asked in the letter to look into the aims and purposes of the league and "if you believe that its work will be really effective and if you believe that the men behind it are earnest and honest, then we ask you to give us both your moral and financial support."

Mr. Washburn says the letter was returned with the note "declined to receive."

MEAT PACKERS DENY PUTTING UP PRICES

They Say the Farmers Are Enjoying All the Benefits.

Washington, March 17.—Like the retail meat packers, the wholesale meat packers deny the increased cost of meat and its products. Witnesses today before the senate committee, which is investigating the cost of living, discussed the situation from the packers' point of view and expressed the opinion that the farmers were enjoying all of the benefits of the high prices.

George L. McCarthy, of New York, publisher of The National Provisioner, and secretary of the American Meat Packers Association, thought the meat packers had been an important factor in increasing prices. He said that out of 932 slaughtering houses in existence before the law went into effect, more than 600 had given up their interstate business rather than submit to the augmented expenses involved in government inspection. He said this inspection cost the packer 1/4 of a cent a pound on his products and was in a measure responsible for the higher price to the consumer.

Largest Block of Marble.

Knoxville, Tenn., March 17.—The largest block of marble ever shipped from the state of Tennessee was forwarded yesterday by a New York contractor. From this block will be carved the statue of "Justice" for the Bronx courthouse in New York City.

The stone is eight feet by five feet six inches in size, and weighs 67,000 pounds. The block for the base upon which the statue will rest is seven feet five inches by six feet eleven inches by four feet ten inches, and weighs 40,000 pounds. The marble was quarried within three miles of Knoxville. It is of the pink variety, and although unpolished, it presents a brilliant lustre.

CHILD'S ROMPERS.

Rompers are the best of all garments for play time, either in or outdoors. A garment like the above sketch is made of plain blue duck with red and white checked gingham used for the bands. This pattern is cut in three sizes, 1, 2 and 4 years. Size 2 requires 3 yards of 97-inch material. Price of Pattern 471 is 10 cents.

No. 471.
Name
Address
Size

Fill out blank and send to Pattern Department of this newspaper.

Sensational Sale OF Women's Spring Oxfords

We have been so fortunate as to secure from a prominent Eastern manufacturer at a very close cash figure 978 pairs of new Spring styles of women's Oxfords.

The lot is composed of the daintiest and most beautiful of the latest styles of ankle and instep one and two-eyelet pumps in Suedes, Cravenettes, Dull Leathers and Dressy Patents, also white satin and white canvas pumps.

They are regular $3.50 and $4.00 values. We are going to share this boon with you and for Friday, Saturday and Monday only they will sell for

$2.95

The Bootery

32 Whitehall Street

EXPLORER PEARY QUITS THE SOUTH FOR THE SOUTH DETAILS OF BIG ORDERS GIVEN BY PRESIDENT FINLEY.

Dates Canceled Because of Attack Made by Gov. Brown.

New York, March 17.—Commander Robert E. Peary has cut short his lecture tour in the south. The refusal of Governor Brown, of Georgia, to introduce him to an Atlanta audience last night, his reference to the commander in an interview as a "fakir" and the small crowd that attended the lecture brought forth an announcement from The Civic Forum in New York tonight, under whose auspices Peary is lecturing, that his plans have been changed.

The announcement says: "The Civic Forum Lecture Bureau has found it advisable to cancel all of Commander Peary's southern lecture dates, owing to the desire on their part to avoid any evidence of coldness toward Commander Peary."

"The Civic Forum Lecture Bureau, whose object is educational, refuses to allow Commander Peary to be subjected to the liability of a gratuitous insult, such as was given in Atlanta by Governor Brown, of Georgia."

This affects the lecture at Meridian, Miss., and Birmingham, Ala., only. The one in Des Moines, Iowa, and the western dates, Marion, Ind., and Chicago, will be given, as scheduled.

PRIMARY IS HELD IN MITCHELL COUNTY

Number of County Officers Are Re-elected—1,415 Votes Polled.

Camilla, Ga., March 17.—(Special.)—As the result of yesterday's primary for Mitchell county, the following officers were elected: Clerk of superior court, J. L. Green (re-elected); sheriff, D. Crow (re-elected); coroner, C. Jones (re-elected); D. W. Fair (re-elected); treasurer, C. L. Taylor (re-elected); surveyor, W. L. Smith; coroner, E. P. Lastinger.

The election was very quiet. Out of a registered vote of 2,300 there were 1,415 votes polled.

Lower Freight Rates Asked.

Kansas City, Mo., March 17.—Merchants and jobbers from Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas, representing two hundred cities and towns, appeared before Judge Charles A. Prouty, of the interstate commerce commission, here today to argue for their petition for a decrease in freight rates, based on the Gulf water rates from New York by way of Galveston.

Challenges Three Men to Duel.

Berlin, March 17.—Herr von Oldenberg, conservative agrarian, in the reichstag, issued today what is virtually a challenge to a duel to three progressives. During a bitter debate von Oldenberg shouted: "Rudeness calls forth rudeness. I am at the disposal of Mueller, Meiningen and Hausman at any time."

Thrown From Wagon.

Dawson, Ga., March 17.—(Special.)—William Weston, a young farmer living near Bronwood, was thrown this morning from a loaded wagon on Lee street. His mule became frightened at an approaching bicycle and ran away, the wagon striking a telephone post. Weston was picked up unconscious and carried to the offices of Drs. Harris and Gardner, where medical aid was rendered. No bones were broken, but he received severe internal injuries.

Prevent Drinking on Trains.

Frankfort, Ky., March 17.—Governor Willson today signed the bill to prevent the drinking of liquors on passenger trains. He vetoed three bills which provided for a telephone debate in the administration of the county courts.

Vetoes Anti-Shipping Bill.
Frankfort, Ky., March 17.—Governor Willson tonight vetoed the Atkin bill prohibiting waiters and porters in hotels and restaurants accepting tips.

MORE EQUIPMENT FOR THE SOUTHERN DETAILS OF BIG ORDERS GIVEN BY PRESIDENT FINLEY.

Washington, March 17.—President Finley, of the Southern Railway Company, made an announcement today of the details of important orders for equipment and steel rails to be given by that company and of other important improvements to be undertaken by it and by the Mobile and Ohio Railroad Company.

The Southern Railway Company is in the market for 75 new locomotives, including passenger, freight, and switching engines. The freight engines include two of the Mallet articulated compound type. This type of engine may be described as two locomotives combined in one. Those to be bought by the Southern Railway Company will weigh, in working order and including tenders, 52,000 pounds each, and will be used for heavy freight service. The company is also in the market for 3,000 all-steel coal cars of 100,000 pounds capacity, 500 all-steel coal cars of 100,000 pounds capacity, 150 steel underframe stock cars of 50,000 pounds capacity, and 10 steel underframe combination passenger and baggage cars. These passenger train cars are in addition to 115 passenger train cars recently ordered and which have nearly all been delivered.

The company is now building for itself, at its Lorain Car Works, 1,000 steel underframe ventilated box cars and 200 steel underframe stock cars. It is also building at these works 205 steel underframe box cars for the Georgia Southern and Florida Railway Company. Upon the completion of this work, about the first of August, it will commence the construction, for the Southern Railway, of 1,000 additional steel underframe ventilated box cars of 50,000 pounds capacity. The Lorain Car Works are also making car wheels at the rate of 120 per day, and this production is to be steadily increased to 300 per day, the full capacity of the plant.

Orders are to be placed for 45,000 tons of steel rail, of which 35,000 tons will be for the Southern Railway proper, and the remainder for the Georgia Southern and Florida, the Virginia and Great Northern, the Mobile and Ohio, the Alabama Great Southern, and the Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific Railways. The larger part of this rail will be ordered from the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company. The company is about to begin the erection of a freight transfer station at the Inman freight yards, at Atlanta.

Asks Judge to Dismiss Jury.

Nashville, Tenn., March 17.—A delegation of forty women from the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of this city called on Criminal Judge W. M. Hart this morning and requested him to dismiss the present grand jury and select men who four enforce the four-mile liquor law. Judge Hart said the present term of court is nearly over, but that he would use extraordinary care to secure men who will do their duty next time.

Sore Eyes in Schools.

Macon, Ga., March 17.—(Special.)—At a special meeting of the board of education last night plans were made to take up with the principals of all the schools the movement to assuage the prevalent sore eyes among the pupils. Many complaints have been made and it is said that many more children are suffering than have heretofore experienced trouble from this malady.

Has Issued his deft against "King Winter" spring is here, and we're all "kicking the blankets off" "cause we don't need 'em, but the Blankets need cleaning and renovating, and we are the very folks who can do this work to the "queen's taste," which refers to the Queen of every household in Atlanta and her sister cities.

The Weather Man

And—"our charges are but a trifle."

TRIO Laundry Company ATLANTA

THOMSON'S "GLOVE-FITTING" CORSETS

Nature's Gift from the Sunny South

COTTOLENE

Shortens your food--Lengthens your life

Cottolene is a wholesome product. It is made from Cotton Seed Oil in a thoroughly modern and hygienic manner, and is just as pure as olive oil. It is a clean product because its source is clean. From Cottonfield to Kitchen—human hands never touch the oil from which Cottolene is made.

Cottolene makes a palatable, digestible, healthful food, which will agree with the most delicate stomach. Lard food, on the contrary, is indigestible, and will cause trouble sooner or later.

Cottolene is a product of nature. Warmed into life by the Sun on Southern Cotton Fields, nurtured by rain and dew, the cotton plant finally concentrates in its seed that life-giving and life-sustaining quality which is the basis of Cottolene.

There is no substitute for Cottolene, because there is no other shortening so good.

COTTOLENE is Guaranteed Your grocer is hereby authorized to refund your money in case you are not pleased, after having given Cottolene a fair test.

Never Sold in Bulk Cottolene is packed in pails with an air-tight top to keep it clean, fresh and wholesome, and prevent it from catching dust and absorbing disagreeable odors, such as fish, oil, etc.

Made only by THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY

SITE WHICH FIGURED IN BIG DEAL

Prior building at the corner of Peachtree street and Auburn avenue which has been leased by Atlanta syndicate for 99 years at rental of $1,000,000. A $200,000 building will be erected on the site.

THERE WAS NO "OULD SOD" LEFT FOR PRESIDENT TAFT

Chicago, March 17.—The true inwardness of why President Taft did not stand on a piece of the "ould sod" at the St. Patrick's banquet tonight is something of a mystery. In any event, the sod for the most part had disappeared, carried away during last night, it is alleged by souvenir hunters. The sod was imported in order that the president might address Irish-Americans from the real soil of the Emerald Isle. Upon its arrival in Chicago it was stored in a room at the La Salle hotel, where the banquet was held tonight.

Ever since its arrival crowds of Irish men and women have visited the hotel and cried at the sight of this tangible bit of their fatherland. These people, in some cases, undoubtedly carried away small pieces of the "ould sod" back to Washington.

BITTER ATTACK MADE ON SENATOR ALDRE

Conger Says Aldre Did What He Was Paid to Do.

Albany, N. Y., March 17.—Another virulent attack by Senator Conger upon Senator Aldre marked the closing hours of the senate bribery investigation this afternoon. The legislator from Groton showed that his spirit was unbroken by the tension of the past six weeks when his counsel recalled him as a witness and questioned him about the letter he wrote to Aldre in May, 1901, shortly after Conger alleged Aldre "held up" the bridge companies for a $1,000 bribe.

On the face of it this letter expresses the most friendly relations between the writer and the man he accuses and concludes with apparent affectionate tribute:

"I know we can rely upon Joe" (Aldre).

When Conger was asked what he meant by this phrase, he replied scornfully:

"He (Aldre) did what he was paid to do."

"I knew he was going to be in the legislature," explained Conger, "and I was not, and I wanted to keep his good will. I feared he might do the same thing again."

When Aldre's attorney, Lewis E. Carr, asked him:

"Did you have in mind the promotion of other private interests than the bridge interests?"

Conger replied quickly: "That's hard to say. You never knew what they were going to prey upon."

Charges Against Reese.

Montgomery, Ala., March 17.—(Special.)—J. P. Fishman, agent of the department of justice, who is here to investigate charges against W. S. Reese, recently appointed district attorney, says everybody will be given a square deal. He would not discuss what he had discovered, if anything at all.

BOYS' CORN CLUB IS ORGANIZED

Enthusiastic Agricultural Meeting Held at Jefferson Yesterday.

Jefferson, Ga., March 17.—(Special.)—An agricultural rally was held here today, and more than 300 school children and teachers were present.

An address was made by R. F. Blackwell, of Hall county, on work being done by the members of the Corn Club in his district.

Dr. Hardeman, of Commerce, gave an interesting lecture on the diseases of the different crops. Thomas A. Early, who is connected with the School of Extension, of the State College of Agriculture, and special agent for the farmers' cooperative demonstration work, was present and gave account of the Boys' Corn Club work done in different states.

There were over 100 boys to enter the Corn Club after his talk. This section is greatly interested in the movement.

THEATERS

Marie Cahill.

The attraction at the Grand tonight and tomorrow, matinee and night will be Marie Cahill, who will be seen in her newest musical success, "The Boys and Betty," with which she played a most successful season in New York last winter at Wallack's Theater. Miss Cahill has not been seen here for several seasons, although she has always been a favorite and has many local admirers.

"The Boys and Betty," which has been declared to be the best musical play which the comedienne has ever had, is an adaptation from a French farce called "La Poupée," made by George V. Hobart, who provided the book and lyrics, with music by Silvio Hein, both of these gentlemen having before collaborated for Miss Cahill.

When "The Boys and Betty" was first given in New York the critics universally praised it as being the one sane and consistent musical play to have been presented on Broadway for many seasons, and this too, without one dissenting opinion.

At the Orpheum.

Brindamour, the handcuff king, in his startling escapes from shackles, handcuffs and prison cells, is proving the sensation of the season at the Orpheum. He changes his act at each performance, getting out of a strait-jacket, out of a steel-riveted barrel full of water, out of a packing case, out of a showcase and other things which are apparently securely handcuffed and shackled. His act is mystifying and wonderful. He is head-lining a splendid bill. Next week the Tuscany Troubadours, said to be the most delightful singing act in vaudeville, is featured.

At the Lyric.

Ray Raymond, the original "Candy Kid," who is starring in "The Girl From the U. S. A.," at the Lyric this week, has an infectious laugh that reaches out across the footlights and wins his audiences from his first appearance on the stage until his last exit. He is a capable actor, an irresistible comedian, a singer of merit and one of the most wonderful dancers on the stage. "The Girl From the U. S. A." is pleasing large crowds at the Lyric this week.

Prepare for Memorial Day.

Barnesville, Ga., March 17.—(Special.)—The Daughters of the Confederacy of Barnesville, are making preparations for observing memorial day on Tuesday, April 26. Dr. Charles O. Jones, of Griffin, is to make the principal address of the day, which will be delivered in the afternoon in the auditorium of Gordon Institute.

Baggage for New Orleans.

Montgomery, Ala., March 17.—(Special.)—W. P. Hines, general baggage agent of the Louisville and Nashville, is in the city to arrange for handling the baggage to the Shriners' meeting April 10 to 14, in New Orleans, and the Confederate reunion, April 16 to 18, in Mobile. Mr. Hines says the Louisville and Nashville will handle about three-fourths of the travel to both the meetings.

Waters-Pierce to Make Appeal.

Little Rock, Ark., March 17.—Counsel for the Waters-Pierce Oil Company declared today an appeal would be made to the state supreme court in the case decided against them yesterday, involving the right of a county to tax open accounts and notes of foreign corporations. In the event of an adverse decision in that tribunal, the company will take the case to the United States supreme court.

Unfortunately Not.

(From The Baltimore American.)

"Pop, was Eve Adam's spare rib?"

"No, my son. It would have been far better for him if he had spared her."

I. H. SAWYER, OF ST. LOUIS, SPENDS DAY IN ATLANTA

Leader in Advertising Field Is Making a Tour of the South.

I. H. Sawyer, of St. Louis, advertising manager of the Brown Shoe Company of that city, spent yesterday in Atlanta. Mr. Sawyer is one of the best known advertising men in this country and is connected with several publicity associations. He met a number of the leading advertising men of Atlanta and discussed in a most interesting manner the methods employed by his company in advertising the Brown shoes.

I. H. SAWYER, Prominent Advertising Man Who Is Visiting in Atlanta.

Mr. Sawyer is president of the Western Association of Shoe Wholesalers, is president of the St. Louis Ad Men's League and is chairman of the executive committee of the Associated Advertising Clubs of America.

He is making a tour of the principal cities in the southeastern territory, and from Atlanta four times a week, and thence to Jacksonville.

Goes Sadly to Prison.

Montgomery, Ala., March 17.—(Special.)—Silently and without notice of his surroundings, Harry Smith, burglar, found a few weeks ago under a bed in the home of Wiley C. Hill, of this city, was taken away to Flat Top mines Wednesday to begin fifteen months' service for the state. Smith had become popular at the jail and his taking away caused much sadness. He is a fine specimen of manhood and will make a valuable man to the state.

A REMARKABLE CATARRH CURE.

Eclipse Catarrh Cure Has Brought Instant Relief to Many Chronic Sufferers.

"A book of wonderful testimonials has recently been issued which clearly proves that the Eclipse Catarrh Cure is proving to be the most effective remedy yet discovered for that offensive disease from which so many suffer."

Eclipse Catarrh Cure is a vegetable preparation that is especially pleasing in its curative effects upon the delicate membranes lining the air passages, and seems to give permanent relief in the most stubborn cases of catarrh, no matter how long you have suffered with it.

R. A. Wear, Ocala, Fla., writes: "I was afflicted with Catarrh of the Larynx for several years. I have used the Eclipse Catarrh Cure, and I feel so much benefited that I shall continue the treatment as long as may be necessary."

In order that every one suffering with Catarrh may have an opportunity of testing to their entire satisfaction the real merits of Eclipse Catarrh Cure, we offer a week's treatment for 25 cents in stamps.

The regular package of $1.00 also will be sent to any address upon receipt of price. Send in your order today.

ECLIPSE MEDICINE AND MANUFACTURING CO., Atlanta, Ga.

SIXTEEN INDICTED FOR BUTTER FRAUDS

Score of Louisville People Testify They Have Been Duped by Peddlers.

Louisville, Ky., March 17.—That there has been in the high prices of butter prevailing during the last several months a strong inducement toward fraud, and that through it Louisville households have been cheated of hundreds of dollars, was indicated by the action of the federal grand jury here yesterday. Sixteen indictments containing 908 counts for alleged violation of oleomargarine laws were returned. Last night three arrests were made, and others are expected today.

A score or more of women as witnesses testified that they had been duped by vendors, who sold oleomargarine for butter, the peddlers attired in clothes to give the impression that they were farmers.

STATE-WIDE STRIKE TO BE CALLED MONDAY

Philadelphia Labor Leaders to Take Heroic Move.

Philadelphia, March 17.—Nothing definite having been accomplished by the conferences today toward a settlement of the street carmen's strike, the committee of ten announced tonight that E. E. Greenawald, president of the State Federation of Labor, would call the state-wide strike on Monday next. The labor leaders announced that they have already received assurances of cooperation from Pittsburgh, Erie, Scranton, Wilkesbarre, and other points.

PLATE GLASS COMPANY WILL ESTABLISH PLANT

The Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company will soon establish in Atlanta the largest plate glass plant in the south. Plans are still in an indefinite state, but it is certain that a large building, containing approximately 100,000 square feet of floor space, will either be built or leased, wherein 350 skilled workmen will be employed in the manufacture of bevel glass and mirrors.

The Pittsburgh company, the largest concern of its kind in the world, has twelve large factories, some of them costing as much as $2,000,000. Although the Atlanta plant will be small in comparison, its presence will mean a big addition to the earnings of this city.

TO USE 500 ACRES FOR ARMY MANEUVERS

Land Adjoining Ft. Oglethorpe Will Be Converted Into a Camp.

Chattanooga, Tenn., March 17.—The United States government will use 500 acres of land adjoining Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., as a camping site for troops to participate in the July army maneuvers. The sites formerly used for camps will be used as parade grounds.

Judge Meadow Won't Resign.

Elberton, Ga., March 17.—(Special.)—It was rumored here that Judge Meadow would resign to accept a position as general counsel for a large Georgia insurance company. When asked regarding the rumor, the judge stated there was no truth in it; he has no intention of resigning.

No Damage to Peaches.

Barnesville, Ga., March 17.—(Special.)—V. O. Marshburn, after an inspection today of his large peach farm, says there was no damage to the peach crop of his vicinity from the cold snap this week. The brisk winds of the past few days thoroughly drying the blossoms saved the crops. According to Mr. Marshburn there was little or no damage to fruit or vegetables here.

PAUL REESE SUCCEEDS BERNARD C. BROYLES

Appointed Manager of Whitehead & Hoag Co.'s Atlanta Office.

The Whitehead & Hoag Company, of Newark, N. J., manufacturers of advertising novelties, has announced the

COMMANDER PEARY SPEAKS AT NASHVILLE

Introduced by Gov. Patterson. His Reception Exceptionally Enthusiastic.

Nashville, Tenn., March 17.—Commander Peary lectured here tonight to an audience of some 1,500 people. His reception was exceptionally enthusiastic and he seemed especially pleased. Governor Patterson introduced the explorer and on the stage with him was a distinguished company, including all the members of the Tennessee supreme court.

To Name Date for Primary.

Swainsboro, Ga., March 17.—(Special.)—Colonel A. S. Bradley, chairman of the county democratic executive committee, has issued a call for a meeting of the county executive committee in Swainsboro, on March 29. The purpose of the meeting is to select for the ensuing year a new executive committee and to name date for the primary.

Young Woman Kills Self.

Memphis, Tenn., March 17.—Miss Fannie Bolton, member of a prominent family of this county, committed suicide yesterday by slitting her throat and wrists with a razor. Her health is given as the cause for the act.

Colonel Sam Tribble Speaks.

Elberton, Ga., March 17.—(Special.)—At the noon recess today of the Elberton superior court, a large crowd heard Colonel Sam Tribble, of Athens, candidate for congress against Hon. W. M. Howard, deliver a campaign speech.

The most wonderful sound-reproducing instrument of the cabinet type, combining the highest results of musical genius with a masterpiece of cabinet work—

The Amberola

The newest Edison Phonograph

The Amberola is beautifully simple in outline, exquisitely designed and comes in either mahogany or oak, to harmonize with surroundings in any home. It has drawers in the lower part for holding 100 records.

It plays both Edison Standard and Amberol Records

This is the Amberola's biggest advantage over all other instruments of the cabinet type—because Amberol Records play longer than any other Records made, rendering the best of all kinds of music as it is meant to be played, without hurrying or omitting important parts. But the Amberola gives you much of the best music that you cannot get in any other sound reproducing instrument of the cabinet type. The price is $200. Other types of Edison Phonographs, $12.50 to $125.

Leo Slezak now sings for the Edison

The greatest living lyric tenor, Leo Slezak, has made ten new Grand Opera Amberol Records for the Edison Phonograph. These Records include the great arias from Verdi's Otello, together with arias from other Italian Grand Operas. Slezak sings these Italian Grand Operas exclusively for the Edison Phonograph. Hear these new Slezak Records at your dealer's and be sure to see and hear the Amberola.

Edison Grand Opera Records 75c and $1.50
Edison Standard Records 50c
Edison Amberol Records (play twice as long) 25c

National Phonograph Co., 75 Lakeside Ave., Orange, N. J.

Edison March Records

FOR SALE, WHOLESALE AND RETAIL, BY

Phillips & Crew Company

37-39 PEACHTREE STREET

Edison Phonographs $12.50 Upward

Wouldn't you like to see the "innards" of your Shoes?

You couldn't spend an hour more profitably than by a visit to the Red Seal Shoe Factory, at Edgewood avenue and Jackson street.

You'll probably be surprised, too, to see what high-grade Shoes we are making in Atlanta.

The $5 "Yours Truly" Shoe stands in the first rank, the "King Bee" is a gentleman's Shoe, and the "Easy Street" a quality you'll be proud to stand in.

Ask your dealer for them—made by J. K. Orr Shoe Co., Atlanta.

Look for our name in a Red Seal on the box.

WANT TO PURCHASE

A good second-hand single surrey; two-seated, rubber tire, with harness. Must be in first-class condition.

Address Reply to P. O. Box No. 900, City

SUMTER COUNTY HOLDS ELECTION

Twelve Hundred Votes Were Cast in the Primary Yesterday.

Americus, Ga., March 17.—(Special.)—Twelve hundred votes, approximately, were polled in the primary today for county officers, and while the figures officially will not be known until the vote is consolidated tomorrow the result is forecasted as follows:

Sheriff Fagan, Court Clerk Allen and Tax Collector Small re-elected without opposition; Treasurer P. H. Williams is re-elected by large plurality. The election of Tax Receiver is still undetermined.

No Open Break Yet.

Cincinnati, Ohio, March 17.—The situation is extremely tense, but there has been no open break as yet between the miners and operators. This is in substance the statement of figures of leading representatives of both the miners and the operators in the central competitive field, who have been meeting here for nine days past.

Templars Inspected.

Jackson, Ga., March 17.—(Special.)—Grand Treasurer M. A. Wells, of Macon, acting for the grand inspector, inspected Alexius Commandery No. 32, Knights Templar, last night. The commandery, though one of the youngest in the state, is one of the best; it has forty-nine members and has added ten members since the last inspection.

Mrs. Florence Atkins Speaks.

Barnesville, Ga., March 17.—(Special.)—Mrs. Florence E. Atkins, of Nashville, Tenn., the national organizer and lecturer of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, will make address in Barnesville Sunday next, at the Methodist church in the afternoon and at the Baptist church in the evening at the invitation of the Barnesville Union.

Killed by Stepfather.

Bluefield, W. Va., March 17.—Amy Lilly, who was shot by her stepfather, Dick Smead, at Glatton, Wednesday night, died last night. Reports from Princeton jail, where Smead is being held, state that he is mentally deranged.

Miller's Mind a Blank.

Walla Walla, Wash., March 17.—James Joy Miller, of the Michigan university football team, who disappeared from his home in Michigan shortly after he was dismissed from college, has been working on the Blalock fruit farm, three miles from this city, it was announced today. His friends say his mind is a blank.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed bids will be received at the office of the chairman of the Board of Education of the city of Bremen, Georgia, at Bremen, Georgia, up to 12 o'clock noon, on the 1st day of April, 1910, and then and there opened for the furnishing of all materials and labor for the erection of a Public School Building at Bremen, Georgia, in accordance with the plans and specifications prepared and furnished by Charles W. Carlton, architect, of Anniston, Ala.

All bids must be accompanied with a certified check for $25.00, payable to W. H. Williamson, Chairman Board Education.

Plans and specifications may be seen at the office of chairman at Bremen, or at the office of the architect at Anniston, Alabama.

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

W. H. WILLIAMSON, Ch'm Board Education.

MANY SUITS ON CALENDAR

But Only One Prisoner in the County Jail at Perry.

Perry, Ga., March 17.—(Special.)—There have been filed 25 suits to the April term of superior court, Tuesday, the 15th inst., was return day for the term and all suits were in by Tuesday night.

There were only three suits filed for damages sustained in the wreck on the Georgia Southern and Florida railroad near Bonifire several weeks ago, and one of these was settled in ten days from filing of suit.

Clerk Hardison has issued 185 subpoenas for witnesses before the grand jury.

There are several warrants for murder and voluntary manslaughter.

There is one prisoner in jail charged with the murder of D. C. Clements. True bill found by grand jury in October, 1908, and the prisoner arrested just before Christmas of last year.

We Will Prove This Fact

by the evidence of your own eyes.

THE SYSTEM

Clothes

represent the newest—the better—the first original idea in clothes construction.

Any good merchant is glad to show them to you.

H. M. Lindenthal & Sons

Style Originators

Chicago
New York
Boston

Dartmouth

Phone 109
BELL OR STANDARD

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING GETS RESULTS

Will charge them if your name is in either phone book
10c Per Line

WANTS NEVER leave you in doubt about results.
Ten Cents per line for each insertion. Six average words make one line.
No ad taken for less than the price of three lines.
Three consecutive insertions, 85 cents per line; 7 times, 75c; 30 times, 65c; 90 times, 5c.

If your name appears in either phone book, call us over

Special Notice

No advertisement will be discontinued on phone orders. Kindly notify this office in writing when you wish to stop your ad.

This Phone is used exclusively for Want Ads and you are guaranteed prompt, polite and efficient service.

109

WANTED

WANTED—MALE HELP.
WANTED—Young man record clerk and stenographer, Bellamy Business Agency, 1330 Candler Bldg.

TWO YOUNG MEN stenographers, Bellamy Business Agency, 1330 Candler Bldg.

WANTED—An experienced leather belt maker. Apply 92 South Forsyth street.

DR. S. W. ARROWOOD, 62 McDaniel street, gives free treatment, free examination. Permanent cures for dropsy, tumors, cancers.

WANTED—Young man as cashier. Give reference and experience. Jacobs Pharmacy.

STOP at Hillburn Hotel, heart of city, 104 Walton street. If you want a clean, quiet room. Transient 50c. Open all night.

FREE DENTAL WORK—South Eastern Dental College, No. 174 1/2 Whitehall st., daily 9 till 12 o'clock. Competent demonstrator in charge.

DR. S. W. ARROWOOD, 62 McDaniel street, guarantees a cure for nervous indigestion, rheumatism, diseases of the blood, lungs, liver, and rheumatism.

WANTED—Office boy with wheel. Atlanta Rubber Stamp and Stencil Works, 39 Luckie street.

WANTED—Registered drug clerk; must have experience and good credentials. Permanent position. The Bette Pharmacy, Jacksonville, Fla.

NIGHT CLASS shorthand, Southern Shorthand and Business University, taught by C. A. Briscoe in person. 75 South Forsyth.

STENOGRAPHER, 35; bookkeeper, 30; two collectors, 30-35; filling clerk, 30; insurance collector, 30. Register with us for a good position. Acme Business Agency, 819 Centre.

LEARN SALESMANSHIP, earn $1,000 to $5,000 per year; we furnish students positions where they can earn $100 per month while studying. Practical School of Salesmanship, New Haven, Conn.

MEN WANTED QUICKLY by big Chicago mail order house to distribute catalogues, advertise, 321 weekly; $50 expense allowance. Manager, 1222 State street, Chicago.

WANTED—Experienced bookkeeper; must be willing to leave city; good chance for advancement; no attention unless references and salary expected are given in application. Knorr, Knorr, care Constitution.

$5 PAID for each name sent us of young people who expect to attend a business college. Write at once for particulars to the Southern Shorthand and Business University, Atlanta, Ga.

PROF. G. O. BRANNING teaches the barber trade; only college in U. S. with barber shops and boarding house in connection; $30 for course. Tools and steady position at good wages. Atlanta Barber College, 10 E. Mitchell.

WANTED—Young men, white and colored, to prepare as electric motor-men, conductors, firemen, brakemen, sleeping car and train porters. Enclose stamp for application blank. Give your color. I. Railway C. I., No. 24, Indianapolis, Ind.

WANTED—Young men to prepare for next railway mail exam. Write for office examinations; $500 to $1,500 yearly. Steady work. Preparation free. Write immediately for examination schedule. Franklin Institute, Department 42-M, Rochester, N. Y.

WANTED—First-class architectural draughtsman; permanent employment at $35 per week to right man. Write Farrot & Livaudais, 201 Orleans, La., giving age, experience, references and time can report.

WANTED—FEMALE HELP.
WANTED—A good cook. 65 East Fourteenth street.

WANTED—A good collector; must be well acquainted in city. A liberal proposition to right party. Forbes Cleaning Co., 51 N. Forsyth street. Atlanta phone 4918.

WANTED—Experienced coat and skirt hands. Apply at once. Attention room, suit department. Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBois Co.

OVER 500 ladies are making $15 to $30 per week representing me in their home towns. You do as well or better. Write for samples and free sample case offer. Mrs. J. C. Carr, 16 Fourth st., Grand Rapids, Mich.

ONE OR TWO live, energetic solicitors. Good education and strong personality required. Large field and splendid pay. Good future for right party. Write Box 41, care Constitution.

WANTED ROOMS—UNFURNISHED.
A COUPLE with infant desires 3 or 4 unfurnished rooms in house occupied by other party, with all kitchen arrangements; north side preferred. Address Box 418, care Constitution.

FOR RENT—STORES.
STORE, 5-room dwelling attached; all new; splendid stand. West End. $30 month. 248 Oglethorpe ave. Phone West 149.

HAIRDRESSING.
HAIRDRESSING, 10c. Save your combing for a switch. We make them. 1150 Jowers School, 43 1/2 Whitehall st.

AUCTION SALES.
CENTRAL AUCTION CO., 12 East Mitchell, buys and sells everything. Regular auction Tuesday and Friday. Bell phone Main 2424.

IF YOU WANT an up-to-date auctioneer, write C. L. Lewkowitz, 29 W. Mitchell street, Atlanta. Sales made anywhere.

WANTED—SALESMEN.
CIGAR SALESMAN WANTED—Experience unnecessary. Big pay. Globe Cigar Co., Cleveland, Ohio.

CIGAR SALESMAN—In your locality. Experience unnecessary; good pay. Write for particulars. Monarch Cigar Co., St. Louis, Mo.

TRAVELING SALESMEN—To carry on commission 6 samples of men's first grade solid leather work shoes made to retail at $2.50 and $3.00. State experience and references. Address $2.50 and $3.00 Shoe Factory, Baltimore, Md.

WANTED—Experienced salesman for Brown & Bigelow's calendars in Florida and southern Georgia; salary and commission. Write with references. J. M. Sanders, Piedmont Hotel.

WANTED—AGENTS.
OUR LIVE specialty will net you a profit of over $5 a day. Write us for our proposition. E. C. Kimball Co., Catonsville, Md., 104 Newburg ave.

AGENTS wanted to introduce article which helps reduce household expenses. Write today. Smith Supply Company 158 Wentworth st., Charleston, S. C.

CUSTOMERS send you repeat orders on our new necessities. Start with us. Liberal commissions. Marston Boulding and Norange Co., 2518 N. Marston st., Philadelphia, Pa.

WANTED—BOARDERS.
COUPLE OR TWO gentlemen to room and board in private family on Hurt street. Inman Park. Ivy 2241-L.

NICE ROOMS, all conveniences; close in; good table board. 123 South Pryor st. Atlanta phone 5129.

NICE ROOM and board, one room with private bath; gentlemen or couple 16 and 20 E. Baker.

LARGE, nicely furnished front room, with good board, to couple for $50 per month. 444 Spring street.

SINGLE ROOM for gentleman, out in choice north side location; every thing clean and new home cooking. 494 Spring street, cor. Third.

LARGE front room, all conveniences, in private home. Currier street near Peachtree. Breakfast and 6 o'clock dinner if desired. Ivy 248-L.

ELEGANT large rooms, high-class board; couples or gentlemen wanted; also some table boarders wanted. 279 Peachtree street.

LOST AND FOUND
SHRINER pin on Whitehall or Peachtree. Phone Ivy 1563-J.

LOST—Either in Kutz's or between Kutz's and Nunnally's, on Peachtree, white cigarette. Call Atlanta phone 4536. Reward.

LOST—One twenty-dollar bill between Hastings seed store and 81 Trinity avenue. Return to Benjamin's Pharmacy and receive reward.

FOUND—W. M. Cox, 145 Auburn avenue, will dry clean all kinds of rugs and carpets. Phone Ivy 3136-J. Atlanta phone 3123.

BARGE BARNARD, from New York, lost black pocketbook with Masonic traveling cards. Will pay liberal reward for its return to Terminal Hotel.

BRAND-NEW, well-known, highest grade automobile at big sacrifice. Address J. H. care Constitution.

FOR SALE—White steamer, 1909 model, five-passenger touring, with top, and shield, speedometer, tire iron, Freest-O-Like tank, five lamps, tools. Run 4,700 miles; has used but one set of tires; engine and gears just been thoroughly overhauled at factory and car repainted. Looks and runs like new. Will sell for $1,200. Need small car. Write and arrange for demonstration in your town. Dr. O. H. Johnson, Athens, Ga.

FOR SALE—MISCELLANEOUS.
ONE 800-pound refrigerator, Shannon make. M. 535 Empire.

BARGAINS in new and practically new second-hand soda fountains; easy terms. P. O. Box 1023, Atlanta, Ga.

STOCK guaranteed to pay 15 per cent secured by mortgage on real estate. Write D. M. care Constitution.

FIFTEEN fresh milk cows with calves at Miller Union Stock Yards. A. L. Suttles & Co.

ENTIRE furnishings of five-room apartment at sacrifice if sold immediately. 562 Whitehall st., Apartment C. Bell phone W. 407-L.

$225.00 DIAMOND—Horse shoe scarf pin; weight, 2 carats; platinum mounting; regular price $1,500.00. D. A. Tobias, Inc., 5 East Alabama street.

LOWEST PRICES on furniture, rugs and art squares at Robison's, 37 East Hunter street. Bell phone Main 1131.

THE BEST COOKING COAL in ATLANTA is at 44 PERRY ST. KELLEY FUEL COMPANY, COAL OF QUALITY.

BECHT PIANOS SUCCESSFULLY sold by us for the past 30 years. Becht Piano Co., 78 North Pryor st. Bell phone 3512 Main.

CAN SAVE YOU MONEY.
BEFORE buying furniture, rugs and art squares, see J. C. Mason, 54 West Mitchell street.

WILL SELL for $125 cash, complete set of U. S. Reports (official edition). Robert Lee Avery, executor estate of Howard Van Epps.

We rent good pianos, $5 per month up. Becht Piano Co., 78 North Pryor. Phone 2612.

BEAUTIFUL ONYX soda fountain; contains 15 porcelain strip jars; used only four months; cost $1,250; will sell for $500 cash. Gann & Garraux, 384 Marietta street.

ONE second-hand Skinner & Wood double engine, size 8 1/2, 45-horse power; fly wheel 5 feet diameter; 10-inch face; 135 revolutions. Address Constitution.

LUMBER—No. 1 heart pine shingles at $4.10 per 1,000. Framing, flooring and hardware. Also a planer, cut-off saw and 20-hp. Wagner motor for sale. Atlanta Variety Works, 92 Humphries street. Phone West 353-L.

FOR SALE—Victor Manganese Steel Screw Door Bank Safes and a complete line of fireproof safes manufactured by us in Atlanta. Expert safe opening and repairing. Howard Safe Vault Co., 91 N. Pryor st., Atlanta, Ga.

FOR RENT—ROOMS.
FURNISHED.
ONE furnished room, 18 Castleberry street. Phone 3478, Atlanta.

TWO newly-furnished rooms and bath; all conveniences. 169 Peachtree st. Phone Main 753.

FOR RENT—Furnished bed rooms and light housekeeping rooms. 74 Luckie street. Bell phone Ivy 3331-L.

FOR RENT—To young men elegantly furnished rooms; steam heat, electric lights, hot and cold baths. 174 Oglethorpe avenue. Bell phone West 774.

THREE rooms on second floor, furnished or unfurnished, for light housekeeping; bath on same floor. 43 E. Ellis.

DELIGHTFUL, steam-heated, front room, private home, north side; bath, electricity; meals close by. Phone Ivy 1294-J.

HANDSOMELY furnished, large, steam-heated front room in private family; all modern conveniences. 24-B Carnegie Place, first floor.

THE Gate City Hotel has just been elegantly furnished and opened. It is strictly first-class; beautiful rooms 50c per day or $2.50 per week. 105 1/2 South Forsyth street. Atlanta phone 701.

UNFURNISHED.
FOR RENT—Two rooms, unfurnished, 8 Irene avenue. Call owner. 148 Auburn ave. Atlanta phone 5795.

TWO rooms, unfurnished, suitable for light housekeeping; on car line. Atlanta phone 5417.

FOR RENT—Two rooms, unfurnished; 8 Irene avenue. Call owner. 148 Auburn ave. Atlanta phone 5795.

FOR RENT—Three connecting rooms for housekeeping; near Grant park. Call M. 4122-J. Atlanta 1990.

FOR RENT—Five-room flat, fine bath room, in upper floor of West End home. $25. Bell phone, West 306-J. 213 Ashby street.

FOR RENT—HOUSES.
UNFURNISHED.
CALL for our rent bulletins. McDon Bros. & Lochridge, 14 Auburn avenue.

CALL, write or phone for our rent bulletin. Ralph O. Cochran, 19 S. Broad.

GET our Weekly Rent Bulletin. We move every renting $12 and give FREE. See notice. John J. Woodside, the Renting Agent, 12 Auburn Ave.

FOR RENT—Houses, stores, offices and rooms in any part of the city. Call and we will take you to see anything on our list. M. L. Thowser, renting agent. 39 North Forsyth street.

GET our rent bulletin. We rent everything. Call, write or phone. Second floor Empire Bldg. Both phones, 426.

B. M. GRANT & CO.
FOR RENT—APARTMENTS.
FURNISHED.
FIVE or six-room apartment until June or longer. The Savoy, Apt. A. 11 West Baker. Ivy 3832-L.

3-ROOM and 4-room apartment completely furnished; fine location. Call Ivy 1542-L.

UNFURNISHED.
FOUR-ROOM apartment for rent; light, airy rooms; steam heat; janitor service; three blocks of Candler building. Lease leaving town. Call at Apt. No. 11, 92 East Ellis street.

WANTED—REAL ESTATE.
WANTED—On north side, vacant lot, in good section. Will pay as high as $4,000. Must be good. Also one cheap lot, about $1,250. Ivy 2689, Atlanta 2485. Cheatham Bros. & Veale.

WANTED—On or near Rawson street, good 2-story, 7 or 8-room house, for customer. Wants some terms. Ivy 2687, Atlanta 3487. Cheatham Bros. & Veale.

FOR EXCHANGE.
WILL EXCHANGE 30-horse power automobile for real estate. H. C. Gresham, P. O. Box 321.

WANTED—OFFICE SPACE.
DESIRABLE unfurnished office wanted. Will take unexpired lease or make new lease. Address P. O. Box 274 or telephone 1183 Main.

FOR SALE—FARMS.
INVEST in East Texas land where it will support you in old age. Freeman has it. Lovelady, Texas.

W. A. FOSTER AND RAYMOND ROBSON
REAL ESTATE, RENTING AND LOANS.
12 S. Broad Street, Atlanta, Ga.

A FIRST-CLASS residence on Currier street, between Peachtree and Piedmont avenue; has 19 rooms and every modern convenience. Was built and occupied only by the present owner. The lot is 13,175 feet. This is a good home and in a locality that will go high. Price, $7,000. See Mr. Eve.

ON North Boulevard, near Angier avenue, a frame apartment house renting for $71 per month. The apartment on the first floor has 8 rooms, and the second-floor apartment 7 rooms. This is located on a big east-front lot, real, $7,500. We recommend this as a steady renter. See Mr. Hook.

ON North Boulevard, between Edgewood avenue and Garrett street, an elevated lot, fronting 178 feet, at $40 per front foot. Properly improved, this lot will pay a handsome income. See Mr. Campbell.

CHESTER avenue, nice 8-room, 2-story residence, in first-class condition, all improvements, and near the good old Grant Park. Price, $4,500, and terms. See Mr. Sam J. Winn.

60 ACRES, partly in the town limits of Decatur and near Candler street, on the South Decatur car line. Nearly all covered with nice oak shade. This is a sure money-maker and can be bought for the low price of $250 per acre and reasonable terms can be arranged. See either Mr. Hook or Mr. Eve.

100 FEET on Ponce de Leon avenue, 220 feet deep to alley. Splendid purchase at $60 a foot. Can arrange to cut it in two. Enhancement on Ponce de Leon avenue is continuous and sure. See Mr. Hook.

1 OR 5 Woodson street, has four very large rooms, large porcelain tub, sinks in kitchen, woodwork finished in mahogany, walls nicely tinted, stone foundation, no negroes on the street near Grant Park and two blocks of two car lines. Price, $1,700; $100 cash, $18 monthly. See Mr. Campbell.

N. JACKSON street, first-class 8-room, 2-story residence; all modern conveniences; now occupied by the owner; nicely elevated lot; can make very low price, $6,000. See Mr. Eve.

176 ANGLER—12-room residence, splendid home; 3 porches, 2 halls, 3 bathrooms, 4 toilet facilities, wash stands, combination fixtures, electric lights and gas; ball room, servants' house and stable. Lot 50x150. This is a good one. Price, $5,500; easy terms. See Mr. Campbell.

IVY street, and not a great distance from junction of Peachtree, we have a first-class brick residence; vapor heat, 2 baths, 2 toilets, everything about this home is in perfect condition and it's in a section that is getting better all the time. Quick action now! If you are interested, for we are going to sell. Price, $10,000. See Mr. Hook or Mr. Eve.

WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS.
WANTED—Second-hand furniture, office and household goods. Highest cash price. A. Springer, 25 S. Pryor street. Bell 1536.

CASH paid for all kinds salable school books. Call at store or mail list. Southern Book Concern, 71 Whitehall street. School books for all schools, new and second-hand, at our store.

FOR EXCHANGE.
WILL EXCHANGE 30-horse power automobile for real estate. H. C. Gresham, P. O. Box 321.

WANTED—OFFICE SPACE.
DESIRABLE unfurnished office wanted. Will take unexpired lease or make new lease. Address P. O. Box 274 or telephone 1183 Main.

FOR SALE—FARMS.
INVEST in East Texas land where it will support you in old age. Freeman has it. Lovelady, Texas.

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE.
E. RIVERS REALTY CO., 8 West Alabama Street. Both Phones 1207-8.

$250 CASH AND $35 MONTH.
BUYS 8-ROOM, WEST END HOME—IT'S NEW—No use to tell you where it is located, just make your way to our office and we will show you how easy you can buy this pretty place; on a good street, elevated lot, modern in every way. Make your wife happy by settling the question now.

E. RIVERS REALTY CO.
CURRIER STREET HOME.
WITHIN two blocks of Peachtree street, we have an 8-room, 2-story house in perfect condition; this is very close to center of city, and in splendid home section. Price $5,500; liberal terms.

DE FOOR & LYLE, 211-212 Empire Bldg.
GEO. P. MOORE, No. 9 Auburn Ave.
Real Estate and Renting.

RENTS $2,000.
IN 600 feet of the Candler building, close to Luckie street, improvements, a well-built brick building, 74x100 feet; always rented; can be easily converted into stores at a small cost; building cost $16,000; the lot will bring $400 per front foot. Price $27,500. Can make reasonable terms.

MISCELLANEOUS.
I HERBY make application for near beer license at 271 Piedmont avenue. Charles Weinman.

WILL APPLY for license for near beer at next meeting of council at 511 Marietta street. Grogan & Co.

SOUTHERN PRESS CLIPPING BUREAU, 415 Austell Building, Atlanta, Ga. reads the southern newspapers and can supply press clippings of every conceivable nature. Issues the "Daily Construction Bulletin," which furnishes building news from all the southern states, and is invaluable to architects, contractors and supply dealers.

WANTED—HOUSES.
Landlords, Attention! Place your renting property with us; we get results. Ford & Hall, 18 N. Pryor st., Kimball House.

Isn't It Just Like a Woman? By C. L. SHERMAN.

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE.
M. L. THROWER, 39 N. Forsyth St.
FOR SALE.
NOTICE—Atlanta is growing in every direction. To those who want to make money, read what we have to offer carefully. WE HAVE fifteen acres of land on Southern railroad, near the city; two railroad tracks on property; it also has nine 3 and four 4-room houses, an office and barn; the improvements alone, cost more than we are asking for the entire property; this is an ideal spot for manufacturers. This is a splendid investment, and will be a money-maker. Must be sold at once.

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE.
MADAME DEL REY, the successful psychic palmist, advises you on love, family and business affairs, lawsuits, marriages, change speculations, investments, lost articles, etc. 174 South Pryor, near Fair street.

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE.
CLIFF ANSLEY, HENRY B. SCOTT, ANSLEY & SCOTT, Real Estate, 221 Atlanta National Bank Bldg., Phone Main 5163.

AN UNUSUALLY well-built house on West Peachtree, 19 rooms, 2 baths, hot water heat, gas and electric lights and exceptionally fine fixtures; barn, laundry and two servants' rooms, $12,500.

MODERN home in the choice section of Ponce de Leon avenue, 8 rooms, with steam heat and everything in perfect condition; $10,000.

NEW bungalow in Ansley Park, near car line, 6 rooms and hall, furnace heat, 3 bed rooms and large living rooms; $5,700.

HOW IS THIS FOR A BARGAIN?
$5,250 FOR north side home on nice paved street. Ten-room house on fine large corner lot with plenty of room to build another house. The improvements alone cost over $5,000.

PEACHTREE ROAD ACRES.
IF YOU would like about 3 acres of high, beautiful land about 3 miles from the city, with large frontage, we have it at a bargain.

$7,500 FOR 9-room, 2-story house and two servants' rooms. Furnace heat, all modern conveniences and east front lot. On car line and one of best north side streets. Price reduced from $9,000. Reasonable terms.

ANSLEY PARK LOTS.
TWO for $1,500 each; one for $2,000; one for $2,500; one for $3,000 and a number of others at different prices.

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE.
CLIFF ANSLEY, HENRY B. SCOTT, ANSLEY & SCOTT, Real Estate, 221 Atlanta National Bank Bldg., Phone Main 5163.

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE.
CLIFF ANSLEY, HENRY B. SCOTT, ANSLEY & SCOTT, Real Estate, 221 Atlanta National Bank Bldg., Phone Main 5163.

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE.
CLIFF ANSLEY, HENRY B. SCOTT, ANSLEY & SCOTT, Real Estate, 221 Atlanta National Bank Bldg., Phone Main 5163.

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE.
CLIFF ANSLEY, HENRY B. SCOTT, ANSLEY & SCOTT, Real Estate

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE.

BARGAINS BY
EDWIN P. ANSLEY.

PIEDMONT AVENUE BETWEEN
GILMER AND DECATUR, 33x125
TO AN ALLEY. PRICE, $8,000.

WITHIN 200 FEET OF NEW POST-OFFICE BUILDING AND WITH
IN 150 FEET OF NEW A. & B. A.
BUILDING, WE OFFER A CORNER
100x100 FEET FOR $45,000. GOOD LOCATION TO BUY FOR LARGE GAINS IN NEAR FUTURE.

FIVE-STORY building close in on one of the leading business streets of the city and pays well on the investment.
Price, $37,500; assume mortgage $15,- 000 at five and one-half per cent, balance on reasonable terms. You can not go wrong on this.

J. H. EWING,
Manager Sales Department.
EDWIN P. ANSLEY.
67-71 North Forsyth St.,
Phone: Bell Main 1304, Atlanta 363.

FOR RENT—HOUSES.

FOR RENT!

28 ORANGE ST.—Eight rooms, with all modern conveniences; close in and near school and car lines. Let us show you.

LIEBMAN,

Real Estate and Renting,
17 Walton Street.

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE.

MORRIS & ASBURY,
Real Estate and Loans.

525 Empire Building; Bell, Main 2673; Atlanta, 1118.

TWO MONEY-MAKERS.

$9,000—TWO BRICK STORES on Peters street; we are convinced that they are worth at least $10,000; let us show you, and you will be convinced.
Don't let this opportunity slip by.

$10,000—DECATUR STREET—Do you want to pick up $2,500 in six months or a year? If so, look into this. Absolutely the best bargain on the market today. See us today—don't wait till tomorrow.

EDWARD L. WINN,
REAL ESTATE.

No. 1013 Candler Building.
Phone, Main 401.

$12,500—Peachtree circle home, near Peachtree street; large 10-room, 2-story house; two bath rooms and all modern conveniences; on a large lot, 75 feet front by over 200 feet deep; well elevated. This is one of the best houses in Ansley Park. Is right near Peachtree. The house cost $12,500; lot alone is worth $7,500. Figure this out and see what kind of a bargain you would be getting. Very easy terms.

$1,150—West Peachtree lot, 80x200; level and shady. Owner anxious to sell.
Easy terms.

$2,000—Piedmont avenue lot, overlooking Piedmont Park; east front and well elevated.

148 to 152 CONNALLY STREET, three double 3-room cottages, just completed, and built of the very best of materials, and rented to a high class of colored tenants at $48 per month. $4,250, on very easy terms. There is no better renting property in the entire city than this section.

DANDY 7-ROOM COTTAGE in Inman Park; all modern conveniences; built by day labor, of the very best materials. $5,000; assume $2,500 loan at 6 per cent; balance, $500 cash, and $40 month. There is nothing in the city that will beat this for the price.

B. M. GRANT & CO.,
Real Estate, Renting and Insurance.

Empire Building.

FORD & HALL.

Real Estate, Renting and Fire Insurance
18 N. Pryor St., Kimball House.
Bell Phone 2336; Atlanta Phone 280.

ANSLEY PARK—In very best section we have something nice in an up-to-date 8-room home with every modern convenience you could wish for.
Including heat, on nice large lot. This is one of the sweetest places in the section. We can sell for $24,000 on reasonable terms. If you want an up-to-date home let us show you this one.

W. PEACHTREE—In very best section we have an up-to-date 8-room home on pretty elevated lot, with all modern conveniences, that we can sell for $3,850.00. Let us carry you out to see this one. Terms.

HANDSOME ANSLEY PARK HOME.

JUST ONE BLOCK from the Peachtree entrance to the park; on the driveway; handsome, artistic, 2-story residence; grand lot, 145 feet front, elevated; garage, stables, servant's house; owner has moved; must sell quick. $20,000 home for way-down price, $16,500. Terms. Possession at once. This is a beauty.

WALKER REAL ESTATE CO.,

35 North Forsyth Street.
Bell Phone 1937.

"WE DO THINGS."

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE.

SCRUTCHIN, EWING
& SATERFIELD

10 Luckie Street.
Phone: Bell 1110; Atlanta 994.

$5,500.
IN THE BEST home section of the north side, just off Peachtree st., a modern 7-room home. Good lot.
The location is the best, and we consider it a bargain at this price.

$5,750.
WE HAVE listed with us for a short time a well-built 7-room home on E. Pine st. With a little addition will make a 4 apartment house.

W. HARRIS ST. close in, we have a magnificent home of 16 rooms. Furnture heat, slate roof and everything that makes a home up-to-date. Fine lot, 50x200. This will not only give you a home, but a good investment.

SALESMEN:
Thomas Scrutchin, Ed Ewing, P. E.
Wood, J. L. Moore, T. L. Swift.

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE.

BUTLER ST. BUILDING.

ON this wholesale business street, you can get a No. 1 brick store building within 75 feet of Decatur street, where property has just sold for $800 per foot, for about $400 per foot; renting for $75 per month; on terms. Price,
$1,200.

NINTH STREET LOT.
BEAUTIFUL, level lot, 50x160 feet; has all improvements;
overlooking Piedmont park;
cheapest lot on the street; can make terms. $1,850.

MUST SELL
Two beautiful lots on Fifth street, near Hemphill avenue, this week; 55x193 each. $1,500 gets the 110 feet. This is very cheap.

S. B. TURMAN & CO.,
Cor. Broad and Alabama Sts.

FOR RENT—HOUSES.

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE.

9 ACRES, on the north side, fronting a main street, inside the city limits.
Phone 909 or call at 4 N. Pryor st.

LUCILE, near Dargan, modern, 5-room bungalow; combination kitchen and bath; $250 cash balance easy. Address Sanol, care Constitution.

IF IT is real estate you want to buy or sell, it will pay you to see me.
A. Graves, 16 1/2 N. Broad street.

NORTH JACKSON ST.—Six-room cottage home; modern construction and conveniences; large lot. Owner, P. O.
Box 583.

FOR SALE—Well located in Decatur,
9-room house on large shaded corner lot, at a bargain. $3,750. With Philippine Realty Co., Phone 145, Decatur, Ga.

BIG profits made growing winter vegetables in Sanford. We offer 250
6-acre tracts, $10 monthly payments.
Little Bond and Guarantee Company,
Sanford, Fla.

A 9-ROOM residence on Washington street; east front; 4 bed rooms; large front and back verandas; slate roof; large barn. Will make liberal terms.
Owner, Box 125.

FOR SALE—Washington street home, near Atlanta avenue. No factory, rooms; bath on first and second floor;
gas, water and electric lights; good condition; built four years; price and terms. Will interest you if you are looking for a home and mean business.
For information write Owner, P. O. Box
645, Atlanta, or phone 1554.

G. J. DALLAS,

4th Nat. Bank Bldg.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES.

MONEY LOANED to inventors to patent good ideas. John Wedderburn, Capitalist, Brookhaven, D. C.

PAYING REAL ESTATE business. On account dissolution will sell cheap and on terms. J. C. B. care Constitution.

WANTED—To buy active interest in reliable established business by capable man. Address Energetic, care this office.

RAILROAD CONTRACTORS' PLANT for sale, consisting of the following equipment: Steam shovels, locomotives, steam drills, Western 4-yd. dump cars, pipes, wheel scrapers (Western), boilers, camp equipment, small amount of rail. Full information will be given on application to the owner, Mr. J. Mc-Donald, City, Tenn., or Aurora, Ill. D. J. Mc-Donald.

H. W. MAPLES & CO.,
819-20 Century Bldg.

$2,000 BUYS established office, established two years. Hustler can easily make $300 per month. Assets of business worth this amount.

$800—North side rooming house, clearing $100 per month; 25 elegantly furnished rooms.

$1,250 BUYS half interest in the best grocery store in Atlanta, on a large lot, located on Peachtree. Doing $65 to $75 daily.

$325 BUYS half interest in state agency for the best selling line of goods on market. Will easily clear $250 per month. Owner leaving city April 1.
Business well established and growing.

$500 CASH, balance from profits, buys centrally located soda water and ice-cream store clearing $125 to $150 per month. Owner leaving city April 1.
and offers it for $500 less than cost.
Counter service found, almost new.

COLLEGE PARK.

$3,750 BUYS a splendid 8-room residence, front car line, 95x 190; with reception hall, large parlor, sliding doors into large dining room, large kitchen downstairs, and three bed rooms and hall upstairs; it is a real bargain; on terms. Come out and let me show you a number of nice cottages of 5, 6 and 7 rooms, and beautiful lots. Will build to suit you.

M'CRODY,

Office, College Park.

SCRUTCHIN, EWING
AND SATERFIELD

10 Luckie Street.

BELL PHONE 1110; ATLANTA 994.

ATLANTA, GA.

$3,500.

ON CREW ST., near E. Ga. ave., we have a splendid 8-room house with all modern improvements; good level lot 50x200; 4-room servant house in rear. A bargain at this price. Some terms.

$3,500.
IN THE BEST SECTION of E. Hunter
st. we have a 5-room house; lot 70 by 140. E. Hunter st. is improving rapidly. See this property.

VACANT LOTS.

IF YOU do not want a home already built, we have some beautiful building lots that should suit you. See these lots at once. Corner lot 80x180, all improvements down; price $2,000. Moreland area, two large lots, 50x200; for a quick sale, $17,500. A beautiful and sixty feet on Lake ave., which will make a good building place. A pick-up for $2,400.

THE swiftest, fact lightest, the finest in the world—The L.
C. Smith, H. M.
Ashe Co., Y. M. C.
A. Bldg., Atlanta.

Coffee.
New York, March 17.—Coffee futures opened dull at unchanged prices. There was practically no feature, and while May showed a decline of 5 points on bids during the middle of the day, the close was dull with prices unchanged.
Santos, 500 bags, Close: March, $6.85;
April, $6.90; May, $6.95; June, $7.00;
July, August, September, October and November, $7.05; December, $7.10; January and February, $7.15.

Have closed unchanged. Hamburg was unchanged to 10 piling high.
Rio, steady unchanged, 7s 5d x 150.
Santos firm, unchanged, 4s 4d x 700.
Ta. 4x 200. Receipts at the two Brazilian ports, 14,000 bags, 7,100 last year. Judiciary receipts 5,900, against 2,800 last year. New York warehouse deliveries yesterday, 7,325, against 17,- 645 last year.

Spot quiet. Rio, 7s 11-16 x 8-4;
Santos, 4s 4d; mild quiet; C.Ordova, 9s 12 1/2.

Futures ranged as follows:
Opening. Closing.
January 7.15 7.25 7.15 7.20
February 7.15 7.20 7.15 7.20
March 6.85 6.90 6.85 6.90
April 6.90 6.95 6.90 6.95
May 6.95 7.00 6.95 7.00
June 7.00 7.05 7.00 7.05
July 7.05 7.10 7.05 7.10
August 7.10 7.15 7.10 7.15
September 7.15 7.20 7.15 7.20
October 7.20 7.25 7.20 7.25
November 7.25 7.30 7.25 7.30
December 7.30 7.35 7.30 7.35

London, March 17.—American securities opened slightly above parity today.
Light buying caused prices to harden during the first hour and at noon the market was quietly steady and from
2 1/4 to 3 1/4 higher than yesterday's New York closing. In the afternoon Wall street offered stock, but turned buyer
later and caused a steady close.
Total sales for money $1,518,000, do-
count $1,518.

Bar silver steady at 33 1/2-16.
New York, 3 per cent; short and three months' bills 3 1/2.
Illinois Central 148.
Louisville and Nashville 155.
Southern Railway 29.
Southern Railway preferred 68.

Boston, March 17.—Cotton: Arizona
Commercial 3 1/2; Butte Colorado 2 1/2;
Calumet and Arizona 7 1/2; Greens Canada 10 1/2; North Butte 4 1/2.

Money and Exchange.
New York, March 17.—Money on call,
steady, 2 1/4-3/4 per cent; ruling rate,
2 1/2, closing bid, 2 1/2; offered at 2 1/2.
Time, 10 days, 3 1/2; 60 days, 4 1/4;
sixty days and ninety days, 4 1/4 per cent; six months, 4 1/4.
Prime mercantile paper, 4 1/4 to 5 per cent.

Sterling exchange mixed with actual business in bankers' bills at 4.89 1/2;
light buying caused prices to harden
during the first hour and at noon the market was quietly steady and from
2 1/4 to 3 1/4 higher than yesterday's New York closing. In the afternoon Wall street offered stock, but turned buyer
later and caused a steady close.
Total sales for money $1,518,000, do-
count $1,518.

London, March 17.—American securities opened slightly above parity today.
Light buying caused prices to harden
during the first hour and at noon the market was quietly steady and from
2 1/4 to 3 1/4 higher than yesterday's New York closing. In the afternoon Wall street offered stock, but turned buyer
later and caused a steady close.
Total sales for money $1,518,000, do-
count $1,518.

Bar silver steady at 33 1/2-16.
New York, 3 per cent; short and three months' bills 3 1/2.
Illinois Central 148.
Louisville and Nashville 155.
Southern Railway 29.
Southern Railway preferred 68.

Boston, March 17.—Cotton: Arizona
Commercial 3 1/2; Butte Colorado 2 1/2;
Calumet and Arizona 7 1/2; Greens Canada 10 1/2; North Butte 4 1/2.

Money and Exchange.
New York, March 17.—Money on call,
steady, 2 1/4-3/4 per cent; ruling rate,
2 1/2, closing bid, 2 1/2; offered at 2 1/2.
Time, 10 days, 3 1/2; 60 days, 4 1/4;
sixty days and ninety days, 4 1/4 per cent; six months, 4 1/4.
Prime mercantile paper, 4 1/4 to 5 per cent.

Sterling exchange mixed with actual business in bankers' bills at 4.89 1/2;
light buying caused prices to harden
during the first hour and at noon the market was quietly steady and from
2 1/4 to 3 1/4 higher than yesterday's New York closing. In the afternoon Wall street offered stock, but turned buyer
later and caused a steady close.
Total sales for money $1,518,000, do-
count $1,518.

LATEST MARKET REPORTS

THE SPOT COTTON MARKET.

MARKETS—	Tone.	Middling.	Receipts.	Prev.	Gross.	Ship- ments.	Stock.
Atlanta	Nominal	14-15	3,800	14-15	100,000	100,000	100,000
Galveston	Steady	14-15	2,000	14-15	100,000	100,000	100,000
New Orleans	Quiet	14-15	2,000	14-15	100,000	100,000	100,000
Mobile	Firm	14-15	2,000	14-15	100,000	100,000	100,000
Savannah	Quiet	14-15	2,000	14-15	100,000	100,000	100,000
Charleston	Quiet	14-15	2,000	14-15	100,000	100,000	100,000
Wilmington	Nominal	14-15	2,000	14-15	100,000	100,000	100,000
Norfolk	Steady	14-15	2,000	14-15	100,000	100,000	100,000
Elmore	Nominal	14-15	2,000	14-15	100,000	100,000	100,000
New York	Quiet	14-15	2,000	14-15	100,000	100,000	100,000
Boston	Quiet	14-15	2,000	14-15	100,000	100,000	100,000
Philadelphia	Steady	14-15	2,000	14-15	100,000	100,000	100,000
San Francisco	Quiet	14-15	2,000	14-15	100,000	100,000	100,000
Georgetown	Steady	14-15	2,000	14-15	100,000	100,000	100,000

Totals today 13,230
do, 5 days 60,378
do, since September 1 62,093

Exports—To continent, from New Orleans 11,000; from New York 250.
Total 11,250.
Galveston—Galveston 2,749; Savannah 11; Norfolk 258; New York 65;
Georgetown 25.
To Japan—From San Francisco 25. Total 25.

MARKETS—	Tone.	Middling.	Receipts.	Prev.	Gross.	Ship- ments.	Stock.
Houston	Steady	14-15	2,000	14-15	100,000	100,000	100,000
Galveston	Steady	14-15	2,000	14-15	100,000	100,000	100,000
Mobile	Steady	14-15	2,000	14-15	100,000	100,000	100,000
St. Louis	Steady	14-15	2,000	14-15	100,000	100,000	100,000
St. Paul	Steady	14-15	2,000	14-15	100,000	100,000	100,000
Little Rock	Steady	14-15	2,000	14-15	100,000	100,000	100,000
Louisville	Steady	14-15	2,000	14-15	100,000	100,000	100,000

Totals today 3,620
do, 5 days 6,543
do, since September 1 9,235

THE RANGE OF COTTON OPTIONS.

RANGE IN NEW YORK COTTON.	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Prev.
Mar.	15.01	15.05	14.96	15.04	15.00
Apr.	14.92	14.96	14.83	14.95	14.91
May	14.83	14.87	14.70	14.86	14.82
June	14.74	14.78	14.61	14.77	14.73
July	14.65	14.69	14.52	14.68	14.64
Aug.	14.56	14.60	14.43	14.59	14.55
Sept.	14.47	14.51	14.34	14.50	14.46
Oct.	14.38	14.42	14.25	14.41	14.37
Nov.	14.29	14.33	14.16	14.32	14.28
Dec.	14.20	14.24	14.07	14.23	14.19
Jan.	14.11	14.15	13.98	14.14	14.10

Closed steady.

RANGE IN NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Prev.
Mar.	14.72	14.76	14.72	14.72
Apr.	14.63	14.67	14.63	14.63
May	14.54	14.58	14.54	14.54
June	14.45	14.49	14.45	14.45
July	14.36	14.40	14.36	14.36
Aug.	14.27	14.31	14.27	14.27
Sept.	14.18	14.22	14.18	14.18
Oct.	14.09	14.13	14.09	14.09
Nov.	14.00	14.04	14.00	14.00
Dec.	13.91	13.95	13.91	13.91
Jan.	13.82	13.86	13.82	13.82

Closed steady.

BONDS.

Chi. and Alton 3 1/2s	72 1/2	B and O	112 1/2	111 1/2	111 1/2
Chi. B. and Q. joint 4s	96 1/2	do prd	91 1/2	91 1/2	90 1/2
Chi. B. and Q. 4s	96 1/2	Bethlehem Steel	42 1/2	42 1/2	42 1/2
Chi. C. and St. P. 4s	87 1/2	B. R. T. Pac.	76 1/2	75 1/2	75 1/2
Chi. M. L. and St. P. gen 3 1/2s, bid.	87	Canadian Pac.	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Chi. R. L. and Pac. R. col. 4s	82 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Chgo. & N. W. 4s	90 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Colorado Industrial 5s	80 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Colorado Midland 4s, ord.	80 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
do, 4s, ext. 4 1/2s	80 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Delaware and Hudson co. 4s	100 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Denver and Rio Grande 4s	95 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Distillers 5s, bid	85 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Erie prior lien 4s	85 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
do, 4s, series A	85 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
do, 4s, series A	85 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
do, 4s, series B, ord.	85 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Gen. Elec. 4s, bid	85 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2
Ill. C. & N. W. 4s	153 1/2	do	176 1/2	17

